Mrs. Harriman's Private Car at Last Released from Drift

RAPID CITY, S. D., March 19.—The private car of Mrs. Oliver Harriman of New York, stalled here in the blizzard of Thursday, left tonight. A gang of seventy-five men drove against a forty-five-foot drift of snow in a cut a mile long and night with a rotary and seven locomotives since last week to clear the car, which besides Mrs. Harriman, her sister, Mrs. C. H. Harriman of Hot Springs, contained the body of her mother, Mrs. Grace Carley, who died last Wednesday at Hot Springs.

While here Mrs. Harriman contributed liberally toward the funeral expenses of six members of the Perry family who perished in the blizzard last Thursday.

Indian Agent John R. Brennan, of Fine Ridge reservation reports tonight that the loss of stock in the recent blizzard is appallingly beyond estimation at present.

The roads from the reservation are blocked and there has been no communication with the outside world since last Wednesday. Thousands of head of cattle ranging the reservation and the cattle lands, owned by the big cattle companies of Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska, are dead.

The full force of the blizzard struck the reservation Thursday night and continued until Saturday.

UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA IS PREPARING FOR GALA DAY

Victor Jorgensen, a member of the junior class of the University of Omaha, was chosen member-at-large on the executive committee for Gala day. This makes the membership of the committee complete. The other members were elected last week, each class choosing its delegate.

Jorgensen was selected by the unanimous vote of the student advisory cabinet, which will have the general management of the festivities and will also have the duty of appointing all other committees. The committee will convene this week to perfect its organization, choose subcommittees and start active work in preparing for the festival, which will be held about the middle of May. Miss Lottie Underhill is temporary chairman of the committee.

REPUBLICANS WILL MEET TONIGHT TO SHAPE "ALL-STAR" TICKET.

South Omaha republicans will meet tonight at the republican headquarters, 441 North Twenty-fourth street, next to the New Orpheum theater. The republicans of the city have been going about their business quietly, awaiting the primaries and their "results." Candidates on the ticket are all enthusiastic and report strong support all over the city.

Frank Koutsky's nomination is taken as assured. Until a few days ago he was unable to leave his office because of the press of private affairs. Last week, however, his partner, William Brennan, returned from Europe and Koutsky began to make ready for the campaign.

"I do not intend to run wild through the city making promises that last only for the campaign," said Koutsky. "I am in this race to stay and to win if my friends want me for mayor. They know me and have chosen me before when they needed a man willing to give again in the interests of all the people. I do not fear the effect of talk and promises spread by anyone."

Martin for Treasurership. P. J. Martin, well known business man for years, is being lauded irrespective of party for the office of city treasurer. Speaking of his campaign, Martin said yesterday: "St. Patrick's day was a revelation to me. Old men and young ones, friends whom I have known for years in a business and neighborly way, sought me out to assure me of support. It made me feel happy to find so many friends springing up to support a plain business man who has never dabbled in politics more than to cast his vote and support his ticket."

Old John McIntyre, one of the old-timers, said: "I have never seen the people turn towards the republican ticket more confidently than this year."

Henry C. Murphy, president of the South Omaha Republican club and candidate for re-election to the position of city attorney, said: "The republicans of the city ought to be proud of the candidates who have filed for the nominations. Koutsky is a man upon whom all citizens rely for his fidelity to promises, private and political."

Jerry is Thankful. "Half a loaf is better than none," said Jerry Howard, speaking of the work of the wage investigating committee yesterday. "If the investigating committee did what it was supposed to do and forced the corporations to show their books, it would have accomplished something worth while. The press in general has done nobly in the fight for the betterment of the people, but this talk about putting wages up to 15 cents is all nonsense. The wages will go to 20 cents an hour this year and I know whereof I speak," said Howard as he turned away to shake hands with some workmen and women who tried to thank him for his work in their behalf.

Uncle Dave's Days Numbered. "Uncle" David Anderson is succumbing to the effects of a general paralysis, according to physicians and relatives. "Uncle" Dave has been ill for some time and for a while it was thought that he could not survive another day. He rallied, however, and relatives and friends took renewed hope until late Monday night when he was taken with a strange spell due to paralysis of the larynx. Since that time his condition has been growing worse. It was stated last night that certain paralysis would gradually spread over the whole body.

