

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Stack-Falconer Co., Undertakers. Have Root Print Co. New Season Press. Lighting Fixtures, Burgess-Graden Co. Bailey the Dentist, City Nat'l, D. 2569. The Nebraska Savings and Loan Ass'n. offers a safe and profitable plan to help you save. 1002 Grand street. Life Portrait Classes—Robbery's Saturday life portrait classes. Studio, 502 and 504 Karbach block. Dinner and Dance at Temple—The Temple Israel sisterhood will give a dinner tonight at the temple at 6:30 o'clock. It will be followed by dance and cards. Art Exhibit Free Nights—The annual exhibit of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts in the public library will be free to the public Monday nights, February 10 and 12, from 8 until 10 o'clock. Building Owners to Banquet—An informal banquet will be given by the Omaha Building Owners and Managers association at the University club Tuesday night. An excellent program has been planned. Household Show Contract Signed—Mrs. C. W. Hayes, president of the Omaha Woman's club, has signed the contract for the "household show" to be given under the club's auspices in the Auditorium in April. Captain Kline on William Booth—Captain H. H. Kline of the Salvation Army industrial department will speak on the life of the late William Booth, head of the army, at First Memorial Methodist church, Thirty-first street and Larimore avenue, tonight. His address will be one of a series on "Beacon Lights of the Century," arranged by the pastor of the church. Mrs. Kline and several other officers of the army will offer solos, among them the first song written by the late General Booth. Little Girl Entertains—In celebration of her fourth birthday anniversary, Jeanette Borglum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Borglum, entertained her little friends Saturday at her home, Chittie Jean, 118 South Thirty-third street. Those present were: Philip Werner, Onnoles Mann, Winnifred Harrison, Norma Mach, Dorothy Darlow, Margaret Showell, Margaret Newbrach, Elinor Newbrach and Mary Walrath. The table decorations were simple and hearty. Luncheon, the children danced and played games. Creighton Dental Fraternity Entertains—Supreme Grand Master Jones of Chicago was the guest of honor at a banquet given Thursday evening at the Hotel Loyal by the Delta Sigma Deltas. After short toasts by local members and Drs. Vance and Pierce of Lincoln, Grand Master Frost introduced the supreme grand master as the speaker of the evening. Dr. Jones told of the growth of the Delta Sigma Deltas since its inception at the University of Michigan years ago. Now it numbers over 1,700 members, with chapter houses at many of the leading universities.

Cement Users Talk 1914 Show; Pleased With the Attendance

The seventh annual Midwest Cement show was brought to a close at the Auditorium Saturday night, pronounced the largest and most successful ever given by the Nebraska Cement Users' association. It was estimated at the box office that not less than 1,000 persons bought tickets and attended the show each day, while a larger number, which included friends of members and prospective cement product buyers, saw the show on complimentary tickets. The Panama canal moving pictures and views of the Keokuk dam were popular throughout the show and every exhibition was pleased with the interest taken by the public in his display. The show resulted in thousands of dollars in sales of cement and concrete products, machinery and accessories. The members of the association say they are now prepared to stage a bigger exposition in 1914.

Forty Persons Taken Making Three Raids

Three raids on disorderly houses and frequent corralling of street women last night netted the police raiding squad a total of nearly forty prisoners. The biggest haul was made in a chille parlor over the "X-10-U-S" saloon at Twelfth and Dodge streets. Here nearly a score of men and women were found drinking beer. Isaac Bellman, a former policeman, discharged from the force, was found to be in charge and he is being held as the keeper. The "Idaho hotel," operated by the Anotok brothers, was raided and half a dozen women and J. M. Anotok arrested. The other raid was on "Butch" Ames' place at 102 North Sixteenth street, where eight men were found drinking and singing.

Evangelist Bell Announces Topics

Mrs. Vira Bell, evangelist, who is conducting evening services at the People's church, 515 North Eighteenth street, has announced the following subjects for this week: Sunday, "Divine Revelation"; Monday, "Heaven's Best Loyal"; Tuesday, "Home of Rest"; Wednesday, "Individual Freedom"; Thursday, "Undivided Faith"; Friday, "Temple of God"; Saturday, "New Man."

Manufacturers of Omaha Hold Election of Officers

Directors of the Omaha Manufacturer's association have elected the following officers: President—F. E. Sanborn, president of the Standard Stock Food company. Vice President—E. I. Edick of the Omaha Printing company. Treasurer—A. W. Scott, of the Scott-Rawitzer Manufacturing company. Secretary—J. M. Guild.

Old Landmarks Give Way Before March of Progress

The ground on Capitol avenue on which the Iren Biscuit company will erect the big addition to the present cracker factory, is being cleared of the old buildings, some of which have occupied the site for more than half a century. In most of these buildings, the dimension lumber is cottonwood, cut and sawed along the river, above and below Omaha.

