HOGE-The market opened in good shape this morning and the whole supply changed hands at figures that were from strong to as much as a nickel higher. First bids were steady to strong, but there was nothing done on this basis, and when real trade was commenced heavy and mixed hogs moved at prices that were easily strong, while good light and butcher weights found a ready outlet at values that were around 5c higher than at the close of last week. Trade was a little slow during the opening rounds, but after a little preliminary dickering, things livened up and prac-tically everything was sold before 10 o'clock. Shippers and speculators bought a large share of the receipts again toa large share of the receipts again today. The demand was good for anything in the line of light, butcher or mixed stuff, and the rough heavies were the only kinds that were at all slow to move.
The bulk of the sales landed at $7.55 as
