

SOCIETY BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Friday, January 24, 1913.

THE subscription dinner dance proved a brilliant success, and the scheme for a varied entertainment program, I am happy to say, worked out satisfactorily. Just think of having a grand dinner, a theater party, a midnight supper and a rhythmic dance into the wee hours, all crowded into one night.

The theater party part of it gave the common, every-day theater goer at the show an additional spectacular treat, for the dinner dance crowd in its dazzling regalia, filled all the choicest seats in the body of the house, and the girls certainly did look pretty. One advantage of this exhibit, too, was that it showed who took whom—and how they managed to get such a criss-cross combination of partners in one of those unfathomable mysteries. But then, you know, a girl can't always choose her own escort.

The appearance of the house would, of course, have been greatly enhanced had the beauty belles occupied the boxes instead of giving their preference to the orchestra chairs. I heard more than one person remark that it was a shame to have the boxes so bleak and empty with all the swiftness of society in full view.

Incidentally, and, by the way, I hear that several upper crust engagements, involving members of both the older and younger sets, are being with difficulty kept from becoming public property.

Debutantes Honored.

Mrs. Wallace Reynolds entertained delightfully at an auction bridge luncheon today at her home in compliment to Miss Margaret Greer Baum and Miss Carmelita Chase, two of the debutantes. Covers were placed for Misses: Letta Holdrege, Elizabeth J. Hall, Mildred Butler, Katherine Hooper, Elizabeth Bruce, Mildred Rogers, Mary Burkes, Daphne Peters, Madeline Harold Pritchett and Wallace Reynolds.

For Louisville Guest.

Mrs. Hoxie Clark entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon today at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ella Squires, in compliment to Mrs. Penick of Louisville, Ky., guest of Mrs. F. S. Cowgill. Covers were placed for:

Madames: J. E. Summers, Penick, F. S. Cowgill, Charles Kountze, Luther Kountze, L. F. Crawford.

Attractive Dinner Party.

Mrs. J. E. Summers, who has been entertaining at a series of beautifully appointed parties, entertained Wednesday evening at her home and will entertain again next Wednesday evening. Those present at the last entertainment were: Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Judge and Mrs. W. A. Redick, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers.

Richey-Rossiter Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Esther A. Rossiter, daughter of Mrs. Richard Rossiter, and Mr. Floyd L. Richey, formerly of East Liverpool, took place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. Father J. F. McCarthy of St. Peter's church performed the ceremony. Miss Marian McCaffrey played the Lehighin bridal chorus. The bride wore white motor crepe, trimmed with pearls, rhinestones and shadow lace. She wore a long veil held in place by rosebuds and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Ann Rossiter, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of white shadow lace draped in panniers, with pink brocaded satin. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and pink sweet peas. In her hair she wore a white aigrette. Mr. Edward Conoughy was best man. The bride presented her attendants with crescent pins set with pearls, and the best man received a watch chain and chain from the groom. The ushers were Mr. Arthur and Mr. William McCaffrey. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and covers were laid for sixty guests. The decorations for the rooms were pink and white carnations and smilax.

Assisting in the dining room were: Misses—Claire May, Jean Dow, Madge Rossiter, Mona Rossiter, Marie Carmody. Mr. and Mrs. Richey will be at home after March 1 at the Sanford. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Charles Matthews, Mr. P. J. McCaffrey, Miss Eileen Kavanaugh and Miss Mame Targart, all of Columbus, Neb.

Elks Dancing Club Party.

The Elks Dancing club gave a party at the club rooms Wednesday evening. The next dancing party will be Tuesday, February 4. This will be a hard time party. There will be no guests that night. The following were present at the last party: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pagan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Pagan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trumble, Mr. and Mrs. Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Max Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. William Platter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan, Mr. and Mrs. George Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. J. Beeler, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stertcker, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Hale.

Misses—Arlene Powell, Madge Hirschberg, Estelle Joseph, Inez Bonnell, Candie Bierman, Krueger, Dorothea Bigelow, George Rowley, Simolar, Sam Cronies, Robert Shields, Claude Rife, Fred Hoffman, Otto Nielsen.

Dinner Party at the Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams will entertain at a dinner party this evening at the home in honor of Mr. Gordon Gammans of Portland, Ore. Covers were placed for ten guests.

Bridge Luncheon.

