MRS. MARSH IS AGAIN SUED

Merchants National Bank Asks for Money Owing to It.

OTHER CLAIMS ARE PRESENTED

Claims for $10,000-Widow Receives Husband's Share of Father's Estate.

Closely following the victory of the nited States National bank in its fight to recover $37,339 from Edith V. Marsh. widow of the late Charles Marsh, comes a suit of the Merchants National bank to collect $1,689 and interest for three years from Mrs. Marsh. The suit was Ninin Avenue, C. w. Mccaskell, Pastor—filed Priday, Jost after Mrs. Marsh had day school at noon. Epworth league at received her husband's share of the estate of his father, the late William W. filed Priday, just after Mrs. Marsh had Marsh.

> The suit brings into litigation claims agalust the Charles Marsh estate to a total of $15.833 and interest for three years. The claims are as follows: Merchants National bank ..... $ 1,689 .. 10,000

> Signs Agreement. When 1910 came Mrs. Edith V. Marsh for herself and her small daughter proposed to take all her husband's share of the estate. . The bank sued for its money. Mrs. Marsh having signed the assignment with her husband. Charles H Grimmel was appointed receiver and after long litigation the supreme court gave victory to the bank. Grimmel recently turned over to Mrs. Marsh her pusband's share, less securities sufficient to cover the bank's judgment. were given the bank to secure a new note for the amount, given by Mrs. Marsh and her daughter received stocks and bonds worth upwards of $100,000.

Now comes the Merchants national on its own behalf and on that of other claimants against the Charles Marsh estate, asking that Mrs. Marsh as administratrix of the estate pay the claims. It is alleged that at least $12,000 of the stocks she has received legally vested in her husband before his death, though he did die before 1916; that she should transfer these from her possession as an to herself as administratrix and then meet the claims. Grimmel having turned over all the stocks and bonds, completed his work as receiver in the former case, and has been discharged, is not at interest in the present suit. At the time of filing the petition the Merchants National bank did not know this. It will dismiss the action as to Grimmel, but will press it as to Mrs. Marsh.
