SOCIETY IN RELIEF WORK

Social Functions Postponed Until City Recovers from Shocks.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO GIVE BENEFIT

Large Number of Victims of Tornado of Last Sunday Are Being Housed in the Homes of Friends.

Social Calendar.

TUESDAY—Miss Gertrude Meyers entertains at birthday anniversary party; Mrs. R. G. Van Ness, hostess of the meeting of the N. T. C. club.

WEDNESDAY—Omaha Woman's club benefit matinee and evening at the Brandeis theater; Creighton Pan Hellenic dance at Chambers'; Mrs. Charles Gruenig, hostess of the W. W. club; Mrs. A. P. Whitmore, hostess of the Bridge club; Mrs. B. M. Homan, hostess of the 1913 club; Schlichting-Surles wedding in Milwaukee.

FRIDAY—Et-A-Virp dance at Chambers.'

SATURDAY—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dale entertain the Harmony club.

Members of the Players' club will take active part in the play to be given on Wednesday afternoon and evening by the Woman's club at the Brandeis theater for the benefit of the relief fund for the victims of the tornado.

A one-act play will be presented by the Players' club preceding the play by the members of the Woman's club.

At the matinee, a one-act play, "Raspberry Shrub, Sec.," will be presented by Mrs. Harry Doorly, Miss Arabella Kimball, Miss Margaret McPherson and Rex Morehouse.

A "Season Cycle of Dancing" will be given by pupils of Miss Cooper.

The members of the Woman's club will then present a play, "The Sidhe or Faries of Ben-Mor." Those taking part will be Mrs. S. A. Collins, Mrs. Grant Williams, Mrs. W. G. Nicholson, Miss Ruth Thompson, Mrs. Franklin Shotwell. The fairies will be Misses Bernice Brome, Helen Kroner, Mary Aid and Eileen Edwards.

At the evening performance the curtain raiser will be "A Queen's Messenger," poresented by Miss Anna Bourke and Mr. Charles R. Docherty. This will take the place of the play, "Raspberry Shrub, Sec.," given at the matinee.

Society Girls Will Help Unfortunate.

Ambitious to do all they can for the unfortunate of Sunday night's storm, many of the young society women will put their shoulders to the wheel of relief by selling benefit tags Monday. The total receipts of the sale will go into the general relief fund and the headquarters will be established at A. Hospe's store. Those who are going to participate in the work will be stationed at various corners downtown.

Miss Mary Marston is in charge of the movement. The captains are:

Misses—	Misses—
Pauline Bourke,	Margaret Baum,
Dorothy Morgan,	Carmelita Chase,
Katherine Thummel	Eleanor Cushing,
Esther Byrne,	Gretchen McConnell,
Elizabeth Congdon,	Dorothy Hall,
Caroline Congdon,	Mamie Spiesberger,
Gladys Peters,	Hortense Spiesberger,
Daphne Peters,	Fanny Rosenstock.
Sidney Stebbins,	Dorothy Morton.
Louise White.

Minus a Cook.

A family residing in the devasted district in the west Farnam neighborhood, are hoping that their old colored mammy, who has been looking after the culinary duties of the household, will return.

The last time the family saw her, she was kneeling in front of the badly damaged home. "Oh, good Lo'd, which am no'th and which am south?" she cried. "Why, Aunty, that is north and this is south," some one said. "Well, thank the Lo'd, dat aint changed," and off she started for her own home in North Twenty-fourth street.

Pan-Hellenic Dance.

The Pan-Hellenic dance will be given by the Greek letter fraternities of the professional departments of Creighton university next Wednesday evening at Chambers' dancing academy. The combined membership of the frats is nearly 250 students, and it is expected that, with the assistance of alumni members and pledges, nearly that number of couples will attend.

Elaborate decorations have been planned, and a nine piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Omahans Return Home.

Mrs. Carl F. Hartmann, who spent several weeks in New York visiting relatives, returned home shortly before the disaster and has been assisting her husband, Major Hartmann, who has charge of the relief work for the tornado victims.

Miss Louise Dinning and Mrs. J. F. Dinning returned home last Sunday evening from an extended stay in California.

