PWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER Birthday Party.

By MELLIFICIA.

Wednesday, April 2, 1913.

OMEN leaders in the social ani official life of Washington are at their wita' ends over the problem of the invitations for the "national welcome breakfast" that will be given for Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall Saturday noon. The banquet hall engaged for the event will accommolate 350 guests. The "blue book" contains the names of more than 1,200 eligibles, and already there are heart burnings and jealousies.

The feeling has broken out openly among the women who insist upon recognition. The National Democratic Women's league already has announced that it would not be represented at the banquet because the seating space accorded it was not sufficient for its members. There are other defections.

The breakfast will be purely a social affair and there will be no speeches. Both Mrs. William Jennings Bryan of Lincoln and Mrs. G. M Hitchcock of Omaha will be in attendance.

A Receipt in Full Is Waiting For Every Hartman Patron that Lest All Their Furniture During the Tornado

We Are Simply Paying a Debt of Honor to Our Patrons

The moral side—not the business side—prompted the directors of this great organization, when they decided to cancel all bills due this company, by those who had lost all their furnithre—these same directors who had watched the advances, step by step, made by the chain of Hartman stores in the march of progress. They KNOW that every bit of success they have achieved has been due to the PUBLIC-the PEOPLE-and FROM YOU ALONE-by your many kind words about us-and our methods-discussing us and PRAIS-ING us to your friends who came to use your happy nest that we had feathered. 'Twas you, and you alone, that gradually pushed the Hartman Company into the LEAD over all the world's competition.

And now, without any sounding of brass or trumpets-we extend to you what our directors choose to call "Our Debt of HONOR to our Patrons." We want to help you-not only in words, but in COLD CASH-we want to give all Hartman patrons who lost all their furniture in the recent disaster, A RECEIPT IN FULL FOR all money due us. And furthermore, should the supporting member of any family have lost their life, we will give the dependent family a receipt in full, whether or not your furniture was damaged. Call at once. Our offer has already comforted many honest hearts. We're waiting to serve the rest. And lastly-remember-when the call came, it was the Hartman Store that took the LEAD, although others may follow the trail .
