TOPICS FOR A DAY OF REST

New Year Theme of Sermon and Song Services in Many Churches.

JUDGE HOWARD KENNEDY TALKS

Opens Forum of St. Mary's Avenue Congregational Church with Talk on Javenile De-Huqueney.

The new year will be the theme of many sermons in Omaha churches tomorrow. Only a few of the churches will hold services on New Year's day-In many tomorrow there will be elaborate musical programs at the morning or evening meetings. Many aspects of the new year will be treated by the preachers.

The Lowe avenue Presbyterians will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their church Sunday. In the morning at 19:30 there will be a short historical address by Elder J. K. Fleming, a charter member, and a sermon by Dr. Stephen Phelps of Belleveus. A large number of new-members will be received at this service. The following is the program for the morning service:

Organ voluntary, "Pilgrims" from "Tan-hauser," Miss Morehouse. Processional. Invocation and Lord's prayer.

Doxology. Hymn, "Coronation," No. 189. Scripture lesson. Duet, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Fleming. Prayer and response. Anthem, "Birthday of the King," Neid-linger, Miss Pederson and the choir.

HATCHING OUR EGGS BY THE PARCELS POST

(PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12 .- Postmaster Smith wants to know if the new parcels post law allows chickens, eggs, etc., to be sent through the mails .- News Item.)

By HANK. Old Farmer Meggs took fifty eggs and packed them in a crate, To save the most, by parcels post, he sent them 'cross the State, But like a snail the U. S. Mail took long to put them through, So Meggs' eggs arrived with legs, and "cocka-doodle" too!

Collector Phil long had a bill for dollars ninety-three, 'Twas for a gent who owed the rent, but Phfi he wouldn't see, But Phil was bright, and so one night he stamped himself with care, He then was mailed, and soon he nailed the debtor by the hair.

Poor Santa Claus was sore because the chimneys were too small; His reindeer, too, were feeling blue, and wouldn't work at all; So Santa said, "I'll soon be dead if buildings high I coast, And so I'll go through Christmas snow by modern parcels post.

Clearing the Decks for Action

December, just passed, totaled the Greatest December in sales in the history of our business, and the year 1912 has been the biggest year in our entire 54 years in the piano business. Never before in the history have we sold in one year so many Steinway, Weber, Steger & Sons, Hardman, Emerson McPhail, Wheelock, Steck, Stuyvesant Schmoller & Mueller Planos

We were frequently obliged to accept in exchange on these new pianos used instruments.

From all of our branch stores, from every wholesale agency, we have assembled here at Omaha these Taken-in-Exchange Pianos, have put them through our factory, thoroughly overhauled them. Where necessary they have been rebuilt. Each instrument has been repolished, tuned and made near-new, and put on the sales floor.

Our January Clearing Sale Starts Tomorrow Morning

By purchasing during this sale you will positively save all the way from 875.00, $100.00, $150.00 up to $200.00 on the BARGAINS IN PIANOS TAKEN-IN-EXCHANGE, as compared with the regular retail price when new. There will be no need to urge Plano buyers to hasten. They will snap these values up. The reputation of this firm insures a square deal on every instrument offered. Lowest prices, and terms that you couldn't begin to secure except at Schmoller & Mueller's.
