"Cotton Crowd" Absorbs All of July Option Wheat it Can Get.

CORN LONGS ARE VERY ACTIVE

For Some Time Past They Have Let Their Holdings Go Whenever They Could Get a Profit

Out of Them.

OMAHA, April 23, 1913.

The cotton crowd in wheat continued to absorb the July option on the declines al-most as rapidly as it was offered on the board yesterday, and they also bought the September option freely. On the other hand the longs in the May peddled it out in lots, and at prices to suit. The big men who have been lucky in cotton and corn, in which they have made a good sized fortune in the tast few months, expressed the opinion that it will be im-possible for them to suffer a loss in the deferred wheat futures. They expect that the present ideal crop conditions will fail to hold until the harvester is sent into the fields in the southwest, and they also figure that there will be losses in the spring wheat country from some cause or another. Men who have been in the wheat trade for a lifetime, say that under present crop conditions they could hardly feel word bords they could hardly feel words how wheat but The cotton crowd in wheat continued to under present crop conditions they could hardly feel more bearish on wheat, but they are advising purchases around pres-ent prices because of the likelihood of a change in the growing crop and they be-lieve that change will be for the worse.

SHEEP-The supply was moderasel, large and as the demand was about equal to the receipts the bulk of the of-ferings soid practically in the same notches as on Tuesday. Trade for the notches as on Tuesday. Trade for the most part was active with a strong un-dertone. The general market was satis-factory to the sellers, as other points were reported early as in a slow and weak condition. An unusual feature of the trade was the fact that the receipts consisted entirely of lambs, most of which were fed westerns. The general quality was very fair and about the same as on yesterday, the best Mexican lambs being good enough to sell as high as $5.80, top for the day. The buik of the Mexican grades changed hands at a range of Receiption could $5.0, the same as on Tuesday. Shorn lambs
