MAYOR SCORES WATER BOARD

Dahlman Says They Try to Defeat Home Rule Principles.

GIVES VIEWS ON THE CHARTER

Tibbles Has Prepared What He Calls a Model Charter, Which He Will Submit to the New Charter Commission.

fifteen to draft a home rule charter for which Omaha has been fighting for seven years Mayor Dahlman, speaking to confession was made at a local hospital. | the Economic league, vehemently denounced the Omaha Water board pollticians for their bold attempt to thwart at the very beginning the provisions of the constitutional amendment granting home rule to metropolitan cities.

"As far as I'm personally concerned I do not care," said the mayor, "but I stand here fighting for the principle of the thing. The people bought that water plant and they ought to have the right to control it. If that constitutional amendment means anything it means that we have the power to manage our own affairs a power the Water board seeks to take from us." Continuing the mayor recounted the incidents of the struggle for home rule and the fights before the legislature to secure it. Concluding his denunciation of the Water board he said:

"I'm absolutely opposed to anybody going before the state legislature and attempting to take away from this city the power to control its affairs. The people story of infatuation for a clergyman's of the state finally granted us power to govern ourselves. Let us now exercise
