

Damage Wrought by Cyclone Rapidly Repair ed

Home of T. J. Bires, 3308 Lincoln Park, in the Bemis Park District.

RELIEF FUND STILL GROWS

Total of $136,168 is Reported by Treasurer Cowell at Noon.

OUTSIDE HELP IS APPRECIATED

Money Pours In from All Sources to Help Swell the Fund to Aid the Sufferers from Sunday's Destructive Tornado.

Table listing donors and amounts for the relief fund, including names like Robert Cowell, Fred Adams, and various local businesses.

Table listing donors and amounts for the relief fund, including names like Carter White Lead Co., Northwestern Term, and various individuals.

Thousand Dollars Added to General Fund for Relief

Along with a check for $1,000 for relief work in Omaha, Cyrus H. McCorrick, president of the International Harvester company, has written the following letter of sympathy...

You Should Enjoy Your Meals

One of the most important questions to consider in the search for happiness and health is food. What will? Where's the relief? The answer is in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets...

Science nowadays can digest food without having it enter the stomach at all. And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the result of this scientific discovery...

NOT INTENDED FOR THE NEEDY, BUT COAT WENT

Mrs. P. C. Moriarty of the Visiting Nurse association, at the Aqueduct, laid a handsome long coat down that she might assist with the work of getting bundles together for the different stations...

SWEDISH AMERICANS WILL HELP TORNADO SUFFERERS

A mass meeting of several hundred Swedish-Americans assembled in the Swedish Lutheran church, Nineteenth and Cass streets on Friday evening with the object in view of relieving the tornado sufferers...

Two Women Get a View of the Tornado

Nearly had Mrs. Ella Gibbons, police matron, and Miss Aggie Claire, 312 North Seventeenth street, completed the decoration of the lot in Westlawn cemetery...

Two Women Take Poison; One Dies

Mrs. Elois Reis, 74 years of age, living at 2465 South Nineteenth street, committed suicide early last night by drinking carbolic acid. She had been ill for some time and despondency and a quarrel with her husband prompted her to end her life...

Clothing for Men, Women and Boys on Easy Payments A COMPLETE NEW STOCK MODERATELY PRICED The "Union" Lends a Helping Hand and again extends its sincere sympathy to its many customers and friends who suffered a complete or partial loss. To one and all we offer the help of this big organization and its splendid credit service...

Buy Now What You Need—Pay When You Can

Advertisement for The Union clothing store featuring various items like Cottage Outfits ($45), Iron Beds ($79), Brass Bed ($8.95), Dresser ($12.50), Rocker ($1.98), and Dining Chair (79c). Includes a 'Special Sale of Rugs and Draperies' and 'Cooking Stoves and Ranges'.

Relief Stations Furnish Supplies to Six Hundred

Relief was given to 355 families yesterday at six of the seven relief stations. The reports sent in to the central committee last night give the following number of families furnished with food, clothing and cash:

Two Women Get a View of the Tornado

Nearly had Mrs. Ella Gibbons, police matron, and Miss Aggie Claire, 312 North Seventeenth street, completed the decoration of the lot in Westlawn cemetery...

Secretary Bauer Sends One Hundred

F. I. Eilick has received the following letter and a check for $100 from Ralph S. Bauer, secretary of the National Association of Stationers...

Two Women Get a View of the Tornado

Nearly had Mrs. Ella Gibbons, police matron, and Miss Aggie Claire, 312 North Seventeenth street, completed the decoration of the lot in Westlawn cemetery...

Two Women Take Poison; One Dies

Mrs. Elois Reis, 74 years of age, living at 2465 South Nineteenth street, committed suicide early last night by drinking carbolic acid. She had been ill for some time and despondency and a quarrel with her husband prompted her to end her life...

Doctor Scares Away Three Robbers Wearing Masks

Dr. F. A. Johnson, who lives at Twenty-sixth and Ames, reported to the police last night that as he was going home from his office he saw three men several yards ahead of him with masks on their faces...

Money to Go to the Ralston Sufferers

Reports from Ralston that the suffering there are still in need of financial aid, caused the central Omaha relief committee yesterday afternoon to donate $1,000 of the funds on hand to the relief work in the southwestern suburb...

Doctor Scares Away Three Robbers Wearing Masks

Dr. F. A. Johnson, who lives at Twenty-sixth and Ames, reported to the police last night that as he was going home from his office he saw three men several yards ahead of him with masks on their faces...

Advertisement for Tailored Spring Suits by The Novelty Co., featuring various styles like Long Crepe Kimonos, Muslin Underskirts, Women's Shoes, and Wool Serge Dresses.

Advertisement for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, featuring an illustration of a bull and text describing the medicine's effectiveness for coughs.

YORK SCHOOL CHILDREN SEND ALL THEIR FUNDS. The school children of York have exemplified a laudable spirit of consideration for the children of the storm-stricken area...