

SPECIAL
Cotton Crash, red border, 6 1/2 quality,
price, January Sale
price, per yard 33c

ORKIN BROTHERS

SPECIAL
All linen Crash, 18
inches wide; January
Sale price, per yard 9c

Continuing Friday Our Annual January Sale of

Table and Household LINENS

THE regular and the sale prices tell the splendid saving possibilities of this great sale better than a whole page of argument. These merely as an idea.

Table Linens, Cloths and Napkins

68c all linen table damask, 72-
inch; January Sale price, per yard 49c
69c cream color table linen, 64-
inch; January Sale price, per yard 54c
98c cream color table damask,
70-inch, extra heavy; January Sale price, yd. 79c

January Sale of Towels and Toweling

10c Huck and Turkish Towels, bleached and unbleached, January Sale price, each 5c
22 1/2c extra size Bath and Huck Towels, January Sale price, only 1 dozen to a customer, each 15c
29c extra fine quality of Huck and Bath Towels; January Sale price, each 19c
45c extra fine huck and bath towels, red, white or blue checked; January sale price, each 25c

15c Linen Crash, 11 1/2c Special—Extra heavy, all linen crash, red borders, 18 inches wide; January Sale price per yard, only 11 1/2c

10c Lonsdale and Fruit of the Loom Muslin at 7c
Lonsdale and Fruit of the Loom Muslin, all well known brands; 36 inches wide; January Sale price—10 yard limit to a customer, yard.

Long Cloth, 12 Yards, 98c
$1.25 extra fine grade Long Cloth, 36-inch; January Sale price, 12 yds. 98c

BED SPREADS
$2.98 hemmed, fringed or scalloped Bed Spreads, extra size and weight; January Sale price $1.98
$2.00 hemmed Bed Spreads, fine patterns; January Sale price $1.49
$1.25 full size hemmed Bed Spreads, good weight—January Sale price .89c
$5.25 satin scalloped Bed Spreads, 134 size; January Sale price $3.98

SHEETS
30c Bleached Sheeting, 9-4 size, all well known brands—January Sale 23c
25c Brown Foxcroft Sheeting, 8-4 size; January Sale price 19c
55c Bed Sheets, 72x90, fine for rooming house wear—January Sale price 39c
70c extra heavy Hotel Sheets; January Sale 56c
$1.10 Pique Sheets, 81x90, January Sale price 83c
30c Pique Sheets, 72x90; January Sale price 69c

PILLOW CASES
25c Bleached Pillow Case, 45-inch, extra strong, January Sale price, yard 19c
24c Bleached Pique Pillow Case, 42-inch, January Sale price, yard 17c
17c Pillow Cases, linen finish, 43x36-inch, January Sale price 12 1/2c
19c extra heavy Pillow Cases, 45x36-inch, January Sale price 15c
24c Pique Pillow Cases, 45x36-inch, January sale price 17 1/2c

Long Cloths
$1.39 fine embroidered St. Gall or Swiss Batiste in small or large figures—32 inch; January Sale price, yard .69c
39c check lawn embroidered batistes and lawns, 27-inch; January Sale price, per yard .19c
25c Imported mercerized Madras, assorted patterns—January price, yd. 17c

Clothing Salesmen Wanted

We will have work for, and wish to employ, 10 extra clothing salesmen. Applicants must be gentlemanly in appearance and manner and accustomed to waiting upon high class trade—apply to our Mr. Peck.

Friday Evening's Paper Will Tell You About---

The Greatest Clothing Sale of Modern Times—Our

1/2 PRICE SALE

of Quality Suits and Overcoats, which begins

Saturday, January 4

It might be well, also—to stroll around for a look at our windows.

OMAHA'S ONLY MODERN CLOTHING STORE

STATE FUNDS REPORTED

Treasurer George Shows Balance to Be Half Million.

GUARANTY FUND NEARLY ALL IN
Seven Hundred Seventy-Six Thousand Dollars Set Aside for Failures and No Demand as Yet Made for It.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The report of State Treasurer George for the month of December shows a balance for the state of $567,429.34. There was on hand at the date of the last monthly report $673,310.72. The receipts during the month of December have been $407,478.01; payments, $413,259.38. The cash on hand is shown to be $1,094.43, while there is on deposit in the banks $567,429.34.

