

THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Tuesday, March 25, 1913.

HERE is no society in Omaha right now, and there will not be any in the sense of social festivities and entertainments for some little time to come. Plans for the future, as might naturally be expected, have been knocked into a cocked hat by the storm havoc, and the social calendar is wiped clear of all dates except those that are absolutely fixed and cannot be changed.

The arrival of the tornado Sunday evening at 6 o'clock developed a peculiar fact about Omaha society that explains how so many people were caught in other people's houses. Sunday is a great calling day in Omaha, and Sunday evening tea or supper one of the happy occasions for bringing friends together. In some cases it is the regular time for the reunion of families or close social sets getting together at one house this week and at another the next.

The storm havoc also developed another thing—the fact that nearly everybody comes from somewhere else where friends and relatives keep up an anxious interest, and would not be satisfied until they had direct news as to their safety. Folks everywhere have been hearing from people making inquiry who, in many cases would never be expected to go to the trouble to ask, and this is one of the consoling features of the sad moments.

Mrs. Wilson Low, who was slightly bruised when their house was demolished, is at the home of Mrs. C. W. Turner, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Turner saw the low residence toppling and Mrs. Turner assisted in getting Mr. and Mrs. Low from the ruins. They were only slightly bruised.

Mrs. E. W. Dixon and four children are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Brien. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien motored past the Dixon home shortly after the tornado and took Mrs. Dixon and the children to their home.

Miss Hilda Hammer and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pritchett are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kennedy in Fairview. Miss Hammer is slightly bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Pickens are at the home of Mrs. Ben Gallagher and both are getting along nicely. They were bruised and badly shaken when their home was struck by the tornado. Miss Elizabeth Pickens is at the home of Miss Gladys Peters. Although she was not injured, Miss Pickens is suffering from the nervous shock.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters returned home this morning from Excelsior Springs, Mo. Their son met them in Kansas City to inform them of the safety of the rest of the family. Miss Mary Burkley is the guest of Miss Daphne Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan Harding are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Harding. One wall of their home was blown out, but the contents of the rooms, which includes many handsome wedding gifts, were not even disturbed.

Mrs. M. A. Hall and family are with Mrs. W. J. Connell.

Miss Rose Coffman goes today to stay with Miss Margaret Bruce. Mrs. Coffman is at the Nicholas Senn hospital suffering with a fractured arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Millard and children are at the home of Mrs. Millard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Merriam.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McVann and family are staying with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Yetter. Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Gunkert are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pearce and will probably take the apartments of Mr. P. W. Leonard at the Colonial.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McGilton have taken the house on West Harvard street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schwartz.

Children Love Syrup of Figs

Sweetens Their Stomachs and Cleans the Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels Without Gripping

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and bowels so gently and so effectively as Syrup of Figs. Besides, they love its delicious fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

Each sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not depriving your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful. Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered—Advertisement.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Lewis are spending a few days with their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, 1512 Spruce street. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shepard and daughter, Miss Dorothy Shepard, have returned from an extended trip to Houston, Tex.

Mr. Blaine Combs and Mr. Ward Cousins, Jr., came up from Lincoln on Friday to spend the week-end with Mr. Cousins's mother.

Miss Emma Ballaragon of Seattle, the guest of Miss Esther Byrne, will leave Thursday for the east to visit school friends before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Morris McKay have just returned from a six weeks' trip to New Orleans, San Antonio, Houston and Galveston, stopping at Excelsior Springs for a few days on their homeward trip.

Mrs. Ellen Coad Jensen, who has been spending the winter in San Antonio, Tex., returned home this morning. Mrs. Jensen was one of the many Omahans away from home who could get no word from relatives so the returned home.

Insurance Losses Rapidly Settled After Tornado

Local insurance offices are besieged by eager policyholders seeking quick settlement of their claims. Many pathetic scenes occur as claimant after claimant is turned away with the information that their policies do not cover loss by tornado.

Where reimbursement is due the insurance men are offering all possible assistance in getting the losses paid promptly.

A. J. Love, president of the Love-Haskell company, said:

"We paid our first loss before 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and by 9 o'clock loss claimants began to congregate at our office, and most of them were small policyholders who had lost all they had in the world. These cases received attention. The large loss in the West Farnam district will take up just as soon as our adjusters can care for those in most need. We directed the claimants to make necessary repairs to chimneys, windows and roof and to keep track of the expense.

"The property loss may exceed the figures named by the newspapers, with insurance of less than 50 per cent. of that amount. Few of the homes in the West Farnam district carried tornado insurance, unless they were mortgaged to a building and loan association, in which case they were compelled to."

At the Martin Bros. company dozens of policyholders received immediate relief. This company's claims are expected to aggregate $100,000.

