Bell Pays Judgment—Samuel Bell has paid $42.25, the amount of the judgment awarded Mrs. Katherine McGuire by a jury in Judge Sutton's court, in her breach of promise suit, together with costs.

Meat Market Changes Hands—Paul Krueger of Stanton, Neb., has bought the butcher business and brick block of John Honska at Sherman avenue and Ohio street, paying $18,000 for the same. Mr. Honska, who retires from business, has conducted a meat market in this location for more than twenty-five years.

Implement Man Files for Bankruptcy—Frank J. Belth of the implement firm of Brown & Belth of Allen, Neb., has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the Omaha division of federal court. His partner, Brown, has not consented to the petition and will have to be summoned. Liabilities are listed at $5,880.93 and assets at $10,625, most of which is real estate.

To Paint Mail Cars—The street railway company is preparing to put all of the mail cars through the shops that they may be in the best of condition inside of thirty days. While the government will paint its mail boxes and other equipment a bright red, unless orders come to the contrary, the street railway company will stick to white as the color for the mail cars.

Missing Juror Dismissed—E. C. Olson, the missing juror in the case of Nicholas Bergers against the E. M. F. Automobile company, whose absence caused the second jury empaneled in that suit to be discharged, was dismissed from the panel by Judge Day. Mr. Olson said he was sick and thought he was entitled to lay off, as he would have been had he been working at the time of his employment. A third jury is hearing the evidence.

Hemisey Dislocates Shoulder—E. P. Hemisey, commercial agent of the Rock Island, is at Schuyler with a dislocated shoulder. Wednesday Mr. Hemisey heard that the flight of ducks in the vicinity of Schuyler was large and in the afternoon he left for that place. A telegram was received that he had fallen and dislocated a shoulder and was being cared for at the home of a friend. Mr. Hemisey left for Schuyler early yesterday.

Taft Writes for Teddy's Picture

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Former President Taft has missed one person belonging which he left when he quit the White House—a picture of Theodore Roosevelt which hung on the east wall of his private office. Several days before he started for Augusta the president took down the only other picture in his sanctum, that of his father, but the Roosevelt picture has been hanging there alone since President Wilson assumed office. A letter came to the White House officers today requesting that the picture be taken down and sent to the New Haven hotel, where Mr. Taft expects to live for several months after he takes up his duties as a Yale professor.

JAPAN MAY PUT TABOO ON PANAMA EXPOSITION

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 20.—A special cable to the World from Tokyo, Japan, today says: "It is learned through official sources that in the event bills now before the California legislature and hostile to Japanese pass Japan will withdraw its support from the Panama-Pacific exposition, refusing to exhibit and prohibiting Japanese citizens from having any connection whatever with the exposition."

A Sour, Gassy, Upset Stomach

"Pape's Diapepsin" Regulates Your Stomach and Ends Indigestion in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you feel full, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what bewitched the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Advertisement.

VAL BLATZ CASHIER MISSING

Charles W. Teten Has Not Been Seen by Friends Since Monday.

CARRIES LARGE SUM OF MONEY

Foul Play is Feared, Although His Wife States that He Has Been Acting Somewhat Queer of Late.

Charles W. Teten, cashier and office manager of the local branch of the Val Blatz Brewing company, has been missing since Monday afternoon and not a word has been heard of him by his friends, fellow workers or his wife.

Teten, who was formerly cashier of the Sunland Machinery company, has been connected with the Val Blatz company for some time. He is under bonds of $30,000 and a man of good repute. Monday about noon he went to South Omaha to check up the accounts of the saloon run there by Ervin Stroud. After going over the books of this saloon Teten left, saying he was going to another one near by, but never reached there and never came back to the office.

As it is a known fact that Teten carried large sums of money with him in all times, some of his friends believe that he may have been snatched and robbed and his body hidden in some place where it would not be seen by passersby. Mrs. Teten said her husband was not a drinking man, having never been known to be intoxicated. She said he always carried many books and papers with him which would identify him if he should have been injured in any manner. She said, however, that during the last two months he has been acting strangely.

All the books over which Mr. Teten worked have been gone over and his accounts found to be correct and balanced up to the Saturday night prior to the time he was last seen.

Money Kited from Ohio Treasury to Bank and Return

COLUMBUS, O., March 20.—A sensational story of how funds of the state of Ohio were alleged to have been passed between the office of the state treasurer and the now defunct Columbus Savings and Trust company was told today in the state examination of the failure of the bank by Henry W. Bachman, secretary and treasurer of the institution. The failure left thousands of depositors practically penniless. The former secretary-treasurer told how the transactions between the bank and the state treasurer's office were covered up in the four days each year when the office of the state treasurer was examined. He said a bank official would bring in a black bag and take the money to the state treasury. After it was viewed there he said the money would be repacked and returned to the bank.

U. S. Cruiser Sails For Mexican Waters With Ammunition

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The cruiser California sailed southward late today bound for Mexican waters. It carried 40,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and complete equipment for shore duty, including camping outfits. At San Diego, the California will await the arrival of the Maryland, now coasting at California city, and the two will proceed to Guaymas, where the flag of the admiral of the Pacific fleet will be transferred from the Colorado to the California. The supply ship Glacier has sailed for Mexican ports with stores for the cruisers Colorado and South Dakota.

