

KINGS' DESCENDANTS TRACED

Blue-Blooded Americans All Are Residents of Cities.

ONE REPRESENTATIVE IN IOWA

Mrs. Mary Newbury Adams of Dubuque Descended from William the Conqueror, According to David Starr Jordan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 31.—Further reports of Dr. David Starr Jordan's book on the "Ideal Eugenics," soon to be published, show that in his exhaustive study of the origins of American families Dr. Jordan has found that all the descendants of royalty live in cities, rural districts being unrepresented.

A dozen American cities are accorded descendants of kings and queens, many celebrated personages being included in the doctor's list. New York leads in the lists of individuals, having seven, while Chicago has only three.

Charlemagne and Alfred the Great, as famous ancestors appear to have the largest representation. Dr. Jordan assigns royalty to the various cities as follows, all those named being included in the much longer list of those "eugenically fit."

New York—Vincent Astor, descended from Robert Bruce of Scotland; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pettibone, Charlemagne, Andrew Carnegie, Mary Queen of Scots; Mrs. Homer Hine Stuart, Hugh Capet of France; Mrs. William E. Strong and Mrs. George Innes, Jr., Edward II of England.

Chicago—Mrs. Annie W. I. Kerfoot, Dr. and Mrs. Theron Royal Woodward, Charlemagne.

Boston—Miss Eleanor Sears, Philip Count of Namont.

Baltimore—George Nourby Mackenzie, Charlemagne; Mrs. Daniel A. Boone, Miss Ellen Howard Bayard and the Bayard and Carroll families, Conn Coadatha, king of Ireland.

Denver—Mrs. Franklin R. Carpenter, Edward of England.

Dubuque, Ia.—Mrs. Mary Newbury Adams, William the Conqueror; Washington, D. C.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Stone, Jr., Alfred the Great.

Richmond, Va.—Mrs. Anna Fitzhugh Walker, Alfred the Great.

MASON CITY MAN SAVES TWO DROWNING BOYS

MASON CITY, Ia., Dec. 31.—(Special)—Tim Phalen yesterday rescued two boys from drowning, one after he had sunk for the last time and had gone to the bottom in six feet of water, and the other, one who had attempted the rescue of the first, but was overcome and would have been drowned had it not been for Phalen.

Frank Farrell, son of J. D. Farrell, postoffice inspector, had gone to skate. In crossing the ice he fell in. He tried to get out, but finally gave up. Will Shinn, a small boy, saw Farrell go down for the last time and jumped in to rescue his friend. He was overcome. It so happened that Phalen came along at this time and seeing the commotion, rushed to the opening, jumped in and went down to the bottom for Farrell and brought him up. He then rescued Shinn, and with the assistance which was then on shore both were taken out. Farrell was unconscious for some time, but by heroic treatment life was brought back. The doctors are doing all they can for him and it is probable he will get well. Shinn was badly chilled.

SHENANDOAH MAN VICTIM OF PECULIAR FRAUD

SHENANDOAH, Ia., Dec. 31.—(Special)—J. B. Armstrong of Shenandoah was the victim of an unusual swindle recently. He owns a fine winter residence in Tampa, Fla., and went there with his family a month ago to spend the winter.

He found his residence occupied by strangers, who refused to admit him, refused possession, and denied all knowledge of him. Investigation revealed that the housekeeper left in charge last spring had rented the house and decamped for parts unknown. Negotiations were under way for the sale of the property and Mr. Armstrong arrived just in time to stop the proceedings. A month's legal action was necessary to regain possession of his property.

had friends among the prisoners greeted them and exchanged words of comfort. As soon as the party entered the train the signal for departure was given. There was no cheering as the train pulled out.

Attorneys File Petitions. Judge Anderson took under advisement today a petition for a writ of error, filed by the attorneys for the thirty-three men under sentence to Leavenworth prison, and set Thursday at 10 o'clock for a further hearing, when a prayer for a writ of supersedeas also will be filed.

