

Delf Boys Whose Pin Tumbling Makes Things Lively in Boosters League

Fred Delf's Guarantee Clothing company bowling squad is at present holding down third place in the Boosters' league of the Association alleys, having won sixty-nine games and lost thirty-five. This team, while possessed of bowlers much above the average, has played in hard luck nearly all winter and does not show the caliber of which it is capable in the percentage column. While there is slight chance of the team climbing much higher in the standing of the teams, it is determined to hold third place, for which position it is being hotly pressed by the Brandeis High Balls.

ROURKE'S RECRUITS ALL SHOWING WELL

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 29.—(Special.)—There will be no cutting down of the Omaha squad until the team reaches home the middle of April, according to President W. A. Rourke. This positive statement was given out today to contradict a report that a slice was due to arrive the first of next week.

Recruits Show Well. In spite of the short time the men have been at work, it has become evident that when the pruning time does roll around, it will be a hard matter to tell what members can be dispensed with.

At the bat he was exhibiting rare talent. In the first game he was up twice without a single, but the first time a remarkable play by the third baseman robbed him of what looked like a hit.

BOWLING SEASON CLOSING

Teams that Have Not Yet Closed Season Will Do So Shortly.

SEASON WAS SUCCESSFUL
All Report Year as Being More Than Satisfactory and Many Clubs Races Were Run.

While all the leagues have not completed their schedules, bowling is moving into the background to make room for its brother king of sports, base ball. The Morrison, Booster, Metropolitan, Mercantile, Automobile and Standard Oil leagues are still alive, but most of these will draw their last breath during the next week or two.

Over at the Metropolitan alleys some exciting races were pulled off. In the Gate City league the championship was not decided until the last night, when the Storz Triumph won out over the Midwest Tailors. The Stars played according to their name in the Knights of Columbus league and won with a two-game lead over the Corkers.

ARRANGE FOR OPENING GAME

Work on the Festivities Have Been Dropped for a Few Days.
