SUFFRAGE WINS IN IOWA

Votes for Women Carries in the State Senate.

RESULT THIRTY-ONE TO FIFTEEN

Measure Will Now Be Submitted to the People—Commission Named to Treat Over Transferring East Omaha Land.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Votes for women went in the Iowa legislature today after a long and hard struggle. The senate was finally forced by the advocates of the proposed amendment to the state constitution to come squarely to a vote, and when it did so the vote stood 31 to 15 in favor of submitting the amendment to the people. The house has already passed the bill. Previous to this a vote was taken on the motion to reconsider a vote by which the Chase bill had been passed, which provides for a referendum to the women alone, and the senate refused to reconsider. The latter bill probably will not pass the house.

East Omaha Land. Senator Kimball introduced a joint resolution today authorizing the governor to appoint three commissioners to treat with Nebraska commissioners on the subject of the territorial dispute regarding land in East Omaha belonging formerly to Iowa.

Immunity in Suits. The house judiciary committee today decided upon reporting favorably the bill to give immunity to persons who testify in anti-trust suits.

Suffragist Found Guilty of Arson

LONDON, March 7.—Mrs. "Joyce Locke," a militant suffragette whose real name is Olive W. Wharry, was sentenced today at the Old Bailey Sessions to eighteen months imprisonment. She was found guilty of setting fire to a pavilion in the Kew Botanical gardens on February 20.

When arraigned in police court on the day of her arrest she hurled a book at the magistrate and fought desperately against removal to a cell.

The court today ordered her to pay all costs and to deposit a $1,000 bond to insure her good behavior for two years after the completion of her sentence.

The judge warned Olive Wharry that she would be sentenced to an additional year if she did not keep the peace after finishing her prison sentence.

Mrs. Wharry declared she would not pay the costs of the prosecution and would immediately start a "hunger strike." When sentence was pronounced Mrs. Wharry retorted: "I refuse to pay these costs. You can send me to prison, but I will never pay a penny. Nor do I intend to stay in prison. As for auresies—never!" "If you do not care to give auresies, you will be further imprisoned for a period not exceeding a year," replied the judge gravely.

REBELS MASS IN HERMOSILLA

Palace is Barricaded and Food is Being Brought In.

HUERTA CONTROLS GUAYMAS

BattleShip Colorado Will Remain There to Protect the American Colony—All Wires Controlled by Censors.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 7.—With Huerta troops evidently in control at Guaymas, on the California gulf, the constitutionalist rebels continue mobilization today at Hermosillo. The Southern Pacific railway wires below the border are covered both by the federals at the gulf port and the rebels at the state capitol. It appears that the telegraph was not cut, but only temporarily grounded for the convenience of the censors. A wireless message today from the United States cruiser Colorado at Guaymas said that the railway remains open to the south and that the weekly trains are being run by the government. The Colorado, it is assured, will remain at the port, where a large American colony is located. The American consul at Hermosillo today succeeded in getting through a code message to the State department at Washington. All was reported quiet at Empalme, the American settlement near Guaymas.

At Hermosillo the palace is being barricaded, and the assembling of ammunition and recruiting of men continues today. Food supplies are being rushed in from the Yaqui valley.

At Magdalena, between Hermosillo and the Arizona border, Colonel Juan Cabral is recruiting a formidable group to assist in the state revolution against Huerta. Colonel Emilio Rosterlitzky, the rural police commander, is expected to move against Magdalena. The Russian officer apparently remains under orders from Mexico City.

The expected attacks at Agua Prieta, opposite this point, and Nogales, and Naco, Sonora, did not develop during the night. Some excitement was caused there when a constitutionalist spy escaped over the line followed by a fusillade from the Mexican troops patrolling out of Agua Prieta. He was held by the Ninth cavalry patrol, but later released.

Activity at Agua Prieta. Reinforcements numbering 150 arrived during the night at Agua Prieta, increasing the federal garrison to 250 men. Preparations for defense continued today until the trenches and breastworks like the little Mexican border town look like a fortress.

It is pay day at the Douglas smelters and many laborers are refusing to return to work, threatening to assist in the state revolution. A large quantity of arms and cartridges is reported to have been smuggled over the line last night near Douglas.

Between 300 and 500 constitutionalists have moved from the Ajo mountains to the international line. This force was to have taken Naco, unprotected by the federals, but during the night Huerta soldiers entered the border town. The customs house employees, former Madristas, fled to the American side, pursued by the soldiers' bullets. None was hit.

Rafael Tapia Surrenders.

