OMAHA. Jan. H. 1918
In spite of the fact that within the last few days wheat prices have advanced in the neighborhood of 5 cents per hishel there seems to be no real pressure on the market from a movement which continues so extraordinarily large.

The silent strength of the market Thursday and the heavy covering of shorts yesterday which resulted in the further uplift of values, brought about a feeling of conservatism near the close and some of the best judges of the market were inclined to advise caution in making further trades on the buying side. Opening prices were lower, but there was no big selling pressure at any time during the session, and in the last hour a very drastic advance took place, the same being based thiefly upon the political news from abroad.

As a matter of fact, however, the

a matter of fact, however, the As a matter of fact, however, the market was apparently oversold and anything in the way of builden news causes a stampede of shorts to cover, with the offerings limited. There were a number of traders last night who expressed themselves as builden, declaring that the markets of the world have never hear on a worse possibly basis. have never been on a more healthy basis. They referred to the large export sales the continued disappearance of wheat not-withstanding the large movement and the strady consumption; also to the fact that with cash wheat under 20 cents the price is not high. Calendar players thought yesterday was the day to sell wheat, and some have figured that way for two days, but did their selling too soon and were forced to cover on bulges as they were not figuring on a jump of 1 cent in five not figuring on a jump of 1 cent in five minutes like that of Friday. It was noticeable that the Finley Barrel company sold 1,000,000 bushels of wheat on the bulge, which was attributed to the leading long interest and that a num-per of big houses had good buying orders en the bulge, which was attributed to the leading long interest and that a number of big houses had good buying orders on the setback. Cash wheat was unchanged to %c higher.

May corn at the top price yesterday was up 3%c from the low point last week. This was regarded as high enough by a number of Chicago professionals who have been bullish for some time, when they were practically alone on that side, while now they have pienty of company. Cash corn was unchanged to %c higher. The oats market sympathised with the other grains yesterday, there being no distinguishing feature. Cash oats was unchanged to %c higher. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade.

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Today's price for grain, after the buillish debauch of the two previous sessions, declined moderately today, as did provisions. Fluctuations were rather narrow and the volume of business moderate.

A heavy snowfall in Kansas preceding the cold weather which has been predicted and the prospect of large shipments from Argentina were bear factors in wheat. The fact that shorts had pretty well eliminated themselves during the previous two days also worked against prices. At the close May was 'sc over the bottom, but 16% under yesterday.

Corn opened sharply higher, but it soon seveloped that this was due to bidding by scattered belated shorts, who missed the bull band wagon yesterday. On the prodest decline which ensued considerable porn was worked for export, lending a firm undertone to the market. Shippers are finding difficulty in meeting the demands of export buyers for early shipment, owing to the non-consummation of earlier sales.

Trade in oats was chiefly of an even-of earlier sales.

Trade in oats was chiefly of an evenbig-up character typical of week-end sessions. May closed 'sc down.

Provisions declined in sympathy with hogs, meeting a good demand at the lower evel. Final quotations were 752125c un-ler yesterday, but at the top for the day. Article Open | High. | Low. | Close. | Yea'y
