the membership of the Royal Achates, a fraternal insurance organization, to the Western Indemnity life association of Chicago, an "old line" company, has been the absorbing topic of conversation with Royal Achates members this week. There has been unmitigated expression of regret that the "transfer" was made, or had been attempted, and hopes have been expressed that the Illinois commissioner is correctly quoted when a letter read in the Lincoln office declared the transfer would not be permitted by the Illinois authorities. Local lodges have been holding meetings the past week, devoted principally to discussion of the attempted "transfer." Future developments are awaited with deep interest.
