BROOKLYN, April 9-Philadelphia beat Brooklyn today in the special opening same of the National league season. which marked the formal occupation of Ebbetts field. The cold, raw wind kept the attendance down, but did not affect the players, who put up a remarkable battle. Both Scaton and Rucker pitched trilliant ball, the former just shading the noted southpaw in a 1 to 0 shutout. Benny Meyer, the heavy hitting recuit from Toronto, lost the game for Rucker in the first inning. With one out, Knabe doubled to right. Meyer muffed Lobert's foul in the sunfield, but Stengel overcame this error by making a sensational catch of a long fly from the same patter. Then Meyer muffed Magee's 11y, Neither side was able to score there after. Rucker was taken out in the eighth, when with one out, Fisher and Miller made scratch hits and Callaban was sent in as a pinch batter. The substitute forced Miller and Stengel was out on a corking stop by Doolan. This was Brooklyn's best chance to score. Changing Ames.

Changing Ames. Probably the most important move made by McGraw since the training sea-son began is his decision to turn Leon Ames into a spitball pitcher. If Ames can develop a good spitter to slice in be-tween his speed and famous curve ball he ought to be a very valuable man. He is working at it daily.