Hospital Nurse Dies from Injuries

Miss Flora Cassell, a junior nurse at the Methodist hospital, died yesterday of injuries received when the tornado struck one of the nurse's homes at 903 North Thirty-fifth street. She rushed for the cellar when the black cloud hit the home and reached the cellarway before the home was twisted and torn from its foundation.

A rafter from the ceiling pinioned her in the cellarway and she sustained a broken leg. She was removed to the Methodist hospital immediately after the storm. Complications set in from which she died. Miss Cassell's home in the Nurses' Home. Her residence was destroyed.

An Ugly Gash should be covered with clean bandages, saturated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Heals burns, wounds, sores, piles. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Tornado Losses Break All Records, While Fire Losses Are Smaller

CHICAGO, March 25.—The enormous damage caused by tornadoes in Nebraska, Iowa and Indiana brought out the statement from insurance companies that losses thus far this year on tornado insurance breaks all records, while fire losses are smaller than usual.

Tornadoes do not usually come so early in the year. Insurance agents say that the storms in the south last week were unusually destructive and that the Nebraska storm will pile up the losses. Figures on the policies affected by the Omaha storm are not yet available but it is said that many of the buildings destroyed were protected by tornado insurance. One eastern company collected $134,012 in premiums on such policies in Nebraska alone in 1912.

Priceless Books of Chancellor Jenkins Lost and Damaged

Dr. Daniel E. Jenkins, 1921 Bimney street, chancellor of the Omaha university, is a severe sufferer from the storm. The roof of his house was blown off and his magnificent library, one of the largest and most valuable in the city, was scattered up and down Bimney street. In this library were books of priceless value, some of which Dr. Jenkins had inherited from his father, who maintained an extensive library. Many of the books have been recovered, but are damaged, and some are lost for good.

While the Omaha university, itself, was not touched by the wind, it sustained some other heavy indirect blows from the tornado. Some of its heavy supporters came out with large losses. One of them, Dr. C. C. Redick, whose residence at Twenty-ninth and Dodge streets, in the path of the fine homes that were struck, was badly damaged and beside this he was a very heavy loser of property on the north side.

Nathan E. Adams, Twenty-second and Miami streets, is another who lost heavily. His home is a wreck. Dr. W. Merror, treasurer of the university, also had a home wrecked.

The young university had been making good progress. It is said, and was looking forward to a promising future and even expects to override the present obstacles, but its friends say will need ardent co-operation to do that.

MOST TELEGRAPH LINES ARE AGAIN WORKING

At the Western Union Telegraph office over 50 per cent of the trunk lines are working out to the commercial centers of the country. All of the printing machines are in operation and messages are coming in by the thousands.

Up to 2 o'clock over 6,000 messages had been handled into Omaha, and most of them had been delivered. The business was handled by 175 operators and the delivery was by the regular force and 135 boys from the Commercial High school, the routing being done by seven clerks sent over by Postmaster Wharton.

The Postal reports its lines all working, and but little delay in handling business in and out.

With the telephone company all lines with the exception of those running into the cyclone zone are working and many of them are being gotten in shape. With the exception of within a small area normal conditions are said to exist.

THREE WAS UNLUCKY NUMBER LAST SUNDAY

"Three" was the fateful number of Sunday's cyclone. The day on the calendar was 3-23-13. The storm struck the city three minutes before 3 o'clock. Six is a multiple of three. There were three districts where the worst damage was done—West Leavenworth, West Farnam and Twenty-fourth and Lake, and the number of injured was three times as great as the number of dead.

ARE THESE FIVE ALL ACCIDENTS

A. M. Kendall, shoe dealer of Colorado City, Colo., seventy years of age, was in what appeared to be the final clutches of Bright's Disease. The treatment was changed and in three months he wrote that he considered himself well.

He had a neighbor, a grocer, J. J. Abensham, sixty-eight years of age, who had Bright's Disease. "The best doctors I could get told him there was no help for him and advised him to settle up his accounts." Kendall told him about his own case and Abensham was recovered. In giving us these facts Kendall closes: "There are three others here who have been cured since I was cured."

One of the above recoveries might have been an accident, but how about all five? These people are not in league with Fulton's Renal Compound and the curability of Bright's Disease is a fact if one-tenth of the letters we have received are true.

With failure admitted by the books under the old treatment in chronic Bright's Disease and with reports like the above from many patients on this treatment how can any one be undecided. If you have Bright's Disease, write one to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. You can get it at the Shreve and Dodge, 16th and Harney, 24th and Farnam, 26th and N. 16th St. For pamphlet on our investigation into the curability of Bright's Disease write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco—Advertisement.

DOES YOUR SKIN ITCH AND BURN?

Resinol Will Heal It Quickly, Easily and at Little Cost.
