When Madame Koe was told to leave because she ate a pipkin Of luscious hue and flavor, too, which Adam said was "rippin'." She heaved and sighed when Adam cried he thought she should ashamed be.

And as they fled to Adam said, "That draitied serpent framed me!"

When Uncle Sam began to slam with energy terrific The neck of land and hills and sand that barred the blue Pacific. He asked for tips from foreign ships, and queries, "Can you blame me?" But Johnny Bull, with anger full, declares, "You've tried to frame me!"

And so when Brown spies a frown on wifey's brow a-wrinkling, Because she's found some objects round in trousers-pockets tinkling. He doesn't quail, or shrink, or pale, and think he'll give the game up, But sports a sneer, and says, "My dear, that's nothing but a frame-up!"

Housewives Organize to Combat High Prices

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 11.—The Housewives' league of Kansas City organized here today to combat the high cost of living by co-operation. Three hundred women enrolled their names at the initial meeting.

One plan to be followed will be the institution of a housewives' market, to act as a clearing house for products going directly from the producer to the consumer.

Deliveries from such a market would be made only at an extra charge and all orders would be payable in cash. The charge added to that of the original cost would be sufficient only to pay expenses of the market.

To Ward Off Winter Complexion Ills

(From The Queen.) To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all winter, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary mercolized wax.

Rough, chapped or discolored skin, inevitable in this weather, is gently absorbed by the wax and replaced by the newer, fresher skin beneath.

The face exhibits no trace of the wax—the latter being applied at bedtime and washed off morning. Creams, powders and rouges, on the other hand, are apt to appear conspicuous at this season, because of alternating expansion and contraction of the skin, due to changing temperatures.

I advise you to try this simple treatment. Get an ounce of mercolized wax at any drug store and use like cold cream. This will help any skin at once, and in a week or so the complexion will look remarkably youthful and healthy.

Winds and flying dust often cause squinting and other contortions which make wrinkles. You can quickly get rid of every wrinkle, however produced, by using a harmless face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered melleite in pint which hasel.—Advertisement.