School Girl Spends $12,000 Yearly

NEW YORK, March 20.—On the showing of Joseph H. Dewitt, that his 15-year-old niece and ward, Helen A. Dewitt, cannot get along comfortably on the $12,000 a year, which has been allowed for her expenses out of her $50,000 income. Surrogate Fowler increased the allowance to $20,000 a year, today. Miss Dewitt's expenses are increasing rapidly, her guardian explained and especially for clothing. Her spring outfit this year will cost $1,900, he declared, and as she attends a school for girls, patronized by wealthy families she must have funds sufficient to keep up her social position.

MONTANA COWBOY SHOTS UP BUFFALO CITY HALL

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 20.—Joseph Stefanski, a cowboy from Geysler, Mont., apparently demented threw the city hall into a panic this afternoon when he fired on the mayor's office and opened fire on the clerks and a policeman on duty there with a revolver. Charles E. Lang, a policeman who grappled with the man, was shot four times, but probably will recover. Stefanski called twice at the office this morning, asking for Mayor Fuhrman, or his secretary. This afternoon he called for the third time and asked Charles Egloff, license clerk, for the mayor. Egloff told him the mayor was out. "Well, I want him," said he. Egloff parried with the man. Then Officer Lang walked towards him. The sight of the officer evidently alarmed Stefanski. He drew a revolver and said: "I will get that $100 or know the reason why."

GRAND HAVEN FISHERMEN ARE LOST IN SLUSH ICE

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 20.—Nineteen Grand Haven fishermen caught in the slush ice out on Lake Michigan in three fishing tugs since yesterday morning are in peril. They are thought to be practically without food or fuel. The tugs have drifted from sight in the mist and their exact whereabouts is unknown.

At the Theaters

ATTRACTIONS IN OMAHA. Boyd: "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." Brandeis: Recital by Yeays. Empress: Vaudeville. Gayety: Extravaganza. Hippodrome: Vaudeville. Krug: Extravaganza. Orpheum: Vaudeville. Matinees at Empress, Gayety, Hippodrome, Krug and Orpheum theaters.

Eugene Yeays, the world-famed violinist this evening, is a master in the zenith of his powers. No one disputes the fact that Yeays is the best violinist in the world today and one of the strongest proofs is the enormous wealth he has accumulated. With no single exception he is the highest priced instrumentalist who has ever been invited to America. Yeays' program for tonight will open with Beethoven's masterpiece, "The Kreutzer Sonata."

John Drew will appear at the Brandeis theater on Friday and Saturday in "The Perplexed Husband" by Alfred Sudo, which has delighted the public even more than any of the sparkling comedies in which he has appeared in recent years. Touching upon the most vital of contemporary subjects—woman suffrage—"The Perplexed Husband" aims at a pointed shaft of wit at the "new woman" and confronts her with "the new man," who succeeds in making her change her mind. In the cast appear: Alice John, Hubert Druce, Nina Sevending, Margaret Watson and others.

Walter O. Kelly, "The Virginia Judge," who is creating a gale of wholesome laughter at the Brandeis, says in his program that the standard of comedy has risen considerably in the last few years. "The day," he says, "when comedians have dared to go on the stage dressed as I am—in ordinary clothes. Had any one done so he would have been hissed off by the gallery gobs. A comedian used to announce his profession to an audience by his red nose. No red nose, no fun, was the motto of the vaudeville audience and the fun was usually started by the comedian's rushing on the stage and hitting the leader of the orchestra with a pie. In the past men acquired their comedy thrills through the eye. We of today thrill with the keen wit and subtlety of skillfully turned phrases, fine contrasts of character, and delicate portrayals of racial characteristics."

Miss Lang's success in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" is emphasizing her ability as a comedienne. She is showing the dainty qualities of fun-making that mark the real artist. The bill is giving greatest satisfaction to large audiences at each performance.

Clean fun runs rampant during the performance of "The World of Pleasure" at the popular Gayety this week. Fox and Stewart and the merry company supporting them working in perfect harmony in a most satisfactory effort to extract the laughs from the most outlandish and extravagant, being presented. Scenically the piece is most elaborately staged. Ladies time matinee daily.

Considerable interest is being aroused among Hippodrome patrons this week by the comedy sketch "The Girl," presented by Isabel Sells and company. This sketch is from the pen of an Omaha playwright and is a case of up of Omaha people entirely. They are all professional people, who happened to be in Omaha at the time Miss Sells decided to produce it. The sketch is full of witty comedy dialogue and funny situations and is making a big hit on the current bill.

"The best singing chorus" is the way writers in all cities on the Western world circuit have described the organization with the Zallah show at the Krug this week. It is a hit everywhere and is so good that the show has been playing to some of the largest crowds seen at the Krug this year.

BILL AGAINST KING OF NEWSBOYS IS DISMISSED

NEW YORK, March 20.—The indictment against Jack Sullivan, "King of the Newsboys," charging him with complicity in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was dismissed today for lack of evidence. This disposes of the last of the indictments found against the seven alleged murderers. Five men—Charles Becker, "Lefty Louie," "Gyp the Blood," "Dago Frank" and "Whitey" Lewis—are in the death house at the time Miss Sells closed the outcome of their appeals. William Shapiro, driver of the gray murder car, turned state's evidence and gained his freedom.

As Sullivan left the Tombs today he was rearrested on an indictment charging him with bribery. This indictment was found by the grand jury investigating police graft.
