RETAILERS ELECT OFFICERS

All of the Old Officials of Organization Remain for Ensuing Year.

WANT LAWS TO HELP COLLECT

Legislative Committee is Criticized Because it Has Not Shown Favorable Disposition Toward Garnishment Bill.

Omaha lost the 1914 meeting of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers by the close margin of sixteen votes. The ballots were cast both for the meeting place and the election of officers before the noon adjournment, and the count was announced at 2:30 o'clock. All the old officers were re-elected. They are: G. E. Belmont, Wynmore, president; G. W. Darnier, Bethany, vice president; M. A. Houtzler, Shelton, treasurer; A. D. Rogers of Alliance, J. W. Schaefer of Greeley, members of the executive board. Oscar Roosen, former member of the board, was defeated by Schaefer by a margin of twenty votes.

Stinging criticism of the legislative committee considering H. R. 131 which gives creditors the power to garnish 10 per cent of the wages of a workman who won't pay his debts, featured the meeting yesterday.

Fred Diers of Madison, an ex-senator, told the retailers in session at the Home hotel that every attorney in the legislature is opposed to the passage of the bill and that it has not yet been reported out of the committee. He urged every member present to write his representative and senator to work for the passage of the bill at once. He enforced on every member the absolute need of getting busy at once if they wished to see the bill passed. Lack of interest, he said, would surely cause the defeat of the bill.

Following Mr. Diers' talk, Henry Bolton of Schuyler jumped up and said: "Members of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers, two years hence when we vote on state senators and representatives let every member of this organization get together and use every possible bit of energy and influence to prevent an attorney from being elected to the legislature." Mr. Bolton's statement was followed by deafening applause and the stamping of feet which lasted for fully two minutes.

Delegation to Lincoln. G. W. Darnier, vice president of the retailers, said that a few days ago over 100 retailers of Omaha and Lincoln visited the committee in Lincoln to urge the passage of the bill and, he said, Senators Macfarland and Grossman of Douglas county accused them of being a mob. He then told of how a South Omaha grocer told Senator Dodge of a certain man who owed him $60, and, he said, "I never will be able to collect this until you members favorably pass this bill."

Mr. Darnier said Senator Dodge asked the grocer why he gave the man credit and the grocer told how the man, as soon as he was paid, spent his money at a saloon. The man's wife came to the grocer ill and almost starved and asked for credit. The grocer took pity on her and gave her credit. A short while later the little daughter came over and pleadingly asked for groceries. The grocer said he sold the groceries to the woman and child on the promise that the husband and father would pay for them upon receiving his pay envelope.

Several other members went on record as criticizing the committee, and the retailers backed every talk with vociferous applause.

TELEPHONE WAR IS IMMINENT IN MITCHELL

MITCHELL, S. D., March 13.—(Special.)—That a war is imminent between the Dakota Central Telephone company of Aberdeen and the city of Mitchell was made evident today by the receipt from President Edlow of a letter to the city council in which the company declines to accept the new rates which were adopted by the city council to apply to the automatic telephones recently installed by the company. The franchise of this company expires May 11, and when it declines to accept the provisional rates made by the council the city will give notice to the company to remove its poles and wires from the streets. It was intimated by Thomas Null, attorney for the company, that it would not yield its occupancy of the streets until forced to do so, and that it would resort to the courts to prevent being forced to abdicate. The rates adopted by the city council for business phones, $1.50 for residence phones and proportionately less prices for party lines. The council employed an expert to make a thorough investigation of the physical value of the Arizona side, and also would be most difficult to meet by the defenders. Colonel Tate refused the federal permission to buy bread on the American side, it was said on direct authority.

While in her home here Mrs. Ada M. Gibson was struck in the heel of her shoe by a stray bullet. A small Mexican boy was seriously wounded while on the American side.

Red Cross workers returning from the field reported General Obregon declared that the morning fighting was preliminary to find out the defenders' positions. "I will hit hard soon," declared the constitutionalist commander. Eighteen wounded at noon were being treated in a Nogales hospital, with the volunteer American workers returning to the field for more. A moving picture operator was on the field early in the day's fighting.

Third Person Wounded. Pablo Rubio, former official of Cananea, while sitting in the park here was slightly wounded in the leg by a stray bullet. This made a total of three known wounded on the American side during the morning and early afternoon fighting.

There was a lull in the fighting, with the attackers remaining under cover or at a safe distance. For a time only scattering shots were heard. However, the federal officers admitted that they do not pretend to have driven off the state troops permanently and Obregon asserted that the hard fighting had not begun.

Four Accidents at Gettysburg. GETTYSBURG, Pa., March 12.—(Special.)—A number of accidents happened here Tuesday. Ray Smith, a farmer living two miles north of town, was badly injured by being bitten by a horse he was handling. The animal badly lacerated his face, the upper lip being nearly torn off.

Wesley Procter, a young farmer living three miles southeast of town, was also severely bitten by his horse while uniting the animal preparatory to starting home from town. Practically all the flesh in the palm of his hand was bitten off by the vicious brute.

Elsie Quirk, 5 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Quirk, living southeast of town, was seriously scalded when the plug blew out of a barrel churn which her mother was scalding out preparatory to churning. The boiling water and steam struck the little girl's legs, dangerously burning her. Grandma Ketchum, an old lady over 82 years of age, residing in the west part of town, slipped and fell in the yard of her home breaking her shoulder blade. Owing to her advanced age fears are entertained that the injury will terminate seriously.

CONNECTICUT ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES EARLY EVENTS

HARTFORD, Conn., March 13.—The Connecticut Fair association announces the following early closing events for its grand circuit meeting September 1 to 6, 1913:

The Charter Oak, 2:14 class trotting, $10,000; the Capital City, 2:38 class trotting, $5,000; the Corinthian, 2:30 class trotting, $2,000; the Acorn, for 2-year-old trotters eligible to the 2:20 class, $3,000; the Juvenile, for 2-year-olds eligible to 2:30 class trotting, $2,000; a free-for-all pace, $2,000, and the Nutmeg, 2:12 pace, $2,000.

This year the association has reduced the entrance to the Charter Oak to 24 per cent of the purse, and as it is also the twenty-eighth renewal of the classic event a silver cup known as "the Charter Oak memorial" will be presented to the winner. There also will be a handicap entrance in the free-for-all pace, as in that event horses with records slower than 2:04 can start on the payment of 2 per cent.

Also on account of the liberal support the breeders gave to the 3-year-old event last year it has been increased from $2,000 to $3,000, while the Juvenile for 2-year-olds remains at $2,000. The free-for-all pace also has been increased from $2,000 to $3,000, which makes the total offering for early closing events at the Connecticut fair $26,500.
