

What Women Are Doing in the World

MRS. T. LINDSEY has for many years been one of the prominent women not only in the club circles in Omaha and Nebraska, but in the woman's work in all affairs.

Mrs. Lindsey was chairman of the board of lady managers during the Trans-Atlantic exposition and is now one of the prominent Omaha women who is giving much of her time to the cause of woman's suffrage.

Mrs. Lindsey has made many important suggestions to the association for the campaign and her influence will be widely felt throughout the state.

She is one of the charter members of the Equal Franchise society and also a member of the Omaha Political Equality league.

Mrs. Lindsey is also a member of the entertainment and lecture committee of the Society of Fine Arts and is a notable patron of art in Omaha.

The Omaha Society of Fine Arts will meet Thursday morning at the public library. Miss Lida Wilson will be the leader for the morning and the subject will be "The Civilization of the Early Landscape School."

The Mu Sigma will meet Wednesday morning, December 12, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Gunther. Mrs. Dickson will be the leader and the subject will be "The Dawn of Romanticism."

The monthly meeting of the Visiting Nurse association will be held Wednesday morning, December 12, at 10:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Paxton hotel.

The literature department of the Century club of South Omaha will meet at Library hall Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Farrell will be the leader of the meeting.

The Benson Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Rober Thursday, December 13, at 2:30. It will be an educational meeting and the current events will be given by Mrs. Simons.

The P. E. O. society will hold its regular meeting at the Child Saving institute Thursday, December 13. The members will spend the day sewing for the children.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. David Northrup, 228 Spalding street, Tuesday afternoon, December 11, at 3 o'clock.

The special agenda department of the Omaha Women's club will meet Monday afternoon at the club rooms at 215 E. 24th.

The Woman's Club of the Railway Mail Service will give a musical program at the home of Mrs. S. A. Holt, 1413 North Forty-second street, Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Helen N. Eacker, who is secretary at the Kansas Suffrage association, will come to Omaha and the Nebraska association January 5 and will spend a month in the campaign work for the state.

The Benson Women's club will have its educational meeting next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Lew W. Rober. Mrs. P. H. Cole of Omaha will be present and address the meeting on the civil service question.

The women of the Benson Methodist church will give a Christmas bazaar in the basement next Tuesday all day; a lunch will be served at noon and a chicken dinner from 6 to 8 o'clock in connection with the bazaar.

Bride of One Week is Convicted of Murder in the First Degree

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Frieda Trost, who was on trial here this week on a charge of having killed her husband, William Trost, was convicted today of murder in the first degree.

The Commonwealth charged that Mrs. Trost within one week after her marriage last August gave Trost poison in order that she could obtain his estate valued at less than $50,000.

Mrs. Trost admitted purchasing poison to kill and maintained that Trost probably took the poison with suicidal intent.

The jury was out two hours. Mrs. Trost showed little emotion when the verdict was rendered. Her counsel immediately took steps for a new trial.

Woman Dies of Starvation

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—An aged widow known only as Mrs. McMillen, was found dead of starvation and exposure in a small hut here today. There was neither food nor fuel in the room and some of the window panes were out.

CHAIRMAN DOUGLAS COUNTY SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT.

A Germ Cannot Live through the "Dresher" Rug

Garment Cleaning Process and we will give

$1,000 Cash to any Omaha Charitable Institution if you'll prove otherwise.....

READ THIS

Phone Tyler 345 and find out more about this Germ murdering process

This Item appeared in The Omaha World-Herald of December 10th 1912.

You, at your home, CANNOT keep a rug clean enough to prevent a rapid accumulation of GERMS. Germs are in order JUST as soon as soil appears in the fabric. Your fur, too, are favorite storage places for myriads of germs, in fact one of the most prolific breeding places for germs is a piece of fur. Your clothes, your hat, your shoes contain them to a greater or less extent also.

But it's the floor coverings and furs that cause the most concern. These should be sent to us periodically for an absolute, scientific cleaning. In our process a germ cannot survive. The process will not injure the daintiest lace gown and yet it proves instant death to all germ life. We will PROVE this to any scientist; to any bacteriologist. Don't remain another day with disease laden floor coverings, for it doesn't COST much to render them SANITARY. Another thing, we will make your rugs appear as bright, as pretty and crisp as they were the day you purchased them.

Just call up Tyler 345 and get more information. Or inquire at one of the Dresher Branches in the Potomac Room of the Brandeis Stores, or at Dresher The Tailor, 1212 Farnam St. Dreshers pay express one way on all out of town shipments amounting to $5 or over.

Prominent Brotherhood Man to Speak at Y. M. C. A. Today

Henry A. Atkinson, secretary of labor and social service of the Congregational Brotherhood of America, will speak at the men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian association this afternoon at 4 p. m.

Mr. Atkinson is a Tennessean. He was educated in California and took his bachelor degree at the Pacific Methodist college and then took three years' post-graduate work at the Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill.

He entered the Congregational ministry in 1902. His first pastorate was at Albion, Ill., and from there he went to First church, Springfield, O., and after four years accepted the pastorate of the Central church at Atlanta, Ga. Central church is in the very heart of the city, close by the leading hotels, apartments and boarding houses. While here he succeeded in so reaching the men of the city that his reputation steadily outran local boundaries.

Mr. Atkinson believes that brotherhood is the fundamental fact of life and that the development of antagonistic classes in American life is to be deplored. He has been of large use in bringing together the representatives of capital and labor in the cities where he has lived and has maintained the friendship and support of those who employ, as he has been welcomed as the champion of the rights of those who toil.

The music will be in charge of Paul J. Gilbert, who is spending the week with the Omaha association, reaching numbersless groups of men through song and address. Mr. Gilbert is the tenor of the International Young Men's Christian association quartet and has a national reputation as a singer. He has spent much time with Fred H. Smith, going with him on a European evangelistic mission. He afterwards sang with Torrey and Alexander during their British campaigns and on returning home worked at various times with Biederwolf and Chapman.

The first of the year Mr. Gilbert starts around the world on a tour with Fred H. Smith, Raymond Robins and the international quartet, visiting Hawaii, Japan, Korea, China, the Philippines, Australia, South Africa, Palestine and Great Britain.

H. A. ATKINSON.