The petition contained more than 100 typewritten pages and several times as Judge Anderson read it he would remark to the attorneys: "Junk, you'll have to get a better objection than that."

"That is for the higher court to say," replied Mr. Krum. "But that is my judgment," responded Judge Anderson.

United States District Attorney Charles W. Miller, in asking that the court delay action, declared much of the petition was "junk," and that he wished to have time to go over it carefully and eliminate such parts as he said did not correspond to the records. He asked that the matter go over until after New Year's day. The hearing was in the judge's chambers.

Joseph Schwartz, Chicago, who was arrested during the trial on the charge of attempting to obstruct justice by talking to witnesses was released from jail today on his own recognizance. After Judge Anderson had filed his bill at 10:00, District Attorney Miller said he would recommend the release of Fred Zeiss, also of Chicago, who was arrested on the charge of committing perjury while a witness.

James Couglin and James Cooney of Chicago, two of the defendants released under suspended sentences, said they hoped to spend New Year's at home.

McManigal Goes Back

Plans for the removal to Los Angeles of Ortie E. McManigal, the dynamite, have been made. He will leave within a short time in charge of Malcolm McCarren, a deputy of Los Angeles county, but the time of his departure will not be announced.

McManigal's confession as a hired destroyer of property, corroborated by witnesses, was responsible for many of the convictions. He named a half dozen ironworkers' officials as having met him at the direction of McNamara to show him what jobs to blow up. Twice he has been "borrowed" by the government from Los Angeles county.

After his disposal out there on his plea of guilty, he is returnable to the federal court here for sentence. The fact that Edward Clark, another dynamite who pleaded guilty, was allowed his liberty is regarded as an indication that McManigal will be shown leniency. The district attorney pleaded to the court that Clark had "given valuable assistance to the government."

Application to Circuit Court

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Formal application for writs to prevent the removal of the convicted labor leaders in the dynamite cases from Indianapolis to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth was made today to Judge Seaman in the United States circuit court of appeals. Judge Seaman refused to take any action, saying that he would be in Indianapolis on Thursday and would consider the matter there at that time.

Attorney Zollne presented the request for the writs.

Judge Seaman made it very plain that although the defendants have been taken to Fort Leavenworth they may be released later on bonds.

CONSTABLE WILL RECOVER; ASSAILANT BOUND OVER

SHENANDOAH, Ia., Dec. 31.—(Special)—Evert Vaughn, who stabbed Constable William Simmons Friday night, waived preliminary hearing and was taken to the county jail at Clarinda this afternoon to await trial at the February term of court. Simmons is slightly better and has a chance for recovery.

Vaughn stabbed Simmons three times when returning with a party of rolsters from a dance Friday night. Simmons' daughter, Mrs. Warden, saw the fracas and rushed out of the house with a shotgun. She was about to empty the gun into Vaughn's face when the man's friends knocked the gun out of her hands. Vaughn is 30 years old and was married two weeks ago. He will be tried for assault with intent to commit murder.

TAKE MAGIC CITY TO SARPY

Charter Committee Suggests Changing County Boundary Lines.

HOCOTR'S APPOINTEES INCUBATE

Hatch Out Wonderful Plan to Detach South Omaha from Douglas and Make It Suburb of Papillion.

Douglas county is to be punished, Omaha is to suffer, Sarpy county is to be enlarged by the annexation of South Omaha, and the patriots who for so many years have made the Magic City a Utopia of civic purity and official probity are to be continued in office forever and ever. That is, if the wish of the charter revision committee appointed by Mayor Hocr of South Omaha is to be carried out.

It has been known from the beginning that the committee appointed by Hocr for the purpose of considering necessary amendments to the South Omaha city charter and other legislation that pertains to South Omaha, after due consideration of the charter find but few amendments necessary.

The principal feature of the charter requiring consideration at this time is the sections relating to public improvements, and that only to the extent of correcting certain sections that have been recently passed upon and criticized by the courts. No increase in city funds seems to be required at this time, except, perhaps, a slight increase in the lighting fund.