Manufacturers of Omaha Hold Election of Officers

Directors of the Omaha Manufacturer's association have elected the following officers: President—F. E. Sanborn, president of the Standard Stock Food company. Vice President—E. I. Edick of the Omaha Printing company. Treasurer—A. W. Scott, of the Scott-Rawitzer Manufacturing company. Secretary—J. M. Guild.

Old Landmarks Give Way Before March of Progress

The ground on Capitol avenue on which the Iren Biscuit company will erect the big addition to the present cracker factory, is being cleared of the old buildings, some of which have occupied the site for more than half a century. In most of these buildings, the dimension lumber is cottonwood, cut and sawed along the river, above and below Omaha.

Old Landmarks Give Way Before March of Progress

The ground on Capitol avenue on which the Iren Biscuit company will erect the big addition to the present cracker factory, is being cleared of the old buildings, some of which have occupied the site for more than half a century. In most of these buildings, the dimension lumber is cottonwood, cut and sawed along the river, above and below Omaha.

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Winter Enrollment in Twenty-Nine Leading Universities.

NEBRASKA SIXTEENTH IN RANK

Increases and Decreases Noted Here and There—Activities in the Nearby Schools—Educational Notes. The registration returns for the winter term of twenty-nine of the leading universities of the country have been compiled by Prof. Rudolf Tombo, jr., of Columbia. In these returns five institutions show a decrease in the total enrollment (including the summer session) this year. Cornell, Illinois, Iowa, Johns Hopkins and Pennsylvania. The largest gains in terms of student units were registered by Columbia (1,041), California (73), New York university (688) and Texas (477). Last year there were four institutions that showed a gain of more than 200 students. California, Columbia, Cornell and Ohio state. Omitting the summer-session attendance, the largest gains have been made by Chicago (309), California (540), Columbia (179), New York university (375), Texas (318), North-western (232) and Syracuse (206). It will thus be seen that this year eight institutions exhibited an increase of over 200 students in the fall attendance, as against four in 1911, seven in 1910 and eleven in 1909.

CHADRON STATE NORMAL.

Table with 2 columns: School Name and Enrollment. Includes Columbia, Michigan, Harvard, Cornell, California, Pennsylvania, New York university, Wisconsin, Illinois, Northwestern, Minnesota, Syracuse, Chicago, Ohio State, Yale, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Stanford, Princeton, Indiana, Western Reserve, Tulane, Washington university, Virginia, Johns Hopkins.

Brief Mention of the Week's Happenings.

Miss Eva Leish, who attended school here last year, has enrolled for work again this semester. Miss Edna Conn is in school again. Miss Conn attended school here last year, but has been teaching last semester. Miss Conn is a member of the senior class. Mrs. Stockdale entertained the women of the faculty Saturday afternoon at a Kensington and invited the men to a 6 o'clock dinner. A very enjoyable time is reported.

KEARNEY STATE NORMAL.

Various Interesting Events Enliven the Week's Work. Miss Eunice Bothwell of the department of education, rendered "The Fortunes Hunter" before the Nineteenth club Tuesday afternoon. The club appreciated the assistance of Miss Bothwell and complimented her on the performance. Miss Marian Smith, of the art department, has an interesting class in sketching. Also a large class in art history. Mrs. Lester M. Stearns of this city, gave a paper on "Robin, the modern French sculptor," before this class on Wednesday. Miss Anna V. Jennings, librarian, giving the junior class library instruction every day.

PERU STATE NORMAL.

Athletic and Social Events Diversify the Studies. A pleasant social occasion was managed by the Young Women's Christian association girls Saturday night. The girls of the Normal were divided into groups of twenty, which groups were entertained at the same hour at the homes of the faculty and the citizens.

Wesleyan University.

Arrangements for the Summer Session Well Advanced.

The Wesleyan Glee club gave a concert in Crete last Friday evening. Dean McProud is completing arrangements for the summer session of 1913. The teaching force will be composed entirely of the regular staff. An unusually large number of advanced courses will be offered, the demand for these being especially strong last year. Prof. O. H. Verner addressed the Methodist Brotherhood of University Peace last Monday evening. The exhibit in the China painting department held during the first of the week drew a large number of visitors. Last Tuesday was the day of prayer for colleges. Dr. G. W. Day of Des Moines, gave two very strong addresses, one at 10 o'clock in the auditorium, and another at 7:30 in the English rooms. Both of these meetings, as well as the morning class and department prayer meetings, were well attended by the students.

DOANE COLLEGE.

Active Preparations for the Inter-Society Debates.

