EGGS NOW MUCH CHEAPER

Continued Balmy Weather Brings Plenty from Country.

MEATS ADVANCE IN PRICE

Little Demand for Oranges, as Pen ple Fenr They May Have Been Frosted in the California Cold Snap.

The best fresh eggs on the Omaha market now may be bought for 29 cents a dozen, the cheapest they have been this winter. And if the temperature does not go too low they will drop to 15 cents in a very short time. Meats have made a slight advance in price during the last few days. Mutton jumped highest, with a 3-cent increase hindquarters sell at $4 cents and forequarters are at 7% cents a pound.

Pork increased 15 cents and loins. shoulders and pork chops now sell at 12 and 15 cents a pound. Beef increased % cent in wholesale price. Sirioin, porterhouse and round steaks are retalling at 15 cents a pound.

Sugar is another commodity which has advanced in price recently. An increase of 5 cents on 100 pounds was made in the wholesale price, which does not affect the retail figure. Albert King, manager of Hayden Brothers' grocery department. says sugar will become cheaper before it goes higher, the present increase being only temporary.

Oranges have been in small demand owing to the belief among householders that the California frost ruined them all. Grocers say that practically no frezen oranges have been shipped into Omaha and all that are received bear the gov-
