JUDGE A. L. SUTTON.

Harry A. Wolf, guardian, A. Pinkenstein, trustees, J. L. Brodsky, S. Danisko, S. Cohen, delegates to the district grand lodge, Martin L. Sugarman, Arthur Rosenblum and S. J. Leon. "Tobe Dunn" Makes a Confession and Tells Real Name The man arrested by Chief Maloney last week in connection with Diggs Nolan, the southern outlaw who is being held at the county jail for trial in the federal courts on the charge of using the mails to defraud, and who gave the name of Tobe Dunn, a prominent district court judge of Memphis, Tenn., made a written confession this morning, denying all connection with the Nolan case and stating that his name is R. S. Burns. He gave his address as Columbia, Tenn. He said he had never testified Arthur Maloney as his lawyer, had never seen him until yesterday morning, and that he did not want to have anything to do with Mullen. Mullen has been trying in every possible way the last few days to get Burns out of the city jail, where he is serving a thirty days' sentence on a vagrancy charge. Burns says he came to Omaha upon request of Ernest Nolan, formerly a city detective at Memphis, who was discharged from the force following an effort on his part to secure his brother's release from the custody of United States officers by force. He was to receive $ a day and have all expenses paid during his stay in Omaha. Ernest Nolan came here with Burns. Upon learning of Burns' arrest, Nolan left Omaha Christmas morning for fear he would be arrested. Chief Maloney and government officers are investigating Burns. If they find no damning evidence against the prisoner he will be released and given an opportunity to "once more breathe the pure ozone of his sunny southland," as he inserted in his confession.

UNION PACIFIC MAY BUILD Local Officials Say Road Will Have Line to San Francisco. WANT THROUGH LINE TO COAST If Central Pacific is Taken from Union Pacific Control the Road Will Build a Line of Its Own. There was an exodus of Union Pacific officials of New York Friday night, going there to be present at the meeting of Harriman officials next week to figure out details in connection with the supreme court's order, dissolving the merger of the Southern and Union Pacific. President Mohler left for the east Friday and was followed by Vice President Monroe, Passenger Manager Fort and General Solicitor Loomis. None of the officials of the Union Pacific left behind will attempt to predict the outcome of the conference and the ultimate disposition of the property, but all agree that the Union Pacific will never let go of the old Central Pacific, the line from Ogden to San Francisco without a fight. They contend that if the Southern Pacific insists upon holding onto this portion of the transcontinental system and will, inside of a year the Union Pacific will have a continuous line from Omaha into San Francisco. In the event the Union Pacific should be forced to let go of the old Central Pacific, it will use the San Pedro line to good advantage. The Union Pacific owns the San Pedro and the plan is, providing an agreement cannot be reached with the Southern Pacific, to build from Caliente, Nev., almost due west to San Francisco. By using the San Pedro from Ogden to Caliente and building a line from that point into San Francisco, the distance to the coast would be shortened considerably and a much easier grade than that of the old Central Pacific obtained. It is estimated that in the event it should become necessary for the Union Pacific to build west from Caliente, a distance of something like 60 miles, the work could be completed in operation inside of one year. Masked Bandit Holds Up a Restaurant Saturday Morning The early morning tranquility of the One Minute restaurant, on Fifteenth street, near Howard, was intentionally disturbed at 6 o'clock yesterday morning by a masked robber. While Victor Finson, one of the proprietors, and the night waiter, Jim Slyter, were in the back end of the establishment, a rough looking individual wearing a heavy mask and a formidable six-shooter, entered the front door and demanded that every one throw up his hands. Slyter was the first to respond, then the patrons who were eating their breakfasts followed his orders, but Finson, who is humorously inclined, thought it was a joke and hesitated. But only for the fraction of a second. The bandit then leaned over the cash register and relieved it of $31, but left behind, like a good sport, 40 cents for change. Before leaving he admonished that it would be safer if no one looked out of the door for at least five minutes. OMAHA BUILDERS TO HAVE BANQUET MONDAY Arrangements are being made for the annual banquet of the Omaha Builders' exchange to be given January 7 in Courtney's restaurant. Following the dinner the members and their wives will go to the Orpheum theater. The annual election of the exchange will be held Monday evening, January 8.

Municipal League Wants Information About Telephones The special committee of the League of Nebraska Municipalities met in Lincoln Friday, and after discussing telephone matters, sent out a request for information regarding telephone conditions in cities and villages of the state. The information is to be sent to the secretary, E. C. Orman, Lincoln, Neb., by January 8, 1913, and should cover schedule of present rates; contracts with telephone companies; grievances in general, and other matters of interest. The object of the committee is to secure all information possible prior to the meeting of the League of Nebraska Municipalities, January 14, 15 and 16. The special committee that was appointed by President George F. Wols of Fremont, is as follows: Mayor C. L. Mielans, Walnut, chairman; Mayor J. A. Reuling, Wynmore; Alderman H. J. Whitmore, Lincoln; Councilman Paul Colson, Fremont; Mayor J. M. Calder, Seward. PANAMA EXPOSITION! POSTAGE STAMPS ARRIVE Postage stamps in honor of the Panama exposition have been issued, and a collection of 7,000 of them was received at the Omaha postoffice. The ones received are in the denominations 1 cent, 5 cents, and 10 cents. The department has written that the 5-cent Panama stamps are not yet ready for distribution. The three denominations received here are blue, yellow and green. The 1-cent stamp contains a picture of Balboa, the explorer; the 5-cent one a sunset scene in the Golden Gate; the 10-cent one a reproduction of the picture representing the landing of the pilgrims.