The intercollegiate debates have finally been set for February 20 and the Stephens cup will be debated for at this time. Much interest is being taken in these debates and the fellows are working hard on the proposition. The preliminary debate to choose the six men who will represent Doane in the intercollegiate triangle will occur on Monday night, February 24. It is expected that a large number will enter this contest. Since there are only two of last year's teams in school this year there is a chance for some new men to get pieces on the teams.

Educational Notes.

More than 14,000 children are crowded out of Philadelphia schools. St. Paul is now teaching the Swedish language in high schools in addition to German, French and Latin—and some English. The record made by 200 Columbia university students in earning $7,000 during the last summer vacation—an average of about $35 a week—shows the sound encouragement to the young man who hesitates at a financial risk in going through college.

BELLEVUE COLLEGE.

The Day of Prayer and the Season of Basket Ball. Bellevue college observed the National Day of Prayer for Colleges Thursday of last week. The formal address of the day was delivered in the college chapel by Rev. Alexander Corkey of Wayne at 3 o'clock. Rev. McClure of Council Bluffs, each addressed similar meetings in the afternoon and evening. Each of the college classes held prayer meetings in separate rooms of Clarke hall in the morning, and the men of Hamilton hall met in Hamilton parlor following the evening prayer service. The inspiring addresses of the day and intense religious atmosphere of the gatherings mark an epoch in the religious life of the school. The Bellevue basket ball season ended Saturday when the team lost to the University of Omaha in a hard-fought game.

FREMONT COLLEGE.

Inspiring Visit of the State Committee of the G. A. R. The state committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, that met in Fremont, visited chapel in a body Wednesday and all responded to calls for speeches, which resulted in a most interesting impromptu program. The committee was composed of the following: Secretary of State Addison Waite, Department Commander M. P. King of Geneva, Assistant Adjutant General A. M. Trimble of Lincoln, Commodore H. C. Basset of Gibson, Jonathan Edwards of Omaha and J. S. David of Humphrey; among our own townsmen were Comrades L. D. Richards, Dr. Roseman, J. C. Lee and Mr. Mitterling. The speeches were both patriotic and rousing; the songs, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "America," were sung in a most spirited manner. All voted the hour a most profitable one and we shall look forward to their return in May, at which time the state encampment will be held in Fremont. Mrs. Ackerman, department president of the Woman's Relief Corps, and Secretary Pro Tem, Miss Kildner were present and both responded to calls for speeches, which were heartily enjoyed.

FIGHT MINIMUM WAGE BILL

South Omaha Bosses Try to Defeat Howards' Laboring Man's Bill.

GANG IS GREATLY WORRIED People of South Omaha Begin to Make Inquiries that Have Tendency to Arouse Anxiety of Politicians. Mayor Tom Hoctor, John B. Watkins and J. M. Tanner and C. W. Sears will have to go some to beat Jerry Howard, who is fighting for a minimum wage bill for the laboring men and women of Nebraska. Hoctor, Tanner and Sears are against the minimum wage bill introduced by him. As soon as Mr. Howard learned that the men had taken themselves to Lincoln he left South Omaha for the capital, where he expects to keep watch on the bossing of the Mayor. Howard said he would fight against any efforts on the part of Hoctor, Tanner, Sears or Watkins to defeat the bill. There is no doubt that the gang is in a state of considerable worry over the "insurgent attitude" of the people of South Omaha. Two different city officials, one of them from the office of the city attorney, called Mayor Hoctor on

MORE NOURISHING THAN MEAT—COSTS ONE-TENTH THE PRICE.

These high cost of living days give you an excellent opportunity to get acquainted with a food that is more nutritious than meat and costs but one-tenth the price—Faust Spaghetti. A 10c package of Faust Spaghetti contains as much nutrition as 4 lbs. of beef—your doctor will confirm this. It is a rich, glutinous food made from Durum (hard) wheat. It is sustaining, appetizing and very easily digested. Makes a big variety of delicious, savory meals. Write for free recipe book. Sold in 5c and 10c packages. MAULL BROS. St. Louis, Mo.

Chamberlain's Tablets for Constipation.

For constipation, Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent. Easy to take, mild and gentle in effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers—Advertisement. The Persistent and judicious use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Telephone Your Want-Ad Tyler 1000

Advertisement for Schlitz Beer featuring a large illustration of a man's face and a bottle of beer. Text includes "You Beer Drinkers" and "Read THIS!".

Advertisement for Schlitz Beer featuring a bottle of beer and text describing its quality and availability. Text includes "The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous" and "The Brown Bottle is not a fad. Its use by Schlitz is based on scientific principles."

Advertisement for Omaha Gas Co. featuring two illustrations of gas lamps and text describing their benefits. Text includes "Two times the light from one-half your present gas consumption" and "Cottage Arcs Artistic, decorative and durable. Price only—$2.25".