COMMISSION ORDERS CHANGE IN PHONE CALL

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The complaint of the Postal Telegraph company against the Nebraska Telephone company and the Lincoln Telegraph and Telephone company, wherein the Postal charges discrimination on the part of the defendant in favor of the Western Union company, in that the latter is benefited by the method of the telephone companies in using the word "telegram" as a call word, has been decided in favor of the Postal company by the railway commission.

Mrs. G. W. Gallagher Dies Suddenly at Hartington, Neb.

HARTINGTON, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Gallagher, wife of Dr. G. W. Gallagher, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, died suddenly last night at midnight from heart failure. She was in good health yesterday and took a walk just before supper. The children have been notified of their mother's death and the funeral will be held as soon as they arrive. Temporary interment will probably be made in the Hartington cemetery. Dr. Gallagher, who is a man of considerable distinction in the Presbyterian church, having occupied many important pulpits in the east, has just been installed pastor of the Hartington Presbyterian church. His wife was a woman of rare charm and ability and was already much esteemed and beloved by the church and the community.

JEFFERSON FARMER HURT WHEN AUTO UPSETS

FAIRBURY, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—While returning to his home north of Powell in this county, in his automobile, Nelson Moody met with an accident that may cost him his life. He was traveling at a high rate of speed and struck a small bridge a mile this side of Powell and his machine went down an embankment. He was buried under the car. His breathbone was fractured, also several ribs. He is in a semi-conscious condition and little hope is entertained for his recovery. He is one of the well-to-do farmers in the northwest part of the county. A friend with him was uninjured.

KEARNEY'S MAYOR MAKES PLAN TO LIGHT THE CITY

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Following an agreement reached late last night between Mayor J. W. Patterson and Will J. Scott, manager of the Kearney Water and Electric Power company, the latter ordered the turning on of all the lights of the city that had furnished the street lighting and that of the public buildings until turned off December 28 last, since which time the streets have been dark at night.

NEWS NOTES OF ALLIANCE

ALLIANCE, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The cement block factory owned by Beat Brothers on the west side of town burned to the ground yesterday evening, the fire having gained such headway when discovered and aided by a strong wind, was beyond control when the department arrived. Loss about $3,000, partly covered by insurance.

COURT DATES IN CUMING COUNTY

WEST POINT, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Guy T. Graves has set the court terms of the Cuming county district court for 1913 as follows: Spring term, March 17; fall term, November 16. The first day of these terms, respectively, will be taken up in the hearing and application for citizenship.

LADIES OF G. A. R. MEET

The Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic held a reception and installation in the senate chamber this evening. Mrs. Jones of Philadelphia, national head of the organization, was present as was also the department president, Mrs. Kidder of Fremont.

FIRST LETTER TO MOREHEAD

The first letter to Governor Morehead was received this morning at the executive offices, calling his attention to some minor affairs.

PRICE INSPECTS BRIDGES

State Engineer Price left this afternoon for McCully and Kearns to look after the welfare of some state aid bridges on the Niobrara river, which, it is claimed, are in danger of damage on account of drifting ice.

DAMAGE CASE APPEALED

The Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company has filed with the clerk of the supreme court an appeal from the judgment of the Douglas county district court wherein Edith B. Copeland was awarded damages for injuries received while alighting from a street car at the corner of Fourteen and Dodge streets. The suit was brought for $30,000 damages for the fracture of a bone caused by being thrown against the step of a car. The jury gave her $2,000.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO MEET

The prohibition state committee will meet at the Lindell hotel, noon, January 7, 1913. Tuesday the national conference of the prohibition party meets at Indianapolis, Ind., January 15-18, 1913.

President Advertising is the Road to Big Returns.

FINE WEATHER IN NEBRASKA

New Year's Day Finds Men Doing Some Wonderful Winter Stunts.

BATHING GOOD AT TWO SPRINGS

Walton Gets Busy in the Field with His Plow and Oliver Picks a Basket of Mushrooms in the Open.

Balmy weather yesterday accompanied the advent of the new year, but a change came last night. After 8 o'clock the mercury took a sudden drop and a strong wind sprang up. The streets were filled with dust and these disagreeable features continued all night.

GRIS BUSY IN PLOW FIELD

G. R. Walton, a farmer living two miles west of Omaha, celebrated the day by plowing. Early in the morning he hitched onto the stirring plow and went out into the stubble field, working until noon and turning over almost an acre of ground.

