MUCH has been done for charity in Omaha and more will continue to be done. The calendar for the spring months is filled with many entertainments to be given for this cause. The first large affair to be given directly after Easter, will be the charity ball. This will be most brilliant and will take place at the Auditorium the evening of March 25. The proceeds will be used for the charitable work in connection with the Wise Memorial and toward the furnishing of the new nurses home which has been given to the hospital association by Mr. Arthur Brandeis and Mrs. Hugo H. Brandeis in memory of Emil and Hugo H. Brandeis.

Mr. Sol Goldstrom is chairman of the committee in charge of the ball, and is assisted by many of the prominent women of Omaha. Mrs. J. Sonnenberg, president of the board of trustees of the Wise Memorial hospital, has been one of the most brilliant workers in the hospital association. Mrs. Nathan Mantel, who is one of the popular young matrons and has done much for charity in the city, had charge of the sales for "Button Day." She was assisted in this work by many of the young girls and the goodly sum of $993 was netted to "Button Day" workers.

Among the members of the hospital association are Mrs. Moritz Meyer, Mrs. A. C. Stokes, Mrs. Meyer and others, who are active workers on the C. W. Pollard, Mrs. Frederick Cahn, Mrs. Simon committees for the ball and were also on the streets Button day aiding in the work for charity that day. These women acted as chaperons and were assisted by young girls who sold buttons. Those assisting were Misses Mildred Rubel, Hortense and Mamie Spiesberger, Sadie Kirschbraun, Fannie Rosenstock, Dorothy Meyer, Martha Hadra, Fannie Livingston, Jessie Rosenstock and many others.