Where They Are.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hamilton, who lost their home at 3409 Cuming street in the storm Sunday evening, are at present at the home of George N. Welch, 1025 South Thirty-second street.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Morton and son, James, whose house in Bemis park was destroyed, are now at the home of A. C. Kennedy. Mrs. Morton is recovering from bruises received during the storm. They will take a house at 3328 Hamilton street.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn have four habitable rooms in their house and have remained there.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Millard are with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Merriam until the repairs can be made to their home.

Colonel and Mrs. S. S. Curtis have been staying with Mr. H. C. Bostwick, but their house is about ready for occupancy again. Miss Curtis and Mrs. Dimon Bird went to the Loyal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sherman are back in their house, which they expect to remodel. Mrs. Sherman and daughters stayed with Rev. Frederick T. Rouse and Mrs. Rouse, whose daughters, Mary and Winifred, were at the Sherman's when the cyclone struck. None of them were injured.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nash have four of the Crofoot children with them, but repairs on the Crofoot house are nearly complete so that they can soon be in it again. Mr. and Mrs. Crofoot are in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldrige are now at the Loyal. For the first few days Mrs. Baldrige stayed with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Judson while Mr. Baldrige and his son, Malcolm, were with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baldrige.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Barkalow and Miss Barkalow have been staying with Mrs. John G. Bourke, but Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Davis, who are in California, wired them and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ringwalt and family to go to their house and occupy it as if it were their own, putting their servants and motor at their disposal. Mr. and Mrs. Ringwalt were at Mr. J. E. Baum's home while Miss Mary Ringwalt was with her aunt, Mrs. T. R. Ringwalt. They all went to the Davis home Thursday.

Mrs. B. B. Wood and sons, Benjamin and Robert, are with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McVann are at the Loyal as are also Mr. and Mrs. Halleck Rose.

Mr. Frank Burkley, Miss Burkley and Miss Mary Burkley are at the Hotel Loyal while their house is being repaired.

Miss Elizabeth Pickens will be the guest of Miss Gladys Peters for some time.

Mrs. W. F. Holmes, 1621 Wirt street, whose house was damaged, is now at the home of Mrs. N. A. Inkey, 2007 Wirt street.

Miss Juliet McCune and Mr. William McCune are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sykes.

Miss Florence G. Alexander, who had just purchased a new home at 114 South Forty-second street, was fortunately out visiting Sunday night when the storm struck there and took the building off of its foundation and caved in one side of it. Miss Alexander is now residing at 1114 Georgia avenue and has ordered her house rebuilt at once.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Baxter and their two children, who have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ringwalt, have taken a house at 139 North Thirty-second street and are moving into it.

Masquerade Postponed.

The masquerade ball which was planned by lodge B. of H., to be given April 2, has been postponed indefinitely.

Benefit Box Parties.

Mrs. F. L. Haller will have as her guest at the benefit to be given by the Omaha Woman's club at the Brandeis on Wednesday matinee, Mesdames F. H. Cole, George Tilden, M. D. Cameron, Edward Johnson, C. W. Hayes.

Others who will entertain guests at box parties are Mrs. C. T. Kountze, who will have six guests, and Mrs. George Joslyn, six.

Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the Young People's society of Temple Israel, which was planned for April 6 in the vestry of the temple, has been postponed until Sunday, April 13.

Musicale Benefit.

Miss Alice V. Davis has decided not to postpone her piano recital, which had been set for Tuesday, April 8, but will give it on that date at the Young Women's Christian association auditorium, donating half the proceeds to the relief fund.

Schlichting-Surles Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Athlyn Surles of Milwaukee to Victor U. Schlichting of Omaha will take place Wednesday evening, April 9, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. H. Surles, 352 Twenty-sixth street. The bride will be attended by Mrs. Chester Wanvig, matron of honor, and Miss Gertrude Keen, Seattle, Wash., maid of honor. The ribbon bearers will include the Misses Anna Laurie Bach, Ethel Fink, Ruth Stark, Irene and Grace Wambold, Mary Boose, Ruth Robertson, Mexico, Mo.; Gertrude Rose, Auburn, N. Y.; Lillian Powers, Chicago, and Ruth Crook, Kenosha. Eugene Schlichting will attend his brother as best man.