BAIT THAT CAUGHT 'EM OVER THE TELEPHONE

Hello! Is this one-nine-one-three? "No, you've got the wrong number." "Oh, I guess not." Wish you all a Happy New Year.

WORK BEGINS ON NEW RAILROAD AT KEARNEY

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—When the city of Kearney voted $30,000 bonds on June 18 last for the aid of the Dakota & Gulf railroad, formerly known as the Kearney & Beloit project, it was with the understanding that active work of construction should begin not later than Jan. 1, 1913.

MRS. DRAKE ASKS DAMAGES FOR HUSBAND'S DEATH

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Eight thousand dollars is the sum named in a damage suit brought by Alma Drake, formerly of Grand Island, against Benjamin Gordon, a farmer of this county. Mrs. Drake is the administrator of the estate of W. E. Drake, her deceased husband and is now bringing suit against Gordon for the sum named, alleging that it was through injuries received at the hands of Gordon that her husband came to his death. The trouble between Drake and Gordon it appears took place about a year ago over a lighting plant sold by Drake to the latter and in the dispute that followed blows were passed in which Drake is alleged to have been seriously injured, from the effects of which he died a year later.

NOTES FROM BEATRICE AND GAGE COUNTY

BEATRICE, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Gage county is slowly getting out of debt and yesterday County Treasurer Hevelone paid off bonds of the O. & S. W. issue amounting to $4,000. These bonds drew 5 per cent interest. The original issue was $30,000, and became due January 1, 1912. The balance of $4,000 due at that time and still unpaid was taken up Tuesday. At this time the total bonded indebtedness of the county is $90,000, of which $30,000 are court house bonds and $60,000 O. & S. W. bonds. The treasurer also made a remittance to the state yesterday of $5,000.

Game Warden Able to Meet the Demand of Public for Fish

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—For the first time in the history of the game warden's department, according to a report by Chief Game Warden Miller, he has been able to meet all demands in the last biennium for fish for public and private waters. During the biennium 20,771,120 fish have been distributed over the state in waters where application had been made for a supply. Of this number the greater proportion were well-eyed pike, of which 18,625,000 were put out. Brook trout came next in the number of $12,750, followed by rainbow trout with 705,000, black bass with 230,150 and crappies with 179,250. The balance were in smaller numbers, ranging below 100,000.

KEARNEY LIGHT COMPANY REJECTS PROPOSITION

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Even though the city council met in special session Monday evening and paid all the street lighting bills owed the Kearney Water and Electric Power company, with whom they are at swords' points at law, the company has definitely refused to turn on the lights and the streets continue to be in darkness. The company claims that the mayor and city council have no authority to enter into a contract with them without first putting the question to a vote of the people. Mayor J. W. Patterson requested the company to turn on the lights, promising them a fair and reasonable price. The company contends that it would probably mean litigation for the company in determining such a price, hence refused.

SEVERAL WEDDINGS AT KEARNEY

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Numerous weddings mark the closing of the old and the beginning of the new year here, among the latest announcements is the engagement of Miss Hazel Hall and Ralph Tallman, a prominent clothing merchant of this city. Miss Hall has a well known reputation over the state as a reader and has been on the chautauqua platforms in this and other states for several years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hall, pioneer residents of the city.

NEWS NOTES OF GENEVA

GENEVA, Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The neat market of M. Alexanders was bought by T. O. Thurston, who will take possession at once.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent."

THE MASON'S AND THEIR FAMILIES ENJOYED THEIR ANNUAL NEW YEAR DINNER YESTERDAY.

The Masons and their families enjoyed their annual New Year dinner yesterday.

THE PROHIBITION STATE COMMITTEE WILL MEET AT THE LINDELL HOTEL, NOON, JANUARY 7, 1913.

The prohibition state committee will meet at the Lindell hotel, noon, January 7, 1913. Tuesday the national conference of the prohibition party meets at Indianapolis, Ind., January 15-18, 1913.

THE PROHIBITION STATE COMMITTEE WILL MEET AT THE LINDELL HOTEL, NOON, JANUARY 7, 1913.

The prohibition state committee will meet at the Lindell hotel, noon, January 7, 1913. Tuesday the national conference of the prohibition party meets at Indianapolis, Ind., January 15-18, 1913.