SENATE BEGINS INVESTIGATIONS

Prison Committee Will Look Into Affairs of Penitentiary.

LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—The senate indulged in its first real scrap of the session this forenoon, when Plaech of Saunders made a motion that a committee of three be appointed to investigate the penitentiary.

When called to task by some of his colleagues for voting with the republican majority, Wink said he had got mixed on the proposition and voted the wrong way.

The session opened this morning with prayer by Rev. G. H. Harrison of York, a preacher who has been a pastor for forty-two years in Nebraska.

A memorial was read from a camp of the Modern Woodmen of Garrison in York county, asking that the senate use all efforts to defeat the so-called Mobile bill, which would be introduced at some time during the session.

NEW BILLS IN UPPER HOUSE

Nine New Measures Only Produced by the Senators.

LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—The following bills were introduced in the senate today: S. F. 142, by Ollis of Valley—Prohibits issuance of marriage licenses to people who are unphysically unfit and fixes requirements to assist county judges in determining who are barred from embarking on the matrimonial sea.

HONORS TRUST ON RUDISILL

New Member Gets Fine Assignments Without the Asking.

LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—Rudisill of Hitchcock, who has just become a member of the house, landed well on committees and did not have to go through the scramble for places either.

OLLIS HAS MARRIAGE BILL

Measure Introduced in Senate Prescribing Certain Limitations.

LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—A bill to prevent the marriage of persons not free from certain diseases was introduced in the state senate today by Senator Ollis.

ROW OVER THE MERGER BILL

LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—The Douglas delegation, which has been on speaking terms for several days, broke out again this morning when Foster wanted to get Lee's merger bill transferred from the committee on judiciary to the committee on cities and towns, of which he and Brucehow are members.

ified that he negotiated the purchase of the stock in the Guaranty Trust company for the organizers of the voting trust, for the trust company, George F. Baker, he said, had nothing to do with the negotiations.

Opposing Junkies

Hoagland of Lancaster was in favor of the regular committee taking charge of the investigation. He thought that possibly the motion of Ollis may have done away with the standing committee, but in this case he thought the regular committee should do the work.

Might Be Dissolved

"On this question of voting trusts," said Mr. Davison, "I am perfectly willing to recommend that these voting trusts be dissolved. The voting trust, as such, has had no more to do with the real management of the business than the Pujos committee."

About Minority Interests

Mr. Undermyer brought out that the votes of two of the three trustees of the Bankers and Guaranty companies could dissolve the trusts and that Mr. Davison was a trustee of each company.

Vote on Party Lines

On the motion on the substitute of Senator Kemp the chair was undecided and called for a standing vote. The vote was a strict party vote, with one exception.

"Oh," observed Mr. Undermyer, "you take it that J. P. Morgan could do no wrong?"

"I think," replied Mr. Davison, "that J. P. Morgan & Co. could do no wrong if the circumstances permitted them to do what they wanted to do. It is a policy of the house to protect minority holders."
