

Thursday, Dec. 11, 1912.

N LOOKING over Christmas eards in the local shops, one will find many of the sentiments on the cards have been written by Omaha Miss Grace Sorenson, who has published a book of verse, has written some cards which are among the "best sellers." Miss Sorenson has had considerable experience in writing and has been unusually successful. Mrs. C. E. Crain, who was formerly Miss Emily Wakeley, has writ- press their views on legislation at the ten several cards suitable for birthday and other anniversaries. Mrs. quarterly meeting and smoker to be held Crain, besides her literary ability, is also quite a linguist and French by the Omaha Bar association Saturday

Miss Dalsy Higgins is another Omaha woman who has had considerable success with her cards written for special occasions.

leasure hours writing prose for special occasion cards, and there has been quite a demand for this kind of card. Miss Anne Walker of Council Bluffs is a newspaper woman who has

Misson

Gladys Peters, Elizabeth Pickens, Dorothy Morgan,

Bertha Dickey

Dorothy Stevens

Elizabeth Bruce. Margaret Bruce, Irene Coad, Mordames

Former Omahan Weds.

W. L. Conkley, well known clubman of Cuba and formerly of Omaha, who was for several years connected with the headquarters here, was married to Mrs.

the United States consulate in Havana.

Mr. Coakley has spent the last tw years on his plantations in the Isle of Pines, Cuba, Mr. Coakley is builing a handsome new home in Cuba and they will spend part of each year traveling.

A surprise party was given in honor o

ing, 1810 North Twenty-third street, Tues

Mesdames-M. Galigan.

day evening. Those present were:

Graham,
John Swift.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleming, sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gatin.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rich.
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kaplin.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleming, jr.

Mrs. N. Horn entertained at her hom

Wednesday afternoon at a linen shower for her niece, Miss Minnie Alperin, who

Mrs. Jeter Smith of Waynesboro, Va

is to be a bride this month.

expected home Sunday.

spend the holidays here.

Dresher Still is

Ad club for a 'possum dinner.

Automobile Upsets,

Carl C. Wilson and M. C. Warren,

members of the real estate firm of Wil turned a complete somersault at Thir-

and an assortment of bruises, and his partner came out of the accident with a broken collar bone and plenty of Warren sustained three fractured ribe

tieth and California streets.

machine was badly wrecked.

FORFEITS BOND AND WATCH

AND ELUDES CONSTABLE

pear in court. Bryant had been searching for Ritchette for several days and thought could not get the 'possums.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

is visiting Mrs. John Lionberger,

Mr. Watson Wyman of Basin, W

J. W. Griffith until after the holidays.

Misses-

Anna Bublitz Nellie Nichol

Bridge for Debutante.

Katherine Krug. Mildred Butler, Katherine Beeson, Martha Dale,

Olga Stora,
Beatrice Coad,
Marie Hollinger,
Myra Breckenridge,
Mary Alice Rogers,
Mildred Smith of

Wilmington, N. C.

written verse for Christmas cards and for other occasions.

of Friday, December 12. Complimentary to Miss Daphne Peters the senior class of the University of one of the season's debutantss, Mrs. Omaha will present in the university afternoon at her home. Those present symnasium as the first class play of this were;

school, a three-act comedy entitled "Hicks at College. The play, given with great success, originally in the University of Minnesota, is bubbling over with college fun and spirit, and is acted with the greatest. gest when a group of college students gave it. The theme turns about the perof Hiram Hicks, the millionaire breakfast food man, whose search for a clever advertising manager leads him into M. C. Peters. the midst of college life. He finds his man in Tom Horton, a senter, and cannot understand why Horton refuses to leave college and accept the position. How Hicks determines to have Horton, how the students thwart his schemes, how Horton falls into difficulty, and how quartermaster's department at army Hicks finally works to defeat his own ends, involve a series of humorous sit-

The cast is wholly of students, including the eleven seniors and a number of lower class men, with Miss Bernice Bang-Eart and Miss Edna Sweeley directing the seniors, who were the first class to enter the university and are the first to gradnate. They will use the proceeds of the play to present a suitable memorial to the Surprise Party. university. The memorial will have the distinction of being the first gift from the twentieth birthday of Charles Flemthe student body.

