He made a trip through the tornado zone and remarked that it reminded him of the destruction wrought at Regina a year ago when that place was struck by a tornado. He said that the storm at Regina, however, could not be compared with the one which struck Omaha, the latter being far worse. New Janitors Named—C. G. New Omaha Club Members—The directors of the Omaha club at their monthly meeting approved twenty-two applications for new memberships and also received the resignation of G. W. Megath from the managing board. Mr. Megath asked to be relieved because he is about to go to Europe and will be away from the city most of the time during the remainder of the year, when his term would naturally expire. The vacancy is not yet filled. HOSPITAL SERVICES GIVEN TORNADO VICTIMS DONATED Word has been received by the general relief committee that the Sisters of St. Francis have donated the St. Joseph hospital services given the victims of the tornado. A good many patients were taken care of and there are still some confined to the institution.

SEARS STARTS A FINE FUSS At this juncture the meeting was adjourned and Walker ran around the row of desks where the board members sat, shook his fist at Foster and loudly protested against the whole procedure. "I'll tell you this," Foster snapped, "I'll see that list before I stop. Do you hear? I'll see it." "No objection," Holovtchiner interposed. "No objection at all when we have finished the work." What It's All About. Member R. F. Williams broke into the conversation, which threatened to end abruptly in a fight. He wanted to know if the city commissioners were keeping a public record of the $25,000 they appropriated. Foster answered by saying the money they had voted was turned over to the relief committee, which made a difference. When this $25,000 was voted by the Board of Education the following committee was appointed to disburse it and act in conjunction with the citizens' relief committee: Superintendent E. U. Graff of the public schools, chairman; President E. Holovtchiner of the Board of Education, C. T. Walker, A. C. Kennedy and E. J. Streitz, members of the board. Last night the board ratified appointment of Walker, chairman of the finance committee, trustee of the fund, to act in that capacity as long as the need of such a fund shall last. About $5,000 of the $25,000 has been expended. Dr. Holovtchiner said probably $4,000 would be turned over to the treasurer of the school district, City and County Treasurer W. G. Uro, after all relief had been administered. Sears and Foster objected to making Walker trustee, saying it was not "regular." Sears asked for the written opinion of the attorney of the board as to the legality of the procedure. Williams asked Foster if he would be willing to have the name of the woman for whom he asked relief made public and Foster said he had no objection and thought names of all such beneficiaries ought to be on the records of the board. "I have found that those who need help object to publicity and some of them will not accept charity but will take a loan, if the whole thing is kept secret," Williams explained. "I don't think the committee appointed by this board should make public the names of those to whom money has been advanced." "Every cent of this money will be accounted for," said Dr. Holovtchiner at the close of the meeting. "The committee will show where every dollar has gone. There need be no cause for fear that it will not be properly used and for good purposes."

"White Pilgrim" at the Brandeis Draws Big House Well organized in every detail, each part carefully played and the proper climax to each situation, "The White Pilgrim," given last night at the Brandeis theater by the Dramatic club of the Social Settlement workers, pleased a large audience. It was originally intended that the proceeds of the play be given towards the annual summer camp, but in view of the distress caused by the tornado this plan was afterward changed and the money will be turned over to the central relief committee. Exact figures could not be had last night. "The White Pilgrim" is a tragedy in four acts by Herman C. Merivale, and was given under the direction of Miss Mary Walker and Walter H. Graham. The plot has to do with the conversion of a pagan prince to Christianity by a pretty young woman. The scene is in Finland and the stage settings and costumes were remarkably effective. Joy Higgins, as the White Pilgrim, won much applause, and Mabelle Sloup, Mabelle Lank and Marie Ostron were also shown hearty appreciation. James Dumet made an excellent Lord Harold, and he was ably assisted by V. L. Cavanaugh, Charles E. McAvin, T. J. A. Craig, John W. Hoffman and Elias Crane. All of the costumes were donated by Oscar Lieben, and Hayden Bros. loaned an organ. LINCOLN COMMERCIAL CLUB OPENS NEW BUILDING (From a Staff Correspondent.) Wilson Takes Hand in Japanese Tangle WASHINGTON, April 8.—President Wilson sought today to avert a diplomatic tangle with Japan over the bill pending in the California legislature, through which Japanese would be prevented from owning property in that state. The Japanese government had filed formal protest with the State department against what it considered a proposed infringement of treaty obligations. The president conferred first with Secretary Lane of the Interior department, who holds from California, and later with Senator Works and Representative William Kent of the state. Aged President Addresses Church LAMONI, Ia., April 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The seating capacity of the large auditorium of the Saints' church at this place was taxed to the utmost at the opening business session of the world's conference of the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints, in progress here. Vice Councillor Frederick M. Smith was in the chair and the vast congregation joined in singing one of their favorite hymns. "We Thank Thee, Oh God, for a Prophet." E. A. Smith of Lamoni and Charles Fry of Independence, Mo., were appointed on the press committee. Reports were read from the credentials committee and W. H. Kelley, president of the quorum of twelve apostles, also reports from other apostles and elders in charge of various missionary fields. In the afternoon Joseph Smith, the aged and feeble president and prophet of the church, made a short address. He pleaded with the assembly to conduct their business in amity and confidence in each other. He urged them to put self out of sight and to place themselves more entirely in the service of the Master. President Smith is past 80 years of age and owing to his lack of sight and hearing as well as suffering with facial neuralgia, he appears very feeble, but his voice rang out with much of the vigor of his prime. He has been at the head of this church since 1850. Further reports were read, among them being those of W. H. Greenwood of the English mission, Apostle C. A. Butterworth of Australia, Reese Jenkins of Palestine and Charles H. Lake of the South Sea Islands. A number of resolutions, petitions, appeals, etc., were referred to various committees to report later. The annual meeting of the woman's auxiliary of the church will be held tomorrow morning in the lower auditorium. Apostle F. M. Sheehy was the speaker last evening and Bishop Richard Bullard preached this forenoon. Early morning prayer meetings are largely attended, at which the faithful receive spiritual gifts and manifestations tending to encourage and uplift. Tonight's speaker was E. E. Long of Lamoni. Tomorrow morning's sermon will be by E. F. Robertson and the evening sermon by Richard Baldwin. A Fortunate Texan. E. W.