Mrs. Hugh McCaffrey was hostess at a bridge luncheon Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hugh McCaffrey, Jr. A pretty decoration of narcissus was used and covers were placed for thirty guests.

Key to the Situation—See Advertising.

Maccabees Entertain.

The Ladies of the Maccabees, live No. 47, were entertained by Mrs. Carmody at her home, 211 South Sixteenth, Thursday afternoon. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Watters, Mrs. Finney and Mrs. Anderson. Music was furnished by Miss Peckham. Those present were Madames Finney, Ryan, Brown, J. Klamn, Gelius, Anderson, Harach, Kenney, Mulvini, Wagner, Anderson, McNamire, Watters, Mohr, Hansen, Carmody, Peckham.

Kensington Club.

Miss Helen Anderson was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Original Hope Kensington club, whose members include Misses Almenta Anspach, Ethel Tierney, Mary Ryder, Ethel Moller, Alma Sorensen, Henrietta West, Helen Sorensen, Helen Anderson.

For the Future.

Mrs. Isaac Carpenter will entertain at a large reception Monday afternoon, February 3, in honor of her daughters, Mrs. George Barker, Jr., and Miss Nell Carpenter.

Bridge for Bride.

Mrs. J. Edward O'Brien entertained at bridge this afternoon at her apartments at the Lorenzen in honor of Miss Dorothy Morgan, whose engagement to Mr. Ralph Peters was recently announced. Saturday afternoon Mrs. O'Brien will entertain in honor of Miss Dorothy Stevens, another bride-to-be.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Miss Helen Scobie has joined her parents at the Woodmont, New York City, where she will spend several days before sailing for Europe.

Mrs. Ella Squires is expected home next Wednesday from a visit with friends in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie Clark, who have been staying with Mrs. Squires' father, will return to Villa Belvidere, N. Y., next Friday.

TELEPHONE EMPLOYEES GIVE THEATER BOX PARTY

E. Wilson.

WOULD PERMIT MEETINGS IN SCHOOL BUILDINGS

A bill approved by the Board of Education of this city providing for "the open school" will be introduced in the state legislature next week, according to President Holovetchnik, who has put the bill in a form for passage.

This bill authorizes school boards to permit meetings in schools, provided these meetings are of a nonsectarian and nonreligious nature. During the past year the Board of Education has received insistent demands from civic organizations asking for the use of school rooms, but this is forbidden by law and such meetings have been held only in schools where a room has been specially built for that purpose.

HOLCOMB IS BACK WITH LEG IN A PLASTER CAST

Back from Chicago, with his leg in a plaster cast, H. H. Holcomb, general freight agent of the Burlington, is again on the job. With the aid of his crutches he walks to and fro between his apartments and the headquarters building. In performing the operation, the surgeon found that the knee cap was broken into three pieces. These pieces were sewed together with wire, but in order to take the stitches, the entire covering of the knee had to be cut loose and then sewed on.

KNOW OMAHA DAY PLANNED

Committee Tentatively Names May 23 as Date for This Year.

ENTIRE CITY IS TO JOIN IN

Business Houses, Churches and Schools to Co-operate in Boosting the Idea of "Know Omaha Better."

Friday, May 23, has been tentatively decided upon as the Know Omaha day of 1913 and a special committee for the commercial club is making plans for a celebration, in which every organization and school in the city will be invited to participate.

Each organization will be asked to hold some meeting and talk of Omaha's business, educational and moral resources on that day and the public and parochial schools already have agreed to co-operate. As a special feature of the day, winners of prizes in the school children's essay on Omaha contest will receive their awards. It is planned to give the prizes to winners in Omaha, South Omaha, Benson, Dunbar and Florence the same day.

Special committees have been appointed by E. F. Denison, chairman of the Know Omaha committee, to arrange additional features. Ministers will be asked to preach on Omaha the Sunday preceding Know Omaha day and another moving picture reel will be made to replace the one taken last year, which proved the most popular and strongest asset of the Know Omaha campaign, being shown to 75,000 people in Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and South Dakota. It has been on display constantly since it was taken.

Further plans for Know Omaha day will be made at a meeting of the committee at the Commercial club Thursday. Those who will arrange the features are E. F. Denison, chairman; C. C. Rosewater, chairman of the governing committee of the publicity bureau; J. A. C. Kennedy, A. E. Hargum, F. S. Knapp, F. T. B. Martin, E. A. Higgins, J. L. Robbins, Harry Payne and E. V. Parrish.