MEXICO CITY, March 7.—Rafael Tapia, an officer of the rural guards, who took the field against Huerta after the death of Madero, surrendered to the government authorities today. The surrender took place at Guadalupe-Hidalgo, where the treaty of peace between Mexico and the United States was concluded in 1848.

Rafael Tapia was formerly chief of the rural guards in the state of Vera Cruz. His decision to surrender is regarded as a great gain for the government because of his popularity in the southeastern states. It was feared that he would be able to muster a formidable body of men.

News reached here today that a majority of the members of the legislature of Coahuila have signed a proclamation favoring the governor, Carranza, and entreating the citizens of the state to join in opposition to Huerta, Carranza yesterday received 100,000 pesos as a contribution to the revolutionary cause from citizens of that state.

Manuel Mascareñas of the state of Sonora, who is a candidate for the governorship, arrived here last night and expressed great optimism in regard to the plans of the government to put down the uprising there.

WILSON FOR TARIFF ONLY

President Agrees to Proposition to Restrict Special Session.

CONFERS WITH PARTY LEADERS

Sundry Civil Bill and Indian Appropriation Bill May Be Reintroduced in Their Present Form.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—President Wilson's present purpose, it was learned today, is to accept the proposal of the house leaders and recommend that the tariff alone be acted upon at the extra session of congress.

The president looks favorably on the idea of having the house pass a set of tariff measures and put them squarely before the senate bill by bill, so that the attention of the whole country may be focused on the upper house of congress and enable public opinion to locate the responsibility for the success or failure of the measures.

Currency Bill Later.

The president feels, it is said, the necessity for currency reform at the earliest possible moment, and hopes that when the work of the extra session is well under way and the first of the tariff bills have passed the senate that he may take up with members of the house the currency question, working out carefully with them a bill that would be looked upon as a general expression of the country's desire with respect to monetary revision.

Mr. Wilson's purpose would be, it is declared, to have the currency bill thoroughly tested by public opinion and made ready for enactment at the December session. The only obstacle to such a course, Mr. Wilson has been told by some house leaders, is that currency discussion would detract the attention of the country from the progress of the tariff measures in the senate. If Mr. Wilson should become convinced that such a contingency was in sight it is believed he would postpone any undue activity on currency questions. He will be guided, however, entirely by the exigencies of the situation.

President Wilson today began conferences with some of the leaders of his party in congress. He was in the executive offices shortly after 9 o'clock and at once attacked the mass of correspondence that has reached the White House during the last few days. The cabinet, ready for another special session, was prepared to consider appointments of department heads.

The first visitors today were Senators Cullerson of Texas and Tillman of South Carolina, former Governor Glenn of North Carolina, came later and Chairman Fitzgerald of the house appropriations committee followed.

Representative Fitzgerald talked with the president about a half hour and said later that they discussed only general subjects. No decision has been reached, he said, as to whether the house should now appoint an appropriations committee and draft a sundry civil appropriation bill to take the place of the one vetoed by Mr. Taft.

It is possible that a new sundry bill and an Indian appropriation bill will be introduced in the special session without going through the hands of the appropriations committee. The house passed the bill in the last congress over Mr. Taft's veto by a large majority, and it probably could be reintroduced and passed as it then stood.

Former Governor Robert C. Glenn of

North Carolina called to congratulate the president. The two men were classmates at Davidson college, North Carolina, years ago and played on the same baseball team. It was recalled today that on the last occasion of their meeting, which was in Indiana during the campaign, Mr. Glenn pushed through a crowd and said to the democratic candidate: "Hello, Tommy," and the future president replied, "Hello, Bob."

"Did you call him Tommy this time?" Mr. Glenn was asked.

"No," laughed the former governor, "I called him 'Mr. President.'"

Colonel Robert Ewing, democratic national committee man from Louisiana, was another caller. He came to invite the president to attend the Louisiana state fair next November. Mr. Wilson told the colonel he intended to remain in Washington at work, doing very little traveling, at least during 1913.

The president stopped receiving callers shortly after 11 o'clock when the cabinet members arrived for the daily session. All the secretaries said the meeting was to be one of organization and that they expected daily sessions until they had disposed of the principal departmental appointments and the work of getting really settled.

When the cabinet meeting broke up, President Wilson let it be known through Secretary Daniels of the navy that he proposed as far as possible to pursue a policy of publicity regarding what takes place around the cabinet table. Today's meeting, it was said, took up the work of organization where yesterday's left off. It is the plan to make public in a formal way at the end of each session hereafter what has been disposed of.

