ASSEMBLY'S OUTLOOK GOOD

Republicans Inclined to Forget Factional Differences.

NO HARD FIGHT ON SPEAKER

Inauguration of Governor George Clarke Will Take Place on Thursday-Favorable Predictions Made on Administration.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Jan. 11 .- (Special.) -- No lows general assembly to many years has met under such favorable auspices as at this time. The republicans have fourteen majority in the senate and (wenty-four in the house, and at the same time they have a strong group of active young men with a larger number than usual of new members. The factionalism of recent years almost entirely has disappeared from the legislature There is a large number of those who have in the past allied themselves with the progressive group, as classified in lows, but a great majority of members are simply republicans.

The absence of a senatorial contest makes easy sailing at this time. The senatorial matter was disposed of entirely at the primary and there is no disposition mny where to ignore the mandate of the people in this regard. Senator Kenyon. will receive the entire republican vote and D. W. Hamilton all the rest. In the matter of the petty patronage of the legislature there has been sufficient cenconston to the democrats to assure good feeling.

Important Legislation. The houses will be fully organized on Monday, save as to the appointment of committees, and all the preliminaries will be attended to during the week. Then the flood of bills will commence and business will proceed. New Governor is Pleasing.

The Inauguration of Governor George W. Clarke will be on Thursday. There is rancor or bias that he received the support of republicans without regard to past factional divisions and is in a very large sense the choice of the rank and file of the party. There is, therefore, a feeling that he will make a fine governor. His inaugural address is awaited with interest and the hope that he will strike a keynote that will have great influence in
