The officials of the latter would extend to the lawmakers of the state A reception at the Auditorium at night and other special entertainments. It is procable that if they come the South Omaha stock yards would give them a trip to South Omaha and a visit to the stock yards, together with perhaps a buffet luncheon. Several other forms of estartainment would also make it pleasant for the legislators if they desire to come to Omaha and see goods that are made within the borders of their state lines.

Educational Value. Arrangements for the opening of the show have been almost perfected and the pregram will be one of interest and considerable value from an educational standpoint. The exhibitors will take possession of the Auditorium three days before the formal opening of the show

Among those who have signified their intention of being present most of the time of the "Made in Nebraska" show are, C. E. Reinert of Wymore, president; G. W. Darner, vice president; J. M. A. Hostetler of Shelton, who is treasurer of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers and a member of the board of directors, will be present most of the time during the show, as will also P. L. Rogers of Alliance, who will serve on the reception committee.

J. W. Schreiber of Greeley and Fred Diers, together with Director Knewles of Fremont, will also undertake active service in the promotion of the "Made in Nebraska show.

Secretary W. S. Whitten of the Lincoln Commercial club will arrive to the city Tuesday to look after the arrangements pertaining to the "Made in Lincoln" section of the exhibit of this big Nebraska home products exposition.

The Fremont Commercial club has decided to defray one-half of the expenses of the Fremont manufacturers' exalpit in the "Made in Nebraska" show, and a as held along these lines Friday in Fremont at which the allotment of exhibit space to the various manufacturers was made. Over twelve creators of "Nebraska made" goods will come from Fremont.
