OUTLINE PEACE CELEBRATION

Britons Propose Monument for Washington in London.

EDUCATIONAL SCHEME PLANNED

Interchange of Lecturers and In-formation About Two Countries Are Proposed as Promoters of Good Will.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The British com-mittee organized for the celebration in 1914 of the centenary of Anglo-American peace has drawn up a comprehensive program, which was made public today. It is proposed that a monument to George Washington be erected in Westminster abbey or in Westminster hall, adjoining the House of Commons. It is also pro-posed that Sulgrave manor, Northamp-tonshire, the ancestral home of Wash-ington, be purchased, and that an organized effort be made on both sides of the At-lantic and in the British colonies to pro-mote well-considered educational meth-ods and the growth of the feelings of mutual respect, affection and good will as well as mutual knowledge among the peoples of British and American descent. Lectureships at the principal univer-sities, prizes for essays on Anglo-American relations and new school readers are to be included in the educational scheme. It is estimated that for these purposes from $250,000 to $300,000 will be necessary and substantial subscriptions have been already received. The announcement was made today by Earl Grey at a meeting held at the Man-sion house and presided over by the lord mayor of London. Many prominent per-sons were present, including Emile Braun, the burgomaster of Ghent; Lord Blyth, Lord Reay, Lord Courtney of Benwith, Lord Wardale and a number of mem-bers of the House of Commons, including Hamar Greenwood, Colonel Edward Price-Jones and Alpheus C. Morton, as well as Consul General J. L. Griffiths and Sir T. Vesey Strong.

Letter from Mr. Reid, The meeting having passed a resolution of sympathy with the family of the late Ambassador Whitelaw Reid, Earl Grey read a long list of messages of sympathy with the movement, including one written by Mr. Reid, in which he said:

"The physicians will not consent to my attending the public meeting at the Man-sion house to help start your movement for celebrating the one hundredth anni-versary of peace between our two coun-tries. I especially wish to be present be-cause I regard this as an event of enor-mous importance, and I think that fail-ure to give it such a celebration as shoul-d challenge the attention of the whole world would be a crime."

There also were letters from mem-bers of the British cabinet, including Premier Asquith, and a cable dispatch from The-odore Roosevelt. The premier in his let-ter promised the support of both himself and the British government.

Grey Refers to Canal Dispute. Earl Grey, in outlining the scheme, said he could not forget that he was speaking at a moment when difficulties had arisen in respect to the interpretation of an Anglo-American treaty, but his experience in America had taught him "to know how to give it such a celebration as shoul-d challenge the attention of the whole world and fairness, and in their desire to settle each question as it arises with the same regard for the rights of others that we claim to accord ourselves."

He pointed out that the proposal to erect monuments in England, America and the British colonies to commemorate the centenary had met with the approval of the British committee, and he thought that the other three proposals mentioned were worthy of adoption.

Emile Braun, burgomaster of Ghent, announced that the municipality of that city intended to assist in the celebration by restoring the room in which the Anglo-American treaty was signed to its original state, and by holding a banquet in the same room in which the peace dele-gates had dined, which as far as possible would be a repetition of that held 100 years ago.

Bank Robbers Hold Entire Town at Bay

MODENA, Mo., Dec. 18.—Five men robbed the Bank of Modena of $5,000 at an early hour this morning, terrorized the town by shooting at everyone whom they could see, and escaped, presumably in buggies. Although search has been made for them all day, no trace has been found.

Modena is in Mercer county, about twelve miles southwest of Princeton, the county seat, and is off the railroad. The robbery occurred shortly after midnight. Two men entered the bank, a small frame building and three remained on the outside. It required four charges of ex-plosion and forty minutes time to blow the safe. The building was wrecked. Upon the first explosion most of the 300 inhabitants of the town were awakened. Persons who ventured out were ordered back into their homes. About fifty shots were fired by the three robbers on guard. Town Marshal Amos McNeely fired two or three shots at the men, but they retaliated and drove him to cover. The robbers had cut the telephone wires be-fore beginning their work.

MISS ANGELINA POHLER WEDS AFTER WEEK'S COURTSHIP

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—After a courtship of but a week's duration, Miss Angelina Pohler, the attractive soloist of the Carrollton hotel orchestra, was married last night to Harry M. McCall of Baltimore, a well known traveling man, who is now stop-ping at the Emerson.

Miss Pohler, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brenner of Omaha and formerly of this city, has attracted much attention by her work at the Carrol-ton. The wedding took place at the Carrol-ton with Father Gavan of the cathed-ral, officiating. A wedding supper was served, after which the couple left for an extended tour.

Valuable Horses Burn in Livery Barn Fire

HASTINGS, Neb., Dec. 18.—(Special Tel-egram.)—Between thirty-five and forty horses perished in the fire which de-stroyed Dr. William Hefferon's livery stable and adjacent dwelling owned by William Madget about 7:30 tonight. Only two of the horses in the barn were saved. Dr. Hefferon lost twenty-five horses and Ralph Brochner five. Among the animals burned was Rev. Father McDonald's saddle horse, a Kansas City horse show winner, valued at $700.

Dr. Hefferon's loss is about $4,000. He carried no insurance. The entire roof of the barn was ablaze when the alarm was turned in and for a time the fire threatened the gas works and the Hager wholesale candy factory close by. Losses than a year ago fifty-six horses perished in the Tanner livery stable fire.