French Tea

Mrs. Ben S. Baker entertained at a French tea at her home today, when only French was spoken. A profusion of flowers were used in the decorations of the rooms. In the living room were pink roses, the music room was abloom with chrysanthemums and in the dining room were many red roses. Mrs. Baker was assisted by the members of the advanced French class of the Omaha Woman's club, of which she is leader, and include For December Bride. Mesdames John O. Yeiser, N. H. Nelson, C. H. Harley, A. B. Hunt, J. Davey, Shotwell, Mack, Taggart and Grace Conklin, May Mahoney, Helen Matters, O'Conner and Eva Ma-

Other clubs were represented by a memben at the tea.

A program was given and the address of welcome was given by Mrs. C. W. Hayes, president of the Omaha Woman's Miss May Mahoney gavt a short talk on the home life of the French girls. Vocal solos were given by Miss Eva Mahoney and Miss Helen Matters and Mrs. Charles Armstrong gave a violin solo and the accompaniments were played by Miss ! Marshall. Mies Grace Conkiln gave a National Park seminary, in Washington, French reading.

For Mrs. Bingham.

bridge last evening for her guest, Mrs. | well, and two younger daughters. Bernice Harry T. Bigham, of Baker City, Ore. The guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sistek. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koran. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sherwood. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Wilcox, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Longnecker Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson.

Mrs. Harry T. Bigham, Baker City, Ore. lessie Padmore, Margaret Wilcox, Georgianit Davis, Anne Rowley, Georgianita Davis,
Mesdames-Harry Smith, Arthur Neweil, Leo Wilson, Watson Wyman of Basin, Wyo.;

At Fort Crook. Chap,ain and Mrs. John Chenoweth of Fort Crook entertained at bridge last and hunters at work near Granite City, evening in henor of Mrs. J. J. Morrow Mo., looking daily for 'possums. Dresher of Portland, Ore., who is the guest of will join them in the hunt next week. her brother, Captain Lawrence Butler, of Some 'possum have already been caught Fort Crook, and who will leave the post and they are being fattened for the feast. on Friday. Two tables were placed for When it will come off is still a matter to the came.

Miscellaneous Shower.

Miss Mabel Hodgins Wednesday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Nell Encell, who will leave in the near future for Atlanta, Ge. The afternoon was spent in needle work Those present were:

Mesdames-Mesdames Mark Encell, Elmery Peterson. Harden Bean. E. Encell, Misses-Gali Yeoman. Gladys Hodgins, Mable Hodgins

Pleasures Past. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Piatti chaperoned thirty-six young women who attend the Mount St. Mary's seminary at a theater party last evening to see the play given at Creighton college by the Research

Mrs. W. Johnston arranged a surprise party Wednesday in honor of Mrs. A. F. Moore. About thirty guests were present, the axie was at right angles with the High five was played and prizes won by car, and naturally the rear of the machine Mesdames T. C. Mynster, Henry Hum- was lifted up and thrown over. The rear pert. K. Strasser, W. Johnston, D. T. McGrath, William Humpert and L. Wolf,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Hamilton will entertain at a series of informal dinner parties Tuesday and Wednesday evenings Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith

C. Richette by not appearing in police court and by forfeiting a 20 cash bond will entertain at dinner next Wednesday and a cheap watch escaped being arrested Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker entertained by Constable Bryant, who waited all morning in police court to serve a warlast evening at a bridge supper, when rant. Richette was arrested on a charge twenty-four guests were present.

For Miss Smith,

Mrs. J. W. Griffith entertained at he had a cinch, but he waited three hours bridge Wednesday afternoon in honor of and then left on a still hunt. her guest. Miss Mildred Smith of WUin N. C. Titres talties were placed

LAWYERS ASK LAW CHANGES Opposing Armies

Legislators Will Address Them at Smoker Saturday Evening.

RECOMMENDATIONS ARE MADE

Preparations Now Being Made for Annual Banquet to Be Held in Conjunction with State

Law members of the incoming legislature will be special guests and will exevening at the University club, Barker

The barristers belonging to the association desire to ask for a number of Miss Katherine Morse of the Omaha High school faculty spends her changes in the laws of the state directly concerning their profession, and it is the purpose to secure the views of legislators on the proposed changes. F. L. Weaver will lead a discussion concerning a proposed new jury law, and different members of the club will present proposed changes regarding the minor court. Other subjects will be: Making a sworn statement of accoun prima facte evidence of the debt.

