The professional poker player is disappearing like the buffalo hunter disappeared, said Colonel Kirby of Butte, Mont., in explaining to a company of friends the changes which are coming over the west. "The field of the professional card player is so restricted that it is no longer profitable. Nowadays card playing is confined principally to the clubs or to select circles of friends. Nobody plays cards with strangers."

These beets are being profitably grown. In fact, there is almost as much sugar produced from beets as from cane at the present time. The production of beet sugar last year was 5,999,938 tons, while only 2,332,434 tons more of cane sugar were produced in all the world. The total quantity of sugar consumed all over the earth in 1911 was 14,353,510 tons. Europe produced 5,524,067 tons and Asia sent forth 2,757,735 tons, more than 500,000 tons more than were produced in the United States, which produced 2,219,415 tons. The rest of America, chiefly Cuba, of course, produced 1,162,651 tons, while Africa produced 470,215 tons and Australia only 29,883 tons.

"When the people of Fort Benton invited me to pull about 15,000 words on George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and the American flag, I accepted with the enthusiasm of a bystander who hears the call, 'All hands to the bar.' I arrived in Benton after midnight and the reception committee gave me the choice of going to bed or sitting into a little game of stud-poker. I chose poker as the more entertaining."

Some Reasons. So many people have bought this year in Dundee are that we are now offering a continuation of the West Farming district. This land is adapted to the raising of citrus fruit and sugar cane and general truck farming. No part of Florida can show better results in these lines than what is being actually produced in the locality of this land. The necessity of the owner raising cash in liquid form is being adapted to the needs of the owner. For particulars address Mr. J. B. Clark, Land Commissioner, Live Oak, Fla., or the Railroad Co., Box 429, Live Oak, Florida.
