By a curious irony of fate the places to which occupation often sends us are singularly interesting. But what is more to the point is the genuine ability to take up the threads of enjoyment in the new surroundings with the same spirit as we let them fall in the old ones. This is especially true in army life, in which with but a brief notice, its participants are apt to be sent from tropical to frigid climate.

This is true of two Omaha young women, Mrs. Ben R. Wade, who was formerly Miss Blanche Lowe, of this city, and who, with her husband, Captain Ben Wade, and small son, Ben Lowe Wade, have gone to one of the most northerly United States army posts, Fort St. Michaels, Alaska.

These Omahaans are especially keen about the Alaskan scenery. They have traveled extensively, and consider after all that the mountain scenery of our northern possessions are the most extraordinary they have ever looked upon.

The winter sports also appeal to Captain and Mrs. Wade. The government owns about eight dog teams of ten dogs each, and dog sledding is a favorite social stunt, and is usually followed by a afternoon tea at the quarters of the officers. Master Ben Wade, warmly dressed in a native suit of Alaskan fur, rides to school each morning on a sled drawn by dogs driven by an Eskimo.

The skating season is short, owing to the large amount of snow, but the officers and ladies are enjoying skating and snowshoeing. Although there are no boats for six months in the year at Fort St. Michaels, they receive mail and provisions regularly by the dog teams.

A recent letter state that the snow was so deep that the people were all using the second story of their houses for exits.

Captain and Mrs. Wade and Lieutenant and Mrs. Howard, all of whom have been stationed at different posts in the states and Philippines, have written that they are enjoying the Alaskan station more than they have any others. Captain and Mrs. Will Doane recently returned from Alaska after an enjoyable stay in the north.

university, the senior-junior prom. In place of having a dance for the senior class and one for the junior, the two organizations have decided to give an all-university affair at the Lincoln Auditorium, to which even the underclassmen will be admitted.

Leo Eren of South Omaha is in charge of the military ball as the captain of one of the companies of cadets. Ralph Sweeley of Omaha and Wood Dawson of Lincoln are managing the senior-junior dance. For the military ball a novel program will serve as a favor, but the larger event is planning to have not only a distinctive program, but also favors for both the girls and the men.

Many alumni of Omaha and the state are expected to attend the All University Formal.

Pre-Lenten Affairs. Many large social affairs are planned preceding Lent, which start Ash Wednesday, February 5.

The Dinner-Dance club organized by Mrs. Frank Wilhelm and Miss Helen Davis, which has already given one dance at the Country club, has reserved seats for the first night of "The Butterflies on the Wheel," coming to the Brandeis the latter part of the month. The theater will be followed by a supper at the Omaha club and a dance.

The Original Cooking club will give a dinner-dance at the Country club Friday, January 31, when, as at the first dinner-dance, about ten bachelors and nearly the same number of girls will be asked as guests.

Monday afternoon Mrs. A. J. Beaton and Mrs. Arthur Keeline will entertain at a large afternoon tea for Mrs. Charles De Mars Beaton.

There will be the military hops at Fort Crook and Fort Omaha, and numerous affairs for the students at Creighton and also at the University of Nebraska.

Breaks a Cold in a Day And Cures Any Cough That is Our- sible. World Doctor's Formula.

"From your druggist get two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Take one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children according to age. This is the best formula known to science. There are many cheaper preparations of large quantity, but it don't pay to experiment with a bad cold. Be sure to get only the genuine Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine). Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin across-top case. If your druggist does not have it in stock he will get it quickly from his wholesale house. This has been published here every winter for six years and thousands of families know its value. Published by the Globe Pharmaceutical Laboratories of Chicago.—Advertisement.

Assistant General Freight Agent Chairman of the Chicago Great Western and also owner of an orange grove midway between Los Angeles and the ocean, has received weather news from the man who is living on the place. He says the freeze throughout southern California was the hardest in forty years; that generally it has not only ruined the orange crop for this season, but in many localities has killed many of the younger trees.

On the Chisman ranch, owing to its peculiar location, the crop was not seriously damaged, but on some ranches near by the fruit was frozen solid. Mr. Chisman owns forty acres of land, most of which is planted to walnuts. This crop was not injured.

Health and Beauty Hints BY MRS. MAE MARTYN. Cells: You can't expect to appear fascinating with pimples all over your face. During the summer anyone's blood is likely to become thick and sluggish from accumulated poisons which frequently find an outlet in the face. This condition can be overcome by taking a good system- tonic and blood purifier. An excellent and inexpensive old-fashioned tonic of tried merit is made with kardia. Dissolve one ounce of kardia in a half-pint alcohol then whisk together a little water and cupful sugar and enough hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and you will soon feel like a new person, and your complexion will clear and take on a healthy tone.