Mayor Tom Hoctor was busy this morning preparing his notice of election. It will be issued some time this afternoon. The notice calls for an election for all elective offices of the city. The school board, which also holds an election at the same time as the city election, will issue a separate call. Primaries will be April 1.

Joe Peckel saw a lone solitary duck fly over Scarr's drug store yesterday. Forthwith he removed his spectacles, donned his hunting outfit and set out for the wilderness.

City Clerk Perry Wheeler sent the names of the different candidates to the printer yesterday. Mayor Hoctor will issue the election proclamation between now and Friday, he says.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the United Friday service church will entertain Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. R. Thompson, Twenty-eighth and B streets.

Governor John Mendenhall was too fine a gentleman to be used to further the interests of the Hector-Gilligan gang so he refused to force Jerry Howard to get off the ticket under pain of losing his job.

I wish to announce to my friends and to the citizens of South Omaha in general that within a week I will be out of the hospital and that I am still in the Omaha.

FRENCH SUBSCRIBE FORTUNE FOR 170 NEW AEROPLANES

PARIS, March 19.—National committees promoting military aviation in France thus far have spent $300,000, collected by public subscription, in purchasing 170 aeroplanes and in training seventy-six aviators. They also have acquired sixty-five public landing stations in various parts of France for the use of civil and military aviators. The area of each station is at least twenty-five acres and each is equipped with sheds and repair shops.

UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA TO ENTER ONE TEAM

At a meeting yesterday of those interested in track and field sports at the University of Omaha it was decided to enter a team in the indoor meet at the Auditorium Saturday, April 5. It was not definitely determined in just how many events the Gateway men will participate.

The reason for leaving this matter open for a few days is that base ball is being pushed more than track, and with so few taking an active interest in athletics it is thought best to devote most energy to base ball. It is certain, however, that there will be entries in the shot put and distance runs and it is also probable that a relay team will be entered.

AT-THE THEATERS

ATTRACTIONS IN OMAHA.

Reed: "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." Empress: Vaudeville. Gayety: Vaudeville. Hippodrome: Vaudeville. Krug: Burlesque. Orpheum: Vaudeville. Matinee at Empress, Gayety, Hippodrome, Krug and Orpheum theaters.

John Drew in "The Perplexed Husband," the newest angle on the latest comic triangle of a wife, a husband and the ballet, comes to the Brandeis theater on next Friday and Saturday with a Saturday matinee. The piece is by Alfred Hatto, author of "The Walls of Jericho." Miss Mary Boland, Miss Alice John, Miss Nina Sevin and Miss Margaret Watson earned at each performance almost an enthusiastic praise for their individual work during the last three months at the Empire theater, New York, as did Mr. Drew.

The bill at the Orpheum will appeal strongly to university and college students who are having their vacation this week for it has a general college atmosphere. Paul Dickey, one of the headliners, is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Mr. Dickey is presenting "The Come Back," a campus romance which is his own production. Mr. Dickey got his inspiration when he was a student at Ann Arbor. Florence Tampe and Ten are offering a tabloid musical comedy called "College Town," which is also a strong feature of the bill.

At the Boyd "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" is proving a source of delight to great crowds at every performance. It has been the most popular so far of any of the comedies presented by Miss Lang during her engagement at the Orpheum. A midweek matinee will be played this afternoon.

One of the most pleasing acts at the Hippodrome is that of Mathews and Hall, who are clever banjoists.

The clean-cut comedy of Fox and Stewart in "The World of Pleasure" at the popular Gayety this week is indeed a relief from the low comedy methods of many who assume similar roles. Their work is high-class and ever prominent, particularly during the second act, which includes the table scene, one of the most absurd bits ever staged—an item calling for roars of laughter. Ladies' dime matinee daily.

The show which Zetiah has brought to the Krug this season is one that takes high rank among the productions of the western world. The chorus is the best brought here this season. Its song numbers are numerous and are a hit.

Manager Byrne has received word that Cecelia Loftus will be at the Orpheum the week of March 30.
