

Cupid's "Harvest Home"

Some of the Omaha Maidens Who are Soon to be Brides

Amy Gilmore

Enid Valentine
RINEHART PHOTO

Dorothy Stevens

Dorothy Meyer
RINEHART PHOTO

Dorothy Morgan
PHOTO BY OSATO

Jeanne Ayerigg

Sadie Hirschbraun
NEW PHOTO

Mary Alice Rogers

Helen Davis

EASTER brings many interesting announcements and plans for the spring season. Chief among these socially are the engagement and wedding announcements for the spring.

June, the month of roses, is the favorite time for large and fashionable weddings, and rarely have there been so many charming June brides as this year. There will be some noted for their beauty and others for their accomplishments as well.

A large June wedding of much social interest will be that of Miss Mary Alice Rogers, daughter of Mrs. Thomas J. Rogers, to Frank Keogh. This wedding will unite two of the oldest and most prominent families of the city.

The wedding of Miss Helen Davis and Mr. Walter Roberts will also be one of the large and fashionable weddings of the spring. The exact date of the wedding has not been decided. Miss Davis is at present with her parents in California.

The wedding of Miss Enid Valentine and Captain Charles Bundel will take place in June.

The weddings of Miss Sadie Hirschbraun and Mr. Herbert S. Heavenrich of Chicago, and Miss Dorothy Meyer and Mr. Cohn of Rochester, N. Y., will both probably be celebrated this spring.

Among the prominent autumn weddings will be Miss Dorothy Morgan and Mr. Ralph Peters; Miss Dorothy Stevens and Mr. Ben B. Wood; Miss Amy Gilmore and Mr. C. M. White; Miss Jeanne Ayerigg and Mr. Leroy Robbins of Norwich, Conn.