Harry Kelly entertained at bridge this Eliminating the necessity of an prove" during trials. Changes proposed by any members having a grievance against existing condi-

> Proposed changes by the commission to revise general statutes. The annual banquet of the association n conjunction with the State Bar association will be held at the Rome hotel on the evening of December 28. Tickets may be obtained from A. G. Eilick, Frank H. Woodland, Alvin Johnson and W. A.

The following applications will be presented to the meeting: William Sternberg and Raymond T. Coffey.

At the meeting of the Omaha Bar as sociation held October 12, 1912, the secretary was directed to nave printed all recommendations adopted by the sociation at the meeting of May 29 and October 13, with reference to proposed Jean Rider of New York October 30 at changes in the laws of this state. The ecommendations adopted are as follows:

> Recommendations Adopted. That the law requiring the making and printing of abstracts of the evidence in appeals to the supreme court be repealed. That no exceptions shall be required to rulings or orders of the court concerning pleadings or on objections made during a pleading or or orders. trial, or to giving or refusing instructions; and all errors may be alleged by parties and determined by the appellate court without any specific exceptions being taken in the lower court.

> without any specific exceptions being taken in the lower court.
>
> That the law be so amended as to provide that bills of exceptions shall be served by filing same with the clerk of the district court, notice of such filing being given the adverse party or his atterney in writing by mail, or otherwise that such bill has been filed; and the adverse party shall, in like manner, notify the other party of amendments if any be proposed.

the other party of amendments if any be proposed.

That the law be so amended as to require appeals to the supreme court to be taken within sixty days from time of rendition of judgment or overruling of motion for new trial.

That the association place itself on record as being in favor of the enastment of a workingmen's compensation act, rather than an employers liability act, and that such act be uniform and universal in its operation, and that the association recommend to the governor that such an act be framed. (Action on that motion deferred until the next regular meeting of the association).

That the constitution be amended to limit the right of appeal; and that the matter be referred to the legislative committee with instructions to suggest an amendment or amendicates the succession of the constitution of a suggest an amendment or amendicates to suggest an he guest of his uncle, Mr. George Hoag-and.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Fort, who have the law be so amended as to allow any three of the seven judges of the supreme court to render a decision in that court. the guest of his uncle, Mr. George Hoagbeen in New York for two weeks, are Former Nebraska Boy Miss Mildred Smith of Wilmington, N. is With Louis Mann C., arrived Monday evening to visit Mrs.

Miss Margaret Blackwell, who attends D. C., is expected December 19, to spend Nebraska boy is playing with Louis Mann part of the holidays visiting Madame in "Elevating a Husband," which was Martha Blackell and Mr. and Mrs. War- at the Brandels last evening for a single Miss Beulah Davis entertained at ren Blackwell. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Black- engagement. He was a member of the iass of 1906 and was a Phi Delta Theta. and Adele, of Muscatine, Ia., will also In 1902 Homer Hunt was graduated from the Lincoln high school and immediately entered the state university. While at Lincoln he was an important and talented member of the Dramatic club. He established a local reputation in Lincoln be-Seeking 'Possum for cause of his good work in University the Ad Club Dinner plays. In his junior year he left the university, going to New York and enrolling as a student in the American Academy Al Dresher likes to be as good as his of Dramatic Arts at the Empire theater. On graduation from the academy he He is now trying to make good on a became a member of William H. Crane'. company. His success was immedate and promise made a year ago to the Omaha subsequent engagements followed in the That dinner never came off because Al support of such stars as Mrs. Patrick Campbell, G. P. Huntley, the English Now he has a band of expert trappers comedian, and Hattle Williams, come-

> NATIONAL OFFICES MEET RAILWAY POSTAL CLERKS

Officers of the National Association of be decided because Dresher says he will Railway Mail Clerks were present make no more promises until he has his Wednesday evening at a meeting of the local body held in Baright hall. President P. J. Schardt gave a detailed account of the work done in Washington toward classification of postal clerks. He Occupants Injured was pleased to note the good feeling that exists between the officials at Washngton and the employes throughout the country. Vice President Fair of Topeka also spoke to the clerks, who numbered son & Warren, were severely injured about sixty. The meeting was presided Wednesday, when their automobile over by President Rossiter of the local organization

> WOMAN GETS TEN DAYS FOR REFUSING TO GO HOME

scratches. They were taken to their Mrs. Anna Morton, by refusing to go home when Judge Foster gave her a They were driving west on California hance, drew a ten-day fine and severe reprimand. Mrs. Morton was arrested on street and at Thirtieth the steering gear charge of being drunk. Judge Foster of the machine broke. The front wheels, as a result, were thrown around so that told her if she would go home he would discharge her. Mrs. Morton, who was still under the influence of the liquor, madly waved her arms about her head and said. 'I won't go home and no one can make wheels struck Wilson on the shoulder and Warren was buried under the car. The

"Well, then try ten days in the county pail, came from the judge.

