AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

City Council Still Refuses to Pay Disputed Salaries.

ANOTHER DEFEAT FOR BOARD

Demand that Fire Department Stay at Twenty-Six Men Not Accepted or Pay Probably Would Be Allowed.

Again the Fire and Police board was beaten in the city council last night when Councilmen Jay Williams, John Vana and John Walters voted against the proposition of paying Charles Ashburn, Anton Spivak and James Powers, the three extra firemen, their back salary, aggregating $66, until the Fire and Police board had presented a signed statement to the council that the fire department would be limited to twenty-six men until the new levy in August. Councilman Williams, who has led the fight sustaining the city attorney in keeping the Fire and Police board within limits of expenditure, said privately he was anxious to see the three men paid for their services, but under the circumstances, to pay them without assurance from the board that the number of firemen would be reduced from twenty-nine to twenty-six, would be nothing more than a surrender to the board. Councilman John Badura was not present and the vote stood three and three. Mayor Hoctor did not cast the deciding vote, but declared the motion lost.

The council was long in getting its legislative wheels oiled. It was understood that the old Thirtieth street tax question was to be taken up, but the presence of the city engineer and the decided opinion of some of the councilmen who are opposed to anything other than the enforcement of the supreme court order prevented anything like a respectable showing for the reversal of the old order.

Printing Bid Rejected.

A bid for the city printing offered by the Magic City Printing company was turned down after Councilman T. J. Alton had offered a motion to award the contract to the company. Councilman Walters objected to the statement that the bid was the lowest and best.

The board obtained the service of the city engineer in laying out the spring improvement work. The board was represented by President of the Board J. H. Kopetz and Secretary Manley McCarthy.

Peacemaker Gets Hurt.

Edward Bailey was so unimpaired of the covenances of the dining room that he attempted to dispossess a guest of the Miller hotel of his meal last night at 23 North Twenty-sixth street in J. B. Forgeron's restaurant. The guest called upon the proprietor for help. Immediately things began to happen. Bailey is said to have turned upon Forgeron and punched his eyes before Forgeron could persuade him to leave. Councilman Jay Williams, who was taking his supper in the restaurant, exhibited his police badge, which only excited the increased ire of Bailey, who then assaulted the councilman. Police Captain John Dvorak and Detective John Zaboudek came upon the scene and Bailey turned his attention to them. He was finally subdued and haled to jail.

Chauffeur Held for Inquest

George Auerbach, who was driving a machine, has been arrested and will be held for coroner's verdict.

Was Run Over by an Automobile on January Eighteen.

David R. Buck, 265 Grant street, died yesterday from injuries received when he was run over by an automobile truck January 18. He was crossing the corner of Sixteenth and Farnam streets and on account of deafness was unable to hear the approach of a truck belonging to the Horn Candy company and which was driven by George Auerbach. The machine struck him, throwing him to the ground but it was not known until later that one of the hard tire wheels had run over his head. He was taken to the police station, where he was given medical attention, after which he was removed to his home.

Auerbach was arrested for reckless driving, but upon furnishing a $500 bond was released. He was arrested again yesterday and was released by Captain Heitfeld on $3,000 bond for appearance at the inquest.

Born in Indiana.

He was born in Randolph county, Indiana, a little over seventy years ago and had resided in Omaha and Douglas county since 1888. He was at the head of the real estate concern of D. R. Buck & Son, with offices in the Omaha National bank building.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Olive D. Buck, and son, David E. Buck, Jr. There are also two sisters and two brothers, all of whom reside away from here.

He was a member of Alpha camp, Woodmen of the World, and of the Omaha Real Estate Exchange. The funeral will be held from the home, 265 Grant street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

NO ONE WANTS GUS CAESAR

Hummel Thinks His Purchaser Imagine Animal Too Fierce.

BIG BUFFALO IS A ROUNDER

Commissioners Decide to Pay for a Trained Nurse for a Year to Assist Visiting Nurses in Fight on Tuberculosis.

Nobody wants Augustus Caesar, the big buffalo bull at Riverview park. City Clerk Flynn reported to the commissioners at a meeting yesterday that no bids were received for the animal, although advertisements had been run and "stories" published that the big animal was for sale. Trouble is, thinks Park Commissioner Joe Hummel, that the animal is too fierce. He is a mankiller and a regular rounder, having slain his keeper a year ago and engaged in numerous fights with younger bulls until it was necessary to isolate him.

City commissioners have authorized the employment of a trained nurse at $50 a month for twelve months, to help in the campaign against tuberculosis. This proceeding was taken at the request of the visiting nurses' association.

Bids for a five-passenger automobile for Street Commissioner Kugel's department were received and referred to the department of finances and accounts. The machine will cost $500.

New bids for stationery were received, the first bids having been rejected as too high.

An ordinance to open Twenty-second street, from Douglas to Farnam, was placed on file.

Street Commissioner Kugel was authorized to purchase one more automatic street flusher. Three are now in use. They will be used in department of public improvements was bid on. The bids were generally high, although the asphalt bids were lower than a year ago.

Amendments to an ordinance covering the distribution of printed matter were referred to the committee of the whole next Monday.

GROUND WIRE CAUSES TROUBLE ON CAR LINES

A "grounded" wire from one of the transformers on the street railway company's sub-power house at Twenty-seventh and Lake raised a small blaze last night and lightened the power on the north lines until repairs could be made. All of the insulation on the transformer wires were burned off. The loss is under $50.

Stomach Misery Just Vanishes

Time It! No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness Five Minutes After Taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion. A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion. Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty cent boxes, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clear and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation. This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gas or any other stomach misery. Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.—Advertisement

Ryder is Stopped When Breaks Rule of Own Making

Crossing Policeman W. E. Smith, stationed at Sixteenth and Farnam streets, is holding his breath while waiting for word that will show him the "carpet" of Police Commissioner Ryder's office, either for words of praise or denunciation. At 6 o'clock last night Commissioner Ryder was hurrying for an east bound Farnam street car and was on the northwest corner of the streets. The car was about to start and Ryder hurriedly "jay-walked" across the street, but got only to the middle when Smith yelled, "hey, you, use the crossings." Then Ryder remembered the rule that he, himself, made, and he made a wide circle of the center of the street, and running a few steps, caught the car.

John A. Rine, attorney, addressed the members of the Social Science department of the Omaha Woman's club at its meeting Monday afternoon at the club rooms. Mr. Rine called attention to the old charter of the city and spoke of the many existing defects by which it had hampered the improvements in the city. The department voted to endorse principals of the Mother's pension bill which is to come before the Nebraska legislature in the near future.

Lack of Money

It was said yesterday that certain members of the Hoctor charter revision committee were deploring the lack of money necessary to defeat the Lee merger bill. A meeting of the committee was held in the afternoon, but nothing was done. The general idea seems to be that if the Lee bill is to be beaten considerable money must be spent for the purpose. It is said that the corporations and office holders will be called upon to contribute to the expenses of those engaged in fighting the bill.
