Ingram's

Velveola Souveraine Face Powder

Ingram's Velveola Souveraine is peculiarly different from any other face powder. Different because it affords the perfect combination of comfort and protection to the skin, while it greatly adds to the charm of your appearance.

"The Aristocrat of the Dressing Table"

This is justly said of Velveola Souveraine which is worthy of place beside the famous Ingram's Milkweed Cream. Used together, they impart to the skin a delicate, satiny texture with a natural bloom and freshness.

Velveola Souveraine clings with lasting results—and while preventing excessive perspiration, it will not clog the pores. Is unobtrusive and daintily fragrant. The four different tints blend with every complexion from fairest blonde to dark brunette.

At your dealer's or by mail direct—fifty cents.
