Carter Lake Club Members Draw for Lots for Building

Members of the Carter Lake club, formerly the Rod and Gun club, were kept busy at the offices of the club in the Omaha National Bank building Saturday choosing a lot apiece from the recent 200lot tract purchase, located just west of Courtland Beach. Drawings for the choices were made some time ago, and the members picked out the lots according to the number drawn,

The club was organized by Frank L. Weaver, president; A. P. Whitmore, Scott King, C. L. Dundy and David Christy, and these gentlemen were given their pick of the lots in the order named.

One hundred and fifty members paid $500 apiece, entitling him to a lot There will be fifty lots for the club to dispose of after the members have had their

The different buildings located on the beach itself are undergoing improvement at the hands of the club. The skating rink has been moved to another part of the grounds, the dance hall has been rushingled, while a new bathhouse boathouse have been built.

The best news of the season was received when the Mercantile league reviewed the situation and announced its intention of joining the Greater Omaha Bowling association. There is no doubt but that any league joining the association is taking the proper step There are still a few leagues which have not signed up.

The Gate City merry-go-round is the most successful one pulled off in Omaha for many moons. A pot of $196 was divided. Terrell was the big winner with $37; Learn next with $22, followed by Evans with $19, Shaw $15 and Kolanchick $11. Several merchandise prizes were also divided among other contestants with lower scores.

McFarland Reports Missed His Train

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.-Packey McFarland the lightweight pugilist, was "lost" for a few hours today, but tonight he showed up at some of his old haunts and relieved the fears of his friends. McFarland was scheduled to fight Freddie Daniels in Omaha last night. He landed a hard left to the ribs and a right started to the train, but missed it and as to the nock. The blows appeared to anger a result did not keep his Omaha engage- the Texas fighter and he immediately ment. Neither did he notify the promotors of the bout, his manager or his book up under Kearne' chin and followed family that he had not left Chicago.

When it was learned from Omaha that McFarland had failed to appear friends began searching for him. A story was circulated that he had split with his manager, Emil Thirty, and that was the reason for his keeping out of sight, but Packey explained tonight that missing the train was his only difficulty.

Work on Big League Schedules Begins

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.-Secretary John Heydler of the National league started today for Alken, S. C., where he will assist President Ban Johnson of the American league and President Barney Dreyfuss of the National league club to draft the schedules for the big league base ball season of 1913. Dreyfuss is already in Aiken, having gone there ten days ago on account of his health, and Heydler said Johnson was expected in Alken today. The three will formally meet on Saturday to sift out as many conflicting dates as five last year, all of which were in Chicago. In the schedule making of five years ago there were thirty or more conflicting dates. possible. These conflicts are almost a
