WILL NOT ENTERTAIN G. A. R.

Committee Decides Time is Too Short Between Now and August

NOTIFY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

But Ten Thousand Raised for Entertainment, Whereas Twenty-Five Thousand Was Necessary for Encampment.

Omaha will not entertain the Grand Army of the Republic at its annual encampment in August. A telegram sent to the national executive committee, in session in Pittsburgh, yesterday carried the information that the time is too short preceding the reunion for such plans as would be necessary, because of existing conditions, which are requiring the attention of Omaha's business men. An invitation will be extended the organization to come to Omaha in 1914.

The decision to postpone the invitation to next year was reached by the committee which attempted to raise $25,000 for the entertainment of the army. When the soliciting was concluded Wednesday night the members of the committee reported $20,000 in sight for the fund and the amount was conceded to be insufficient.

The publicity bureau of the Commercial club therefore sent a telegram to Commander Alfred B. Beers at Pittsburgh, notifying him of the fact. The telegram stated that Omaha "believed it impractical to attempt the entertainment of the Grand Army of the Republic this year and it hoped to be able to extend an invitation for the next encampment."

YOUNGEST MEMBER OF OMAHA COMMERCIAL CLUB

WADLEIGH BARTON

Lad is Member of Commercial Club

Wadleigh Barton, 15-year-old son of the late K. C. Barton, is the youngest member of the Commercial club, the rules of the club having been waived at the request of Mrs. Barton that the family retain representation in the organization.

The membership committee of the club recommended to the executive committee that the transfer of membership formerly held in the name of his father be transferred to Wadleigh. Mrs. Barton said she believed the club was doing a great work for Omaha and that for sentimental as well as other reasons she desired that the club make an exception and permit her son to become a member.

TWENTY THOUSAND ASKED FOR DEATH OF D. R. BUCK

Twenty thousand dollars damages are asked in a suit brought in district court by the widow of David R. Buck against the Horn Candy company for the death of Mr. Buck, due, it is alleged, to injuries received when he was struck by a motor vehicle owned by the defendant company.

Mr. Buck was head of the real estate firm of David R. Buck & Son. According to the petition, the car which ran him down was traveling at a speed of more than fifteen miles an hour and had no head lights, though it was 6:30 o'clock in the evening of January 15 last. The accident occurred on Sixteenth street, a little distance north of Farnam. The car is said to have been under the control of George Auerbach.

'Frisco and Omaha; A Little Debate

An interesting exhibit of what Omaha did for the San Francisco earthquake sufferers, and what San Francisco has done for Omaha's tornado victims, has been compiled by Frank A. Kennedy of the Western Laborer, as an outgrowth of correspondence passing between him and the San Francisco chapter of the American National Red Cross. It seems that when the general call for relief fund contributions was made Mr. Kennedy in his paper passed it on to the editors of the labor papers in San Francisco with the suggestion that now was their opportunity to reciprocate past favors. In reply comes a long letter, under date of April 13, explaining that San Francisco through its Red Cross chapter has raised $75,000 for flood sufferers; that it understood Omaha was not in need of assistance, and that if the Red Cross national officers would so instruct they would make a new call for a separate fund for Omaha.

Another letter from Walter McArthur, enclosing a personal contribution of $5, seems to resent the reference to Omaha's generosity with the counter declaration that Nebraska sent San Francisco, $17,100, of which Omaha's share was only $5,000. To correct this mis-statement, reference to The Bee's files has been had, showing that at the first news of the San Francisco catastrophe, Acting Mayor Zimman called a meeting of citizens, who immediately raised $2,000 and organized a relief committee; that Omaha's special train, carrying supplies for San Francisco, was dispatched the very next day, and followed quickly by other train loads. The total contribution, Mr. Kennedy points out in his paper, made by Omaha to the San Francisco sufferers and handled by Luther Drake, was $21,244.31, as against "Frisco's" contribution to Omaha of $5 from Walter McArthur.
