Grant Woman's Relief Corps will be entertained by Mrs. H. S. Wilcox, 1865 Lehigh street, on Tuesday afternoon, March 25. Prairie Park Needle Craft, "The Widow Snuggles," and her five daughters will be hosts at the next meeting of the Prairie Park Needle Craft Tuesday afternoon, March 25, at 2:30, at which time they will give a highly instructive and educational program. The Social Settlement Dramatic club will give "The White Pilgrim" at the Grandis theater Monday evening, April 2. The club has given several plays at Turner hall during its existence of three years, but has never undertaken anything quite so pretentious as this. "The White Pilgrim" is an allegorical play written by Herman Merivale, an Englishman, and was first produced at the Court theater of London in 1878. The four acts are laid in Finland in the twelfth century when Christianity was first heard of there. The setting is the same throughout the four acts, the castle of the pagan earl on one side of the stage and the chapel for religious services of the Christians on the other, and throughout we see the conflict of religions, the pagan earl falling in love with the maiden who is enthusiastic over the new religion. "The White Pilgrim" represents death and the allegory running through the whole is very interesting. As far as we know this is the first production of this play in America. The cast follows: Harold.....James J. Domet; Rolf.....V. L. Cavanaugh; Sigurd.....Charles E. McAvoy; Sir Hugo.....T. J. A. Follansbee; Erioth.....John W. Hoffman; Leoric.....Elias Camel; Thord.....Marie Slupp; Gerda.....Marie Slupp; Lady Isabelle.....Marie Slupp; White Pilgrim.....Joy Higgins; Attendants, etc. Mrs. Mary Neal of Crawford, who is campaign chairman of the Sixth district for woman's suffrage, has been asked to speak at the district meeting of the federated clubs which will meet at Alliance, Neb., the first week in May. Mrs. M. McClafflin of Lincoln, who marched in the suffrage parade at Washington March 3, is now busy telling of the affair. Mrs. Clafflin says, "the affair has done more to create sympathy the public library Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Persian history class will meet Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the lecture room of the public library. The current topics class will meet Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the lecture room of the public library. The French history class will meet Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the lecture room of the public library. Mrs. C. L. Vollmer entertained the members of the Omaha Suffrage association at a tea Wednesday afternoon. A delightful program was given by Mrs. H. G. J. Lehman, Mrs. W. C. Sunderland, Miss Minerva Quinby and Mrs. Vollmer. A social meeting is held once a month by the association to interest new members in the work of woman's suffrage. Mrs. Vollmer was hostess of the March meeting. At the Unity church, next Friday evening at 6 o'clock, dinner will be given in honor of Prof. Frederick Ames Stiff of the University of Nebraska by the people who have attended his course of lectures this winter. Dinner will be served in the church parlor, followed by a short musical program. At 8 o'clock Prof. Stiff will give his lecture, "How to Find and Use the Unwritten Literature of Life." Mrs. G. W. Holdrege, Miss Janet Wallace, Mrs. Katherine J. D. Edholm, Miss Margaret Colvin and Mrs. Grant Parsons, are the committee in charge of the dinner and entertainment. The Sunday afternoon vesper service at the Young Women's Christian association, held in the auditorium at 4:30, will be a special Easter meeting. The association chorus will furnish special music, and there will be a solo by Miss Blanche Sorenson, the chorus director. Miss Strong, general secretary, will give the address. The social hour which follows each of the vesper services is a delightful time to make friends with our young women, and all strangers are cordially invited to come and spend the Sunday afternoon with us. On Monday evening, is the March party. This is for the members of the association and for all young women in the city, who are interested in our work. There will be a series of Easter "stunts," and Mrs. George Shields will give a short program of dialect readings and impersonations in costume. A cordial invitation is extended to all young women by the social committee. Monday is the opening day of the membership campaign. Owing to the much shorter length of time in this year's campaign, there is a special need for many workers and for great activity among them. The south parlor on the first floor will be the campaign office, and Miss Johnson, membership secretary, will be glad to confer there with anyone wishing further information. On Thursday noon is the monthly noon musical which is held in the association auditorium from 12:15 to 1 o'clock. This is free to women and gentlemen, and friends are urged to drop in for whatever length of time they may have in their noon hour. It is a "come-and-go" concert. The program will be directed by Miss Clara Steffen. "The First Aid to the Injured" lecture on Tuesday evening will be given by Dr. J. M. Aikin. The subject will be "The Brain and Nervous System. Unconsciousness from different causes. Hysterical attacks, convulsions, sunstroke, heartstroke, lightning stroke, and fits. The practice work will be the emergency treatment of each. Admission to the lectures is to members of the association, either to single lectures or to the course. The West Omaha Mother's Culture clubs will meet at the home of Mrs. P.

