Three Veteran Stars. In direct contrast to the Husker track squad, which boasts of but two veterans, and not a single man with over a year's experience, the Jayhawkers will present a well seasoned bunch of athletes. Kansas is particularly impressed with the showing of three of its veterans, however-Captain Patterson, Edwards and Hazen, and on the strength of their performances is already laying claims to the championship of the Missouri Valley. At Nebrasks, the claim is regarded as laughable in the face of the sterling bunch of athletes which the University of Missouri has. The Jayhawkers were able to defeat the Tigers in an indoor meet in the winter, but Missouri was caught unexpectedly and Nebraska authorities insist that the showing was not Missouri's best. Nevertheless, Kansas has a squad it will be by a close score. Captain Patterson, who runs the half and the mile, is a showy athlete. At the Drake relay meet he clipped the half mile run down to 2:01, and under more the Hawkeyes from winning here and favorable conditions Reed thinks he can has gone. His record for the mile is 4:30, which is also better than the Nebrassa mark. It is conceded in the distance runs that Nebraska has not much of a chaoce. Patterson's running mate is Edwards.

Both Kansas and Nebraska are strong in base ball. The Jayhawkers have scored victories over the Kansas Aggies, the Tigers and all of their other minor rivals, but split even on the series with the Aggies. Nebraska has a similar record. afternoon with the Josies. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. the Omaha team while on its first trip, but these complaints are uncalled for at this time. True, the Omaha team did not cover itself with glory, but comparatively the team has been going as good as any other in the league, with the possible exception of Denver, and that team has nothing on any of the other seven as

Take, for instance, the Denver and Lincoin teams. What have they done? Nothing to brag about. Both teams have been playing Wichita and Topeka since the season opened. It is generally conceded that the two Kanzas towns are about the weakest in the league, both in fielding and in pitching. Denver made a clean sweep of almost every game it played with these two teams. The same thing can be said about the Antelopes. only real series these two teams have pulled off is the one between themselves at Lincoln. Denver slipped two over on the Antelopes and both these games were close. Lincoln might have won the second game had not rain stopped the contest in the sixth inning with the score 5 to in Denver's favor.

Meets Strong Teams. Now take the other teams. Omaha har met the stiffest clubs in the league. So have Des Moines. Sloux City and Joseph. The latter team has made the best showing to date. The rail race thus far has been between these four teams and the present percentage table will showed what the result has been with all the clubs bunched up. Wait until Denver meets Stoux City. Des Moines, Omaha and St. Joseph and one will be able to get a look at the real situation in the Western league. Here are the teams both Lincoln and Denver will have to beat before they can do any crowing and do it with a perfect right by virtue of conquest.

Equal to Any. Omaha's team, taken man for man, is equal to any in the Western league, and in many respects has it on the others. The only weak spot-truly weak-is the pitching staff and practice will improve this. No one denies the fact that Hicks Robinson and two or three others are real live tossers who can deliver the Starting with Kane at first base. In there any better in the league? He can clout the ball when the clouts count. He can lay it down or stretch it out and at first can field his position without fault. At second Bill Schipke has no peer this season. His fielding is sensational, to say the least, and he is certainly hammering the ball. Grubb is a new man and at that is lining up with the others. Since he went on the road he has not made an error and is hitting the ball with greater regularity than some other third sackers in the league.

Eddle Justice is both good at his position and a good batter. True he doesn't his as consistently as others, but many the game he has put on ice when a hit was needed.

Coyle Han Good Record. In left field Coyle has no peer. His record is well known and he is not the man that many pitchers want to face wher hits are needed. Thomason is the best center fielder in the league without e
