WASHINGTON. March 4 .- Woodrow Wilson became president of the United States today mid imposing ceremonies and tumultous scenes of popular greeting. Standing at the historic east front of the capitol he took the constitutional oath of office and in his brief inaugural address made a fervia appeal to all patriotic men for counsel and aid.

"This is not a day of triumph." he declared, "it is a day of dedication. Here muster, not the forces of party, but the forces of humanity. Men's hearts wait upon us; men's lives hang in the balance; men's hopes call upon us to say what we shall do. Who shall live up to the great trust? Who dares fail to try? I summon all honest men, all patriotic, all forward looking men, to my side. God helping me, I will not fall them if they will but counsel and sus-

Marshall Has Taken the Oath. Vice President Marshall had been inaugurated in the senate chamber only shortly before and at the conclusion of President Wilson's inaugural address the party hurried back to the White House, ahead of the inaugural procession, where Mrs. Taft said goodbye to President Wilson and prepared to leave at once for Augusta, Ga. President Wilson shortly afterward took his place to review the procession.

A burst of cheers greeted the president's declaration "Our work is a work of restoration," and it swelled into cheers and hats were thrown into the air when he said: "A tariff which cuts us off from our proper part in the commerce of the world, violates the just principles of taxation and makes the government a facile instrument in the hands of private in-

Cryptic Terms Are Used in Describing Several Pieces-Gigantic Bombs Will Carry Names of Wilson and Marshall.

WASHINGTON, March 4 -- At dawn today a little knot of men appeared in the mall behind the White House and anxously scanned the skies. They were the members of the fireworks committee having in charge the program for the blaze of glory which tonight, if the weatner is favorable, will mark the end of President Wilson's inauguration day. Prof. Willis L. The fireworks display tonight probably will be the most elaborate ever seen in Washington. According to the official program in addition to the discharge of bombs with many modern mechanical surprises there will be a number of "set pieces," including an elaborate representation of the flag as now designed. Some of the fireworks are described in the following cryptics terms: The polychromatic canopy. The canopy of translucent glour,
