With election over, the successful candidates are beginning to realize the grind of satisfying the faithful who want to serve the public at so much per month.

It is said, the proposed action is contrary to the civil service plans and it is understood that a number of the board members have indicated their desire to enforce the civil service rules.

May Have to Move Out. If the complaints of some merchants doing business near the corner of Twenty-fourth and N streets are sustained Frank Johnson, the blind newsboy who has sold papers from the corner for years, will have to go. With him will also go William Cook, the popcorn man who operates a portable stand next to the news stand.

Johnson yesterday circulated a petition to the council asking that his means of making a living be not taken from him. He has been on the corner five years, before which time he was on the opposite corner.

Although blind, Johnson has supported himself and an aged father until the latter's death a few months ago. The petition was signed by practically every business man and every one else who saw the paper.

CONFESSES HE IS STRATTON

Convict Escaping from Leavenworth Prison Admits Identity.

CHICAGO AUTO BANDIT, TOO Describes His "Dash for Liberty" Through Sewer—Will Be Tried in Peoria on Burglary Charge.

PEORIA, Ill., May 10.—Clyde Stratton, the convict who made a sensational escape from the government prison at Leavenworth on March 29 by crawling through a half mile of sewer and who is now under arrest at Pekin, Ill., on a charge of burglary, confessed tonight that he is the man wanted at Leavenworth prison. Stratton further admitted that he was familiar with the details of the robbery of the diamond merchant, J. H. Logue, in Chicago, for which he once was arrested, and that he was an automobile bandit in Chicago for four days.

Stratton was arrested under the name of Williams a few days ago near Danvers, Ill., where he and a companion were accused of robbing a store at Mackinaw, Ill. The booty taken from the Mackinaw store was found in his possession.

Breaks Down and Confesses. Stratton at first refused to talk, but finally broke down and admitted his identity.

Stratton in talking of his case said: "I was sent up from Indianapolis by the federal court for robbing a postoffice at McCool, Ind. I had been in the prison but a short time when I decided to make my escape through the sewer. I had confidence in this method after I had previously made my getaway from the Columbus, O., state prison on two different occasions. My first arrest occurred at Mansfield, O., and I was sent to the reformatory in 1904, but I escaped shortly afterwards and made my way to Chicago to make the trip through the sewer at Leavenworth, but after going some fifty feet turned back. I made my way through the eighteen-inch sewer for half a mile and finally came to the end.

Not Affected by Gas. "The sewer gas seemed to affect my two companions, but it did not affect me and I do not feel any the worse for the gas. I secured a suit of clothes from a farmer and made my way to Chicago within a few days."

Stratton talked of the Logue robbery in Chicago and of raids by automobile bandits. He said he tried the automobile bandit business for four nights, but could not get away with it. He was arrested in Chicago as a suspect, but was released soon. He then made his farm house near Allentown, a store at Fremont, Ill., a store at Mackinaw, Ill., and a store at Danvers, Ill.

Sheriff Fleugel stated tonight that it was the intention of the Tazewell county authorities to hold the prisoner and try him on the charge of robbing the Mackinaw store. The sheriff said that he had received a telegram from the authorities at Leavenworth asking when he would turn over the prisoner, but had not replied.

TARIFF WAR IN SENATE ON

Republicans Begin Fight for Public Committee Hearings.

UNDERWOOD BILL ASSAILED

Michigan Member Declares the Measure Will Result in Repetition of Dark Days of 'Nineties.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Republicans of the senate leaped eagerly into their fight against Underwood bill when it was brought over from the house yesterday and precipitated an issue by attempting to override the decision of the democrats to consider the measure without public hearings.

Protesting the assault that the republicans propose to make on the schedules from which to study the republicans propose to have the bill referred to the finance committee with public hearings after Senator Simmons, chairman of the committee, has moved for a conference without instructions.

Republicans Hopeful. While this phase was pending when the senate adjourned until Tuesday, several republican leaders predicted that they would win their contention and that public hearings would be forced over the heads of the finance committee. Democratic leaders, however, disputed this prediction.

Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan in a vigorous appeal for consideration of the bill in the open instead of "in the darkness and gloom" of the committee room, assailed the tariff bill. He declared that it would result in a repetition of "dark days" that followed the Wilson bill, that the sugar industry would suffer and that other industries would be ruined, and that already business was falling off rapidly throughout the country.

Charging that free sugar in three years would give the American Sugar Refining company and the Federal Sugar Refining company an option which they would foreclose on the property of the best sugar interests, their only domestic rivals, Senator Smith declared that the best sugar industry, in which 15,000 persons in Michigan alone were interested, would be wiped out.

"An Unholy Alliance." "If the American Sugar Refining company and the Federal Sugar Refining company," said Senator Smith, "have made an alliance with the democratic party, it is an unholy alliance. Men who have not shirked in committing crimes to increase the volume of their business and who are now responding to the will of the law make very poor allies for any political party."

DUN'S MARKET REVIEW

Favorable Crop Outlook Results in Increase of Confidence. GAIN IN BUILDING SHOWN. Production of Iron and Steel Continues Close to Capacity—Deliveries Made More Promptly.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Dun's Review today says: In spite of some curtailment of orders for merchandise affected by pending tariff changes, the unusually favorable crop conditions have resulted in a marked increase of confidence throughout the west and south. The passage of the tariff bill by the house of representatives brings the end of this element of uncertainty measurably nearer. Meanwhile, the building activity for April of 1913 was 10 per cent higher than the same month in 1912, a heavy decrease at New York city being more than offset by gains elsewhere particularly at Chicago and at most points in the west and in the Pacific slope.