Social Settlement Club.

The Dramatic club of the Social Settlement will present "The White Pilgrim" at the Brandeis Monday evening, April 7, under the direction of Miss Mary Wallace and Miss Joy Higgins. The proceeds will go to the cyclone relief fund.

The cast is as follows:

Harold, James J. Domet; Wolf, V. L. Cavanaugh; Sigurd, Charles E. McAvin; Sir Hugo, T. J. A. Craig; Frioth, John W. Hoffman; Leofric, Elias Camel; Thordisa, Mamie Lank; Gerda, Mamie Sloup; Lady Isabelle, Marie Ostromic; White Pilgrim, Joy Higgins; attendants, etc.

Douthirt-Schwed Wedding.

Cards have been received in Omaha announcing the wedding of W. F. Douthirt and Miss Schwed, both of New York. Mr. Douthirt has been a frequent visitor in Omaha and had many friends here.

Easter Event Postponed.

For the first time in twenty-one years, the Easter egg hunt, which was postponed from last Sunday, has been cancelled. The money will be given to the relief fund instead.

Mazda Society Ball.

The Mazda society to commemorate its first anniversary, gave a ball at Turner hall, Thirteenth and Dorcas streets, Thursday evening. Souvenirs were given to all. Miss Frances Semik and Miss Albina Walasek presented the club with a beautiful pennant with the club's emblem inscribed upon it. Those present were:

At Home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Meyer will be at home Sunday afternoon in honor of the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Harry S. Cohn of Rochester, N. Y.

German Home Lends Aid.

At a meeting last night of the German Ladies' society at the German Home $100 was raised for the relief fund. The German Ladies' Bowling club contributed an extra $10, all of which was turned over this morning to the central relief committee.

A great deal of clothing has also been gathered by the society, the work of which was conducted by Mrs. P. Getzschman. The clothing and other articles were turned over to Mrs. Gloe, who has opened a relief station at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets.

The calico ball which was to have been given by the society has been postponed for a month. Forty tickets to the German opera at the Lyric theater next Sunday was purchased by the society for the officers and their escorts. A special meeting of the society will be held next Friday afternoon for the purpose of raising funds for members of their society, five of whom are homeless.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Mrs. Ben B. Wood left Saturday for Denver to visit her daughter, Mrs. Cranmer.

Mr. Harry O'Neill spent Easter in Omaha and returned Tuesday to "Myrtle Farm."

Judge Paige Morris of Duluth is spending the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen McCaffrey and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCaffrey are visiting in San Jose, Cal.

Miss Susan DeGraff, who spent her Easter vacation here with relatives, has returned to Oklahoma.

Miss Helen Cudahy returned Tuesday to Chicago, having spent Easter here with her sister, Mrs. Frank Wilhelm.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Redick, who went to Florida to spend Easter, were called home by the partial destruction of their home in the storm. They arrived Friday.

Mrs. Herman Cohn and her brother, Mr. Arthur Brandeis, returned Wednesday, the latter from Panama and Mrs. Cohn from Atlantic City. They are at the Loyal.

Edward A. Cudahy of Chicago is spending the week-end with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Wilhelm, and Mr. Wilhelm, and will return this evening to his home in Chicago.

Mrs. George Proudfit and daughter, Dorothy, of Lincoln, who have been visiting at Hillside with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yates and Mrs. Rebe Morgan, return home Monday.

Mrs. George P. Whitcomb, who has been spending the winter in London, arrived in New York Saturday on the Mauretania. Her daughter, Mrs. Warren S. Blackwell, left last evening to meet her mother in Chicago.

Mr. Robert Barkalow of Denver was at the Omaha club for several days, having come to see how his uncle and aunt, Mr. S. D. Barkalow and Mrs. B. B. Wood, fared in the tornado. He returned Thursday to Denver.

Mrs. George Brandeis and her sister, Miss Loretta Rogers, left Wednesday for Chicago. The Arthur Brandeis home on Thirty-eighth street, which they were occupying for a month until their home at Fair Acres was ready for them, suffered severely in the tornado, but they escaped without injury, and went to the Loyal.