TRUSTY AT JAIL CAUGHT IN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE

Junnie Smith, a trusty at the county sell made an almost successful attempt at getting away yesterday. Smith, who is in lall on a thirty day sentence, for the last few days has been carrying coal of disturbing the peace. He failed to ap- from the coal bin to the kitchen. This marning he crawled up a coal chute to the top and broke in a door. He was about to leave when Jailer Cahill dis covered him coming out of the window

in Omaha Standing Under Truce Flag

Hostilities have been declared between the Salvation Army and the Volunteers of America, and the first engagement, office yesterday morning, was a slight victory for the Volunteers.

Captains of the two contending armies have appealed to the police for protection against the invasions of each other, their claims being that trespass is being comare most generous.

Dominion over several downtown corners was claimed by each captain and a clash of authority resulted, which sent the commanding officers post haste to the

In the chief's office a conference was eld and a temporary truce was declared. Lieutenant Hayes has been commissioned special arbiter and will investigate the opposing claims of the two armies. His inal decision will be sustained by the

The captain of the Salvation Army, called to the conference in the chief's office, did not arrive until the truce had been arranged. Ift framed a special procamation setting forth his declaration of rights in the matter.

"Just now the war seems to be less dangerous than it is likely to become when the coins begin to rattle more frequently and more loudly in the kettles," said Chief Dunn. "The police department has confidence in Lieutenant Hayes and believes that he will ultimately bring about a cessation of hostilities."

Residents Ordered to Remove Garbage

All garbage accumulating in the resi dence districts must be burned after December 14, because the city will not have the money to remove it. This order has been sent to the health department by Police Commissioner Ryder. Garbage accoumulating in the business section must be removed by the business

An appropriation of $1.700 in addition to the regular appropriation of $25,000 annually for the removal of garbage cannot year and as it was appropriated from any funds which may have a surplus there is doubt is to whether any portion of it will be available.

"We ought to have a larger appropria tion for garbage removal," said Police Commissioner Ryder, "for every year several hundred new homes are built, but the garbage fund remains the same."

Declares His Right to Beat His Wife

A man has a perfect right to beat his wife with a stove poker in her own house was the defense put up in South Omaha police court yesterday by Arthur Goodman, a Swift Packing company employe, living at Thirty-sixth and G strets. Goodman, who is the father of six children, the oldest of whom is only i a spree, returning to his home at 2 He took up a stove poker and proceeded lives in the same house, interfered and Goodman is said to have attacked her. In years old, is said to have gone out on police court Goodman said he beat his wife because she was drunk. The police judge withheld a decision of the case pending an investigation into the family affairs by the Associated Charities.

J. Homer Hunt, a former University of Geo. Rogers Settles Gross Damage Suit

George Rogers, prominent cigar man. has just settled for $1,700 with Morris Gross, whose son, Lee Gross, was knocked down and killed about a year ago by an automobile driven by Rogers. Suit was brought to recover $25,000, but a compromise was made for $1,700.

The rally of the noon hour was well maintained to the end of the session, and trading continued relatively dull. Europe was a heavy buyer, chiefly of Union Pacific and other purchases for investment were powerful factors in restoring values.

NEW CAFE OPENS IN THE FLATIRON BUILDING

Mrs. Ida Cooke has just opened a new cafe in the Flatiron building. The fact that the name of the proprietor of this cafe is "Cooke" has in this case some significance for Mrs. Cooke is a practical cook with years of experience. She will be in close touch with the business and er cooking experience will come in good hand. The new place is prettily arranged with harmonious decorations and capacity for seating 100 persons.

HAWKE'S CUT GLASS-FRENZER.

UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA WILL APPEAL ITS CASE

It has been decided by the trustees o the University of Omaha to appeal to the state supreme court the case in which O. C. Redick was granted the right to forelose his mortgage on the university

Fire Warden to Stop Crowding of Aisles in Omaha Theaters

Theater owners have been notified by Fire Warden Ed Morris that the sistes of all playhouses must be kept clear and which occurred in the chief of police's that sale of tickets to exceed the seating capacity of the houses will be prosecuted n accordance with a city ordinance,

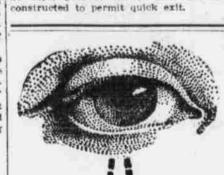

"This applies to all theaters, including the movies," said Morris. "The majority of those whom I have notified have taken the matter in good spirit and will comply "It seems to be a custom, I have found pon investigation for holders of balcony occupying their seats in the balcony. "This must stop, absolutely. Holders of balcony tickets must either occupy the scars they have purchased or get out of from germs and soreness that the terrible edy. It is made of that marvelously

Mr. Morris says some managers have made it a practice to permit a large number of persons to stand about the lobby or in the aisles after all seats have been cupied loss of life would be inevitable. he says, because the theaters are not

tickets to stand in the aisles or the lobbles on the first floor in preference to morning hawking in your throat over- pernicious health destroying germs of sold. In case of fire in a theater so oc- fating symptoms get a Hyomel Inhaler and trial sample free from Booth's 'Hy-

When Buying Baking Powder For this is the baking powder that "makes the baking better." It leavens the food evenly throughout; puffs it up to airy lightness, makes it delightfully appetiz-ing and wholesome. Remember, Calu-met is moderate in price-highest in

Ask your grocer for Calumet. Don't take a substitute. RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARDS, World's Pure Pood Exposition Chicago, Illinois, Paris Exposition France, March, 1912.

Cut off one-third HIGH cost of living for cereal food

Every family in America are entitled to the very best quality of food at the lowest possible cost of production. WASHINGTON CRISPS give you this. Every family which REALLY wants to Reduce the High Cost of Living should support, by their patronage and influence, PURE food mills which give MORE pure food of SUPREMS quality, for the same money.

"First in the HOMES of his Countrymen"

ETHE SUPPOSE GUALITY OF MUSTED WHIN FLAKES. IN AMERICA, AND

Ends Catarrhal Misery Hawking and Snuffles

Booth's Hyomei Destroys Germs, Sooths and Heals the Sore Membrane of the Nose and Throat,

No Stomach Drugging - Just Breathe It - Pronounce It High-O-Me-

You can say goodby to catarrh if you for a HYOMEI outfit. The price is If another bottle is needed the really want to. You can kill every catarrh germ that price is 50 cents. is thriving in the inflamed recesses of the membrane of the nome and throat tions that go with each outfit and if you and in a short time stop forever that are not satisfied that it is killing the thing of the past.

You can make the membrane of your ery you can have your money back.

and a bottle of HYOMEI today. Ask omel Co., Buffalo, N. Y .- Advertisement.

Use it according to the simple direccatarrh and freeing you from vile mis-nose and throat so healthy and free Booth's Hyomel is not a secret remcolds that you catch so frequently and healing antiseptic, Australian Eucalypthat cause such misery will soon be a tus, combined with Gualacol, Thymol and other germ destroying antiseptics. It is If you are really sincere in your de- furnished to all who suffer by pharmasire to be rid of catarrh and its humil- cists everywhere. Booklet about catarrh

Desk Lamps Boudoir Lamps Floor Lamps Christmas Tree Lighting Outfits Curling Irons Flat Trons Heating Pads Cigar Lighters Shaving Mirrors Shaving Mugs Bread Toasters Percolators Chafing Dishes Egg Boilers Coffee Pots

Washing Machines Toys Hair Dryers Sewing Machine Motors Corn Poppers Kitchen Cabinets Kitchen Power Table Utility Traveling Outfits Luminous Radiators Couch Brackets Tea Kettles Cereal Cookers

Omaha Electric Light & Power Company

Waffle Irons

Samovars

Milk Warmers

CROSS SEALS

Investment In Health

ONE CENT EACH

ONE CENT EACH

Every Consumptive Properly Cared for Insures Your Life Against Tuberculosis . . .

Every Seal You Buy

Helps to Provide Hospitals, Sanatoria, Dispensaries, and Visiting Nurses for the Care and Cure of Consumptives in your community . . .

BUY RED CROSS SEALS PROTECT YOUR OWN HEALTH

You will find most interesting reading on the want ad pages.

Have you read the want ads yet-today?