Page County Makes Comprehensive Road Improvement Plan

BEATRICE, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—The Board of Supervisors yesterday purchased a large traction engine for the purpose of grading the roads in Page county. The board designated the roads to be graded and they include all the main traveled highways leading to Beatrice. The total number of miles of road to be graded is 12 1/2. The money available from the inheritance tax fund is about $20,000, and nearly all of this amount will be used in improving the highways of Page county. Louis I. Young and Miss Rena Sherman, both of this city, were married yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse by the groom's brother, Rev. L. D. Young. A. J. Overgard was called to Clayton, Kan., yesterday by the death of his mother, who passed away Tuesday night of heart trouble. Otto Karnatz and Miss Mae Darwin, both of this city, were married last evening by Rev. U. G. Brown. Ora Henry and Miss Genevieve Kilsoer were married last evening at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. U. G. Brown officiating. Miss Cora Cooper of Wymore yesterday instituted suit for divorce from her husband, Lowell Cooper, who is at present living at Beloit, Kan. She charges that he deserted her at Wymore last August.

WYMORE INSTALLS ITS NEW OFFICERS

WYMORE, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—The city council in regular session Tuesday night availed in newly elected city officials. Mayor Reuling reappointed W. W. Chinnock as marshal, Thomas Moore as nightwatch and Henry Kemp as street commissioner. F. B. Crawford was appointed city attorney. A. D. McCandless had held the office for the last year. Mayor Reuling in resuming the office for this year reviewed the work of his administration the last year. During that time a number of important suits have been settled out of court. An electric street car has been installed to do the water pumping, and saves the city from $1 to $4 a day. The floating indebtedness has been reduced $2,625. Charity work was organized. Mayor Reuling advocated a strict meter rate in selling city water, declaring the flat rate unfair. He advocates the installation of a steam engine in the city power plant and the operation of the city electric plant. P. R. Crawford, appointed city attorney, has resigned his office as police judge. Judge John Hurst has been appointed temporarily to the office.

GRAND ISLAND FARMER KILLS HIMSELF WITH GUN

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Charles Boldt, a young farmer aged 28 years, last night killed himself with a twenty-two-caliber rifle. It is believed he was temporarily deranged. He was in comfortable circumstances, and so far as known had little to worry about, though complaining yesterday that he was not feeling well. He leaves a widow and six children, ranging from 14 to 2 years of age.

News Notes of Alliance.

ALLIANCE, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—A company of "home talent" from Hemingford, under the direction of Dr. B. H. Hagedorn, of that place, presented "What Happened to Jones" at the Phelan opera house last night. The girls' basket ball team of Alliance and Mitchell will play the last game of the series to decide the championship of western Nebraska on Friday evening of this week. A snow storm, extending the length of the Alliance division of the Burlington, was reported last night, from four to seven inches on the level. So far no delay to traffic has been reported.

News Notes of Harvard.

HARVARD, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—Lawns and grass are being materially improved under the influence of one inch of rain that has fallen during the last twenty-four hours. The three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. George Steiger was buried from their residence Tuesday in Harvard cemetery. She was scalded so that she died. William Hoiser, an early resident and farmer, living six miles northeast from Harvard, was buried from the Methodist church in our cemetery on Sunday. He

MINISTERS OF KEARNEY DISTRICT HOLD MEETING

SHELTON, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—The first ministerial meeting of the Kearney District West Nebraska Methodist Episcopal conference opened here in the Methodist Episcopal church Monday evening. Following devotional services, J. F. Walker, on behalf of the people of Shelton and the local church, extended a hearty welcome to the thirty ministers and laymen present. He was responded to by R. P. Hamman, superintendent, followed by an address on "The Pastor," by District Superintendent R. F. Gailther of North Platte. All of Tuesday was taken up by discussions on church work. Bishop Frank M. Bristol delivered a very interesting address, his theme being "To Inspire the Minister to More Effective Work." Loup City was chosen for next year's convention city.

Notes from Wither.

WILBER, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—Joseph Kovarik, who was being held at the county jail awaiting delivery to the insane hospital, escaped last evening about 6 o'clock and has not been heard from since. He is about 28 years old and when he left had no coat, shoes or hat. The Commercial club at its regular meeting last night decided to put before the people for vote the proposition of rebuilding its lighting system and to install a heating plant for the business portion of the town, and to bring about an election to vote bonds to the extent of $15,000 for this purpose.

Fairbury Drayman Injured.

FAIRBURY, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—John Rybolt, a drayman, was seriously injured while unloading a barrel weighing 200 pounds at the Personnel candy kitchen. Mr. Rybolt had gone down the steps into the basement and in some manner the barrel slipped from the wagon and fell on top of him. The doctors found that five ribs were fractured in his right side and that one of them protruded into his lung. The extent of his internal injuries is not known. Rybolt is married

Base Ball on Its Way at Doane College

CRETE, Neb., April 10.—(Special.)—While the base ball men have been at Crete somewhat intermittently for several weeks the season really began with opening of school this week. Coach Johnson is having to hurry the work of picking a tentative lineup at least, for the first game of the season is Saturday, when the Tigers go up against the Cornhusker nine. Although Doane will probably not be able to put on a very strong district team there is a good chance for it to make good later on in the season. The schedule is as follows: April 12—Nebraska university at Lincoln. April 15—Cotner at Crete. May 2—Wesleyan at University Place. May 5—Wesleyan at Crete. May 16—Peru at Crete. May 17—Bellevue at Crete. May 20—Bellevue at Bellevue. May 21—Peru at Peru. May 27—Cotner at Crete.

Some Doubles.

Seven double plays were made in an exhibition game between the Cincinnati Reds and Louisville the other day and Joe Tinker started four of them.
