JOINT GRADUATING CLASS

Creighton Departments of Law, Dentistry and Medicine Unite.

RECEIVE DIPLOMAS APRIL 28

Students Are Given a Week's Vacation Because of the Easter Holidays—Exercises at Brandeis Theater.
The annual commencement exercises of the professional departments of Creighton university will be held Monday evening, April 28, at the Brandeis theater. Nearly 100 students will receive diplomas at the hands of President Magawrey. The medical, law and dental departments of the university will be represented. The exercises of the pharmacy department were held in February, as the senior year in that department is only six months; while those of the arts college will be held in June, the senior year in that department being ten months.
The classes from the different departments will be distinguished on the stage by the color of the tassels on their caps, and each section will be presented separately to receive their diplomas.

Creighton Decides On Summer School

According to an announcement made by the faculty of Creighton university Saturday, there will be a six weeks' summer session held at that institution this summer. It will be known as a summer school and any branch of the college curriculum will be taught if the demand is adequate. This will include the studies of philosophy, arts and science, medicine, law, dentistry and pharmacy. Any one of these studies, or parts of them, will be taught if the applicants are sufficiently numerous to warrant the organization of a class.
Already 100 applications have been received for entrance to the school and several branches are already assured. It is certain that there will be classes in preparation for state teachers' certificates and the degree of "A. B." whose branches will be taught by the college will give the third act from "Lucrece Borgia," on Tuesday she gives "One Christmas Night, a one-act play by her son, Maurice Bernhardt, and Henry Cain; on Wednesday she will appear in the last act from "Camille," on Thursday she will show the third act from "Theodora," and on Friday the third act from "Eustace" to be given.

At the Theaters

The Columbus Burlesquers will present "The Love Rose" at the Gayety this week. A remarkable cast has been brought together headed by Charles Howard, comedian, assisted by Fanny Vedder, Marian Campbell, Rae Williams, Alice Wilson, Abe Levitt, Joe Emerson, Manhattan Comedy Four and a beauty chorus of twenty-five. There are many novelties in the performances and many laugh provoking lines and situations. As part of Lenten present to its lady patrons the Gayety will present free a 12 silk waist at the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday matinees to some lady patron. The waists will be on exhibition in one of Orkin's windows all week.
"The Jardin De Paris Girls," Morris Wainstock's big show, comes to the Krug theater for a week's engagement.

commenting with the usual Sunday matinee.

The program includes a bright two-act musical comedy, in which Miss Lydia Joopy appears in an elaborate gown made of over 150 yards of old Venetian lace, and Miss Stella Gilmore adds her clever work and costly costumes. Leo Stevens, Joe Madden and Tom Nolan, carry the comedy roles, while the chorus girls appear in catchy musical numbers. The first act presents the interior of the Bright Beach hotel, and is followed by Lester, Walsh and Lester, singers and dancers; living studies by famous artists and Lydia Joopy, the little night-owl.
The second act is laid in the Great White Way of New York. Friday night, as usual, will be country store night.
The program to be presented tomorrow at the Empress theater is headed by Harry Holman and company, presenting a comedy sketch entitled "The Merchant Prince." The seven Napanees, another feature act, is a small tableau musical comedy called "Fun in a School Room." Haney and Long will be one of those well dressed singing acts and will be very appropriate for Easter week. Nellie Berger does contortion and aerial work. Besides these acts a number of very good photo plays will be exhibited.