of Mrs. C. L. Hemple, 245 Davenport street. In accordance with Mrs. Waite's request only babies from 1 to 3 years of age will be taken. The annual business meeting of the household economics department of the Omaha Woman's club was held Thursday morning in at the club rooms. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Frederick J. Burnett, leader; Mrs. F. B. Bryant, assistant leader; Mrs. T. H. Tracy, secretary and treasurer. The time of the meeting was taken up largely with housekeeping problems. The Junior branch of the Fine Arts society will meet Thursday and an election of officers will take place. Mrs. Charles Kountze has charge of the papers. The Mississippi Valley Suffrage conference will meet in St. Louis April 2, 3 and 4, when nineteen states will be represented from Louisiana and Alabama to Wisconsin and North Dakota and from Illinois and Indiana to Oklahoma and Nevada. Nebraska will be there, represented by the state president, Mrs. Draper Smith; Mrs. W. C. Sunderland, Mrs. Frank A. Harrison, Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mrs. John T. Stewart, 20; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dempster and probably a dozen more from Omaha. There are no elected delegates from this conference which is open to all suffragists and is to be a conference on campaign methods with speakers of national prominence on the programs each day. The Rev. Caroline Bartlett Crane of Michigan, who has gained wide fame for her campaign for food inspection, will be one of the speakers. Governor Folke of Missouri will be another speaker and Reginald Kauffman, the author; Mrs. Katharine Waugh McCulloch, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio, Miss Virginia Brooks of West Hammond fame, Miss Desha Breckenridge and Miss Laura Clay of Kentucky and many more will be there to speak from their experience and knowledge on suffrage matters and to discuss campaign methods. Mrs. Draper Smith and Mrs. Harrison will both be on the program as speakers. The former to talk on the "Form of Organization Needed Throughout the State to Influence Legislative Action," and Mrs. Harrison's subject will be "Securing a Suffrage Plank in Political Party Platform." The Buckingham hotel will be the meeting place for the conference, but Mrs. Willard Bartlett of St. Louis has secured entertainment in some of St. Louis' most beautiful homes for all delegates who apply to her. Bryan Makes Call Not on the Program Mr. Bryan made one visit while here which was not on the entertainment committee's program. He rode out to the residence of Edward P. Berryman to pay him his personal compliments. Mr. Berryman is an invalid and has been for a year or more, ever since he suffered a stroke of paralysis. Time was when he and Mr. Bryan, as political leaders in the state, did not always agree, Berryman sometimes siding with the ultra-conservation of the Jacksonians, of which faction he was a leader, but he and Mr. Bryan have usually been the best of friends and it is said he was deeply touched by this kindness on Mr. Bryan's part. Cleaning or Dyeing Made Over Garments

If you have any made-over garments to be cleaned or dyed, these suggestions should be followed. Rip your garments entirely apart and send the pieces to the cleaner just as they are; he can then clean or dye and finish them on the cylinder, which leaves the goods more like new than any other method. Flat work only can be finished on the cylinder. If you do not care to rip it all apart, do what flipping is required, making sure to remove all trimming and buttons, then send to him. Trimming can then be dry cleaned. Dry cleaning will not benefit goods that are faded or show plain marks—dry must be steam cleaned, and sometimes that will not fix them—then it becomes necessary to dye them some dark shade. Never make over a garment and then send it to be cleaned; have it cleaned first and you will get satisfactory work; that is, if you send it to us. Wagons everywhere.