The committee will hold public meetings in the council chamber at the city hall at stated intervals, and invites all citizens of South Omaha to be present at these meetings and offer suggestions and advice to the committee.

The consolidation of the cities of Omaha and South Omaha at a time when the physical growth of the two cities will make such consolidation seem advisable upon terms that will apply and fairly protect the welfare of the citizens of this community, will be fully considered.

Watkins Takes Reins

Before the meeting convened Mayor Hocr declared the chief purpose of the committee was to draft a provisional annexation bill looking to a merger with Omaha. Behind the doors of the star chamber the order was shifted. Hocr became a secondary figure and John B. Watkins was immediately elevated to the chairmanship of the committee with Charles W. Sears as secretary.

The unanimity with which the committee had agreed to stir the ire of the plain citizens seemed marvelous were it not for the doubtful loyalty of S. L. Winters, who wants several sections of the city charter altered.

Committee Issues Ukase. However, after several hours' work the committee finally got out a ukase. It says the charter has been a very good instrument, indeed only, it does not seem to have provided for enough money to spend for light. Not a great increase of city funds, of course, the public is assured—"just a slight increase." The committee also informed the possessors of the American franchise that it would sit from time to time and graciously invite all citizens to come to see it and offer suggestions and advice to the committee. Then the committee goes on to say that the consolidation of the two cities will be fully considered.

But the climax of the remarkable document is reached where the committee indicates that unmindful of anything else than its patriotic duty toward South Omaha it will take up the "much mooted question of changing the boundary lines of Douglas county so that South Omaha will become the county seat of Sarpy county."

The Moving Script. To date, with the exception of an attaché of City Treasurer Gillin's office, no one outside of the committee and the office holders have ever entertained the thought of clipping the hem from the robe of imperial Douglas to make a cloak for the shivering office holders of South Omaha.

The advice of the committee follows: The committee appointed by the mayor for the purpose of considering necessary amendments to the South Omaha city charter and other legislation that pertains to South Omaha, after due consideration of the charter find but few amendments necessary.

The principal feature of the charter requiring consideration at this time is the sections relating to public improvements, and that only to the extent of correcting certain sections that have been recently passed upon and criticized by the courts. No increase in city funds seems to be required at this time, except, perhaps, a slight increase in the lighting fund.

The committee will hold public meetings in the council chamber at the city hall at stated intervals, and invites all citizens of South Omaha to be present at these meetings and offer suggestions and advice to the committee.

The consolidation of the cities of Omaha and South Omaha at a time when the physical growth of the two cities will make such consolidation seem advisable upon terms that will apply and fairly protect the welfare of the citizens of this community, will be fully considered.

The further and much mooted question of changing the boundary lines of Douglas and Sarpy counties will also be taken up and discussed, and if the solution of the matter by the presentation of the bill to the legislature with the request for its enactment into law seems to be the consensus of the opinion of the people of South Omaha, such action will be taken by the committee.

YOUTH PAYS DOCTOR TO GET INTO THE NAVY

It cost C. D. Waggoner of Ainsworth, Neb., a $25 doctor bill to get into the navy, but he came up in good shape at the recruiting station in the federal building and signed the papers. Young Waggoner made application several days ago, but was rejected on account of an abnormal bony growth in his nose. He called on a surgeon and submitted to an operation. He returned a normal young man. "It cost me thirty-five bucks to get that cut out," he said, "but I guess it's worth it. I nearly fell over when the doctor told me the price."

for the job were opened a few weeks ago, and the contract has just been awarded to Charles Middlemiss of Omaha for $1,963. This was the smallest of three bids received. Bids ran from this figure up to $2,310. This is expected to be a job that will occupy three months of time. The walls and woodwork are to be washed and polished. The walls are painted, but through the seven years past they have accumulated a greasy, black slime, partly from the heat pipes and radiators, and mostly from the soot in the atmosphere of the city that has settled upon the walls for years and been thoroughly set there by alternate moisture and drought in the rooms.
