EDUCATIONAL

THE UNION PACIFIC R. R. SUPERINTENDENT OF TELEGRAPHY SAYS THIS TO YOU: "THE U. P. NEEDS YOU TO FILL A POSITION IT HAS OPEN FOR YOU as soon as you gain the necessary preliminary training.

> BOYLES COLLEGE Telegraphy Department

All you need do is to attend the

which is Authorized Telegraph Trainins School for the Union Pacific E. R. and the Illinois Central R. R. also. Just as soon as your training in Boyles College ceases you will be placed in a position on good pay. You won't be asked to accept the old-time helper's Job, hustling trunks and doing the dirty work about the station for two or three years, because we are in great need of trained telegraphers. Every R. R. in America is, in tact, but particularly the western roads, and most of all the Union Pacific, because the Union Pacific system is expanding faster than any of them, and the country the Union Pacific aystem is expanding faster than the sections through which the other roads pass.

Isn't this an offer that any ambitious young man can wisely consider? Railroad Telegraphy offers any young man a splendid chance, a sure present, a permanent position and a rosy future. We can name Boyles College graduates who have gone forth from our Telegraphy Department and are today drawing down their $100.00 and $125.00 per month. A man doesm't need a fine education to succeed as a Telegrapher. All he needs is good common horse sense and a willingness to work—the qualities possessed by thousands of Omaha boys and by tens of thousands of boys all over Nebraska and Iowa and North and South Dakota and Kansas and Wyoming and Montana—the states from which Boyles College naturally draws its students.

And he needs most of all the superior Boyles College Telegraphy Training. There's a big famine of trained Telegraphers on now. It's bound to grow greater all this year—for the railroads are growing greater—they MUST grow to take care of the enormous and unceasingly increasing traffic.

This really is an opportunity that no young man with red blood in him—with a wish to make more money—willing in his heart—with a desire to see the world in his mind—and sound determination to make a successful man of himself—can afford to overlook.

Write us for full particulars. Do that TODAY. Don't let us think you are one of those men who "put i