Mr. Lewis S. Reed, who landed in New York last week from Paris, arrived in Omaha Sunday with his son, Lewis, whom he joined in Chicago and who has been in the States since October. They are both guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Chadwick in Dundee. Mr. Reed has been living abroad in Milan and Paris for several years and will return there later, having come over here on business.

CLUB WOMEN START DRESS REFORM CRUSADE

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—Officers of the Los Angeles District Federation of Womens' clubs launched today a campaign to banish the barrel skirt, the draped dress and the slit gown as a menace to morals. A resolution, unanimously adopted, directs every woman's club in the district to carry on a dress reform crusade in schools, churches and department stores.

SOCIETY LEADER WHO KILLED LABORER ACQUITTED

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 29.—Harold A. MacNaughton, a leader in Vancouver society, was acquitted by a jury in the court of assizes last night of the murder of Ernest Spinard in October, 1912.

MacNaughton while walking with the pretty wife of Spinard, a laborer, was attacked by the latter and struck him with an umbrella, crushing his skull. In his first trial the jury disagreed.

The young widow of Spinard testified that MacNaughton did not know she was married when he sought her company.

ROY FURSTENBERG GIVEN PAROLE BY JUDGE SUTTON

Roy Furstenberg, who on December 19 ran over and killed Isadore Levine while driving an automobile belonging to the police department and was convicted of manslaughter by a jury in Judge Sutton's court, was paroled by the judge to Rev. Mr. Savidge.

Furstenberg's youth was taken into account by the judge. His defense was that because he was driving a police car it was allowable for him to drive fast, but it was shown that he was merely taking the machine to a garage for repairs.

Levine was killed December 19 at the corner of Twelfth and Douglas streets. Furstenberg was convicted February 6.

Illinois Firm Contributes—The J. D. Tower & Sons company of Mendota, Ill., has sent a check of $50 to be added to the fund for the relief of Omaha tornado sufferers.

Forcible Means Are Used to Get Seven to Accept Charity

A family of seven persons huddled into one room of a wrecked home, who refused to seek assistance or to go to a neighbor's home, has been forcibly removed and placed in another house. This family's home was in relief district No. 4 of which T. P. Redmond is in charge.

"They were simply too proud to accept assistance," said Mr. Redmond, "and there was nothing to do but to help them against their will."

Their plight was discovered by one of the women workers in the district. This district was one of the first in which a systematic canvass of every home was made. Mr. Redmond is receiving many compliments on the management of his district. He is superintendent of the Brandeis Stores and his experience as a merchant is invaluable in organizing relief work.

Your Rugs and Carpets Are Not a Total Loss

No matter how wet they are or how much plaster and mud is ground into them, They Can Be Cleaned.

Don't consign them to the rubbish pile until you have talked with us. Call Douglas 963 and we will send a man to confer with you and quote prices.

We charge $3.00 to clean 9x12 rugs that cost new $40 to $50 and they look as good as new. The regular price for scouring or cleaning rugs is 25c per square yard—for carpets and light weight rugs 20c per yard. Why not see what can be done with yours?

We will meet you half way, and more; if after the rugs are cleaned, you are not satisfied with both the job and price, You Can Have Them for Nothing.

P. S.—Since this ad was written it has come to our notice that solicitors from a well known AMATEUR cleaner are telling people that the Pantorium does not clean rugs, but sends them to other parties.

Those who know us and have been through our plant know that such statements are false, and for the benefit of those who do not know us, will say that we have the largest and best rug cleaning facilities in Omaha as well as the biggest cleaning and dyeing plant in Nebraska—and we've had 18 years experience.

A Note of Warning to Omaha Cyclone Sufferers!

DON'T store away your Rugs, Blankets, Draperies, etc., while they are the least bit damp or wet. To store them this way is equal to burning them up for they will rot and mildew away into ruin. Let us CLEAN and STORE 'em.

Phone Quickly to Tyler 345

If you've no residence in view and must store your rugs, etc., have us CLEAN and STORE them for you. We will do the cleaning at the LEAST possible prices and will STORE the items at NO charge whatever.
