Team Work Falls. The bad showing made by the Magic City boys was due mainly to poor team work and the fastness and surety of the Omaha team in running the ball up the floor, and the tossing of baskets, both field and foul.

Eurkenroad especially excelled in this department and did his usual stunt of getting most of the points for Omaha. making a total of twenty-aix points out of forty-six.

Burkenroad, however, was not the only star of the game, the entire five putting up a fast and sure game. This was noted most in the work of Hughes, and the guards, who guarded so closely and well that Menefee, who is captain of the Magic City, was able to make very few points against the Purple and White: Makes Sixteenth Victory.