MURPHY CALLS ON WILSON

Tammany Boss Congratulates New President.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, met President Wilson today. With Congressmen Fitzgerald and Riordan, Mrs. Murphy, Miss Murphy and a party of friends from New York he called at the White House. The Murphy party was separated from the line of handshakers in the east room and taken to the more private green room, where Representative Fitzgerald made the introduction.

"Congratulations," said Mr. Murphy, as he shook the president's hand.

"I am glad to welcome you here," said the president.

Later Mr. Murphy and his friends paid a short visit to Mr. Tumulty in the White House office.

WILSON HANDS OUT PLUMS

Daniel C. Rober Will Be First Assistant to Postmaster.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Daniel C. Rober of South Carolina, was nominated by President Wilson to be first assistant postmaster general.

Dr. Charles F. Neill, whose renomination as commissioner of labor failed of confirmation in the last congress, is to be renominated as commissioner of labor statistics.

James H. Blacklock, secretary of Pennsylvania state democratic committee, has been selected for nomination as third assistant postmaster general.

DARROW JURY UNABLE TO ARRIVE AT VERDICT

LOS ANGELES, March 7.—Judge Conley summoned the jury deliberating on the fate of Clarence Darrow at 3 o'clock this afternoon to ask if it had agreed on a verdict or whether the members thought there was any chance of agreement. The jury sent word, however, that it did not care to come into court. Judge Conley thereupon ordered a recess until 4:30.

Before declining to come into the court room to report the jury sent word that it was unable to agree. When the judge sent an invitation to make a formal report to that effect the jury replied that it would prefer to deliberate further and the court then set 4:30 o'clock as the hour for reconvening.

FIFTY MEN KILLED AND FORTY INJURED BY GREAT EXPLOSION

markable for the great distance the shock of the blast was felt. At Coatesville, Pa., the windows of the high school rattled. The shock was felt at the Philadelphia navy yard, in Reading, Pa., nearly 100 miles from Baltimore, in a number of cities in southeastern Pennsylvania and in New Jersey, and as far as Atlantic City. In many towns the tremor was so distinct as to cause people to believe an earthquake had occurred. The shock interrupted the proceedings of the lower house of the Delaware legislature at Dover, the speaker remarking: "That must have been an earthquake."

Steamer Disappears.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Munson Steamship company, agents for the Alum Chine, received a message from their agents in Baltimore saying that the vessel had blown up, but that no details were obtainable. The ship was nowhere in sight after the explosion, according to the message.

The ship, a small tramp of 1,767 tons gross burden, was owned by Alum Chine Steamship company of Cardiff, Wales. It left New York for Baltimore on February 25, arriving March 1. It expected to sail today for Colon with a load of dynamite to be used for government work on the Panama canal.

Wilson Bumps Up Against Rules of the Civil Service

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Miss Salome Tarr, a pretty and exceedingly efficient stenographer, is increasing the number of gray hairs with which time is sprinkling President Wilson's head. Miss Tarr was one of the president's stenographers when he was governor of New Jersey and Mr. Wilson is desirous of finding a place for her in some one of the departments here.

Accordingly he has canvassed the situation and interviewed virtually all of his official family with the result that each has told him that the civil service rules stand in the way. In addition the government of late years has been endeavoring to replace women stenographers with men shorthand writers.

"You'll have to kick a hole in the civil service rules and make the appointment an executive one if you desire to place the young woman," is in effect what his advisers told the president. Mr. Wilson is jealous of the civil service and the situation in which he is finding himself is embarrassing him.

President of Cuba Signs Amnesty Bill

HAVANA, March 7.—President Jose Miguel Gomez today signed the amnesty bill in spite of the energetic protest handed to the Cuban government yesterday by United States Minister Arthur M. Beaupre.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The protest American Minister Beaupre made to President Gomez against the signature of the general amnesty bill was directed by the present administration, and is taken as an indication that whatever the policy of President Wilson will be in regard to the other Latin-American republics there is not likely to be any relinquishment of the responsibility for the administration of law and order in Cuba under the terms of the special treaty between the two countries.

National Baby Show is Proposed

PORTLAND, Ore., March 7.—With the idea of having a national baby show or exposition of eugenics at the World's fair at San Francisco, a movement has been started here to have such shows at all the state fairs throughout the United States, the winning babies in each to be entered in the international event.

One thousand dollars has been appropriated by the Oregon state fair board for the exposition of eugenics at the state fair next fall. It is the largest appropriation ever made by any state for an exposition of this kind.

O. M. Plummer of this city, who will have charge of the eugenics exposition at the state fair, conceived the idea of a national exposition.

He stated that he had received assurances from managements of several state fairs that they will hold similar exhibitions. These include Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Minnesota, Nebraska and Oklahoma.
