GRAY HAIR VS. BROWN HAIR

This Simple Home Made Mixture Effectually Darkens the White Locks.

There is no excuse for having gray hair when there is a sure and easy way of darkening it to a nice natural brown which Nature herself could not improve upon. This does not mean that you are justified in having the ordinary sticky dyes and stains exploited for that purpose, for they often are too objectionable to be recommended; but there is a really meritorious recipe, very simple and inexpensive, which all gray-haired people should try at once. To 1 oz. of water add one small box of Barbo Compound, 1 oz. bay rum and 1 oz. glycerine. You can readily prepare this at home at very little cost and it will give you a splendid mixture for gradually darkening the gray hair, as well as for removing dandruff, ridding the scalp of other humors and for promoting the growth of the hair. Apply it once a week until the hair is of the desired dark shade, then once every two weeks will be sufficient. Make sure your druggist gives you Barbo Compound. If he hasn't it on hand, ask him to order it for you—Advertisement.

You Can't Make Your Farm Pay

If You Eat the Doughnut and Offer the Hole as Collateral

THERE'S a man out in Illinois who owns a bank and lends money to farmers. He wanted to get at both sides of the question of borrowing and lending, so he got busy on a half-section of land and farmed it on the principle of a square deal to the soil. What he found out was this: It's bad business, both for the farmer and the banker, for the farmer to eat the doughnut and offer the hole as collateral on a loan.

It's one of those simple solutions of a big financial problem that engaged the attention of the President of the United States and a group of Governors, meeting at the White House to discuss this great problem only a few weeks ago. Presidents of Insurance Companies, bankers, men and institutions with money to invest, farmers who want to borrow money—all these people will agree with us that Mr. Harris has thrown the searchlight of common sense on a subject that seemed as thick as a London fog.

There is a host of good things in this week's issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, but

Financing the Farmer

By B. F. HARRIS
Successful Banker-Farmer and Ex-President of the Illinois Bankers' Association will be read with rare interest by every man whose business it is to lend money, or to borrow it—which means several million people.