The committee will be enlarged this year and E. V. Parrish and E. F. Denison have been appointed to formulate plans for the reorganization.

Nurses to Have Help in Raising Money for Their Campaign

Miss Louise McPherson, president of the Visiting Nurse association; Health Commissioner R. W. Connell and Police Commissioner Ryder are co-operating to raise $500 for the use of the nurses' association in the fight to prevent the spread of tuberculosis in the city.

As soon as this money can be raised the plan is to list the names of all tubercular citizens and provide for their care. Special precautions will be taken to prevent those affected with tuberculosis from spreading the disease.

Complaints were made by health authorities that last year physicians failed to report cases of tuberculosis, five times as many persons dying of the disease as were reported to the health office as afflicted.

Dr. Connell as a start has notified all physicians that he will prosecute them under the city ordinance for failing to report to his department at once all who are suffering from tuberculosis and are being treated by them.

P. O. Lindblad to Be Buried Sunday

P. O. Lindblad's funeral is to take place from N. P. Swanson's chapel, Seventeenth and Cuming streets, Sunday at 2 p. m., with interment at West Lawn cemetery. He was 72 years old and had been a resident of Omaha for the last twenty-nine years, and is survived by his wife and five children—Mrs. N. J. Arnold and Mrs. W. M. Smith of Havre, Mont.; Mrs. E. J. Weber of St. Paul, Minn.; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Lindblad of Benson.

ITCHING, CRUSTED ECZEMA IS CURED

By a Single Jar of Resinol After Many Remedies Had Failed.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 27, 1912—"It would be very wrong not to tell you what Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap have done for us. My baby boy was born with a rough skin. It kept getting worse all the time. It became a weeping eczema and at times a thick crust would form. He would cry and itch most all the time. I cannot tell you all the remedies and salves I used, before I sent for Resinol samples.

"At once I washed him with Resinol Soap and put on Resinol Ointment. He slept for three hours. When he awoke I washed him again and, like a miracle, the scabs dropped off and have never returned. You would not have known him! Then I bought Resinol Soap and a large jar of Ointment, but before it was all used, baby was well. I would not be without Resinol Ointment and Soap. I have recommended them to all my friends."—(Signed) Mrs. Katie Markert, 116 Ralph Street.

If you or any of your little ones are suffering from eczema, rash, netter, ringworm, or itching, burning skin eruptions, there is only one better proof of the value of Resinol. That is, try it yourself and see! You can buy Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap at any drug-gist's, or can get samples free by writing to Dept. S-T, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md. Resinol stops itching instantly. Prescribed by careful doctors for eighteen years.—Advertisement.

GREAT JANUARY PIANO SALE

Continuing Saturday and all Next Week

Including New and Used Pianos and Player Pianos at Prices that Will Make this

SALE AT HAYDEN BROS.

A GREAT SALE FOR EVERYBODY.

In all our years of business, we never have been able to offer Omaha and Nebraska such music opportunities as we now present. The 1913 advantages cause all our previous efforts to fade into the aspect of superficial attempts.

Twenty-eight leading piano manufacturers represented in this great sale, give a collection of instruments, including uprights, grands and players, at prices that will save buyers from

33 1/3 Per Cent to 75 Per Cent

The very scope of this undertaking has caused our own salesmen to marvel—they marvel because WE ARE WELL CONTENT IF THESE INSTRUMENTS NET US WHAT THEY COST. WE ARE SIMPLY TRYING TO GET OUR MONEY OUT OF THEM AND MAKE ROOM FOR NEW SHIPMENTS.

We have included some almost new instruments, which, because of their shopworn cases, change of design or various other causes, may be reduced to the satisfaction of you and of ourselves. Each of these used pianos (except those which have been used on our floors) came from somebody's home. And none would have been accepted here that was not fit for a place in another home.

We must announce now that we cannot make reservations. The important thing is TO GET HERE and GET HERE EARLY. A few hours may be too late. COME EARLY.

The names and prices of the instruments printed below tell the story more eloquently than we could tell in any other way.

Pay for any of these instruments in specially easy payments, which will be arranged to suit your convenience, if you wish.