Production of iron and steel continues close to capacity, but new shares are made more prompt in delivery. The volume of iron and steel has greatly improved the volume of retail trade, although the volume of wholesale trade is somewhat less. The outlook for leather, but hides continue easy. All speculative markets are dull and fact accounts largely for the decrease in bank earnings from last year, which, however, is comparatively small amounting to only 7 per cent this week. Recovery from western flood effects is fairly complete. Railroad earnings in April increased 2.7 per cent over last year. Financial sentiment in the east is less cheerful than in the west, but money locally continues easy. Heavy refunding of corporate issues is, however, due the remaining months of the year.

The best feature of the situation is the fact that every condition favors large crops. The foreign government at the port of New York during the month received $1,486,000 against $1,448,500 last year. Commercial failures this week in the United States are 27 against 263 the corresponding week last year. Failures in Canada number 29.

BRADSTREET'S OPTIMISTIC. Unusually Favorable Crop Prospects Influence Conditions. NEW YORK, May 10.—Bradstreet's today says: Trade movements evidence the existence of barriers to active progress, but the week's progress, nevertheless, indicate the current needs are of heavy volume and that they are more likely to make for a satisfactory, if not indeed, active distribution of current account. Consequently jobber's stocks, which are being bought in large, are being subjected to further inroads and though there is considerable evidence of frequent shopping for small parcels, this tendency really is indicative of a wish to cut cloth only when and as it is needed.

On the other hand, buying for future accounts except in a few sections feels the incubus of prospective tariff regulations, and it is over this aspect of affairs that most caution is being exercised. Still adjustments are being made in consonance with what is deemed to be inevitable and as a result the unsettledness that is giving rise to mixed conditions in economic affairs is to be regarded as of a transitory character. Seldom have crop prospects been more favorable, soil and conditions almost everywhere being unusually propitious, while the outlook for winter wheat is well light ideal.

At the moment prices of textiles in the east tend to resist declines and a reaction toward more or less steadiness is reflected in some branches of the cotton goods trade. Wool is quiet and most new wools coming in are on consignments. While retail trading is good, it would move more freely if weather conditions were settled.

Labor does not lack employment, building being very active with mill work showing no abatement. Flour manufacturing is quiet and there is less doing in iron and steel, both as regards specifications for the finished article and new business.

Copper is firm, not so much because of new demand as to the statistical position of the metal. There are fewer idle cars. Lumber is heavy. Prices for meat, farm and dairy products are lower. Collections are being made for the war. Money is a little easier but the banks are well loaned up. Bonds have lately come into a better position but stock market operations continue narrow.

Business failures for the week ending May 3 were 245 as compared with 260 in the like week of 1912.

Business failures in Canada numbered thirty-six.

Including flour exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending May 3 (Galveston missing) aggregate $14,350 bushels against $14,850 this week last year.

ASKS RAILWAY FRANCHISE

Head of Des Moines City Railway Makes Bid for Favor.

PROMISES INTERURBAN LINES

Anonymous Letters Sent to Heads of Anti-Saloon League in Des Moines Making Threats of Violence.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., May 10.—(Special Telegram.)—President Schmidt of the local street railway company arrived from Chicago today and opened the campaign for a new franchise for his company by announcing that plans are practically complete for a very extensive building of new interurbans from Des Moines into all the surrounding country. He announced that the Colfax line is to be extended eastward to Newton at once and that surveys have been made for lines south to Indiana and Osceola and there will be another to the southwest as soon as it can be surveyed.

The company is now operating in Des Moines without a franchise, but will ask that the people grant a franchise at once.

Threats Received by Mail. W. C. Barber, secretary, and M. S. Odie, attorney of the Iowa Anti-Saloon league, today received a letter threatening both of them if they did not leave Des Moines within ninety days. The letter is in disguised handwriting and is neither dated nor signed. The letter will be turned over to the federal authorities.

Mr. Barber stated he believes the letter is the result of recent prosecutions for the alleged illegal sale of liquor.

Eather Belinsky, administratrix of the estate of Nathan Belinsky, served notice of suit for $50,000 against Dr. Charles Ryan, who is charged with Belinsky's death as the result of the alleged careless driving of an automobile.

Belinsky alighted from a street car and was struck by the machine driven by Dr. Ryan, which approached. A coroner's jury recently absolved Dr. Ryan from all blame in connection with the accident.

WILL SIGN SUNDRY CIVIL BILL DESPITE PROTESTS

WASHINGTON, May 10.—President Wilson told some of his callers today that he would sign the sundry civil bill as it passed the house and senate, but pressure is being brought to bear to induce the president to change his mind. President Taft vetoed the same measure because he regarded as class legislation the provision in it exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from prosecutions, with funds set aside for the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law.

MICKEL BROTHERS INVADE IOWA TOO.

Nebraska Cycle Co. Establishes Huge Victor Victrola House in Des Moines.

Wholesale Only at This Newer Mickel Concern in the Hawk-Eye State.

"To Stand Still is to Go Backward." This terse expression has always been in force with the Mickel Brothers of Omaha, who were the originators, builders and prime movers of the Nebraska Cycle Company, that immense "Specialty" house at corner 15th and Harney Sts. The Mickel Brothers, not content with capturing the cream of the western trade with their Omaha house, have just opened a huge new establishment in Des Moines, Iowa, this Iowa establishment, however, being devoted exclusively to the wholesaling of Victrolas, Victor Talking Machine Records, etc. A separate force of traveling representatives will garner in trade for the Iowa establishment, and an up to the minute mail order department will be maintained.

Geo. E. Mickel, Manager, Nebraska Cycle Co.

And all this because the Mickel Brothers have been hustlers in every sense of the word. The Mickels launched into business in Omaha in a modest way a score or so years ago when bicycles became the rage and they were responsible for the western popularity of the "wheel" just as they are now responsible for the present unprecedented demand for "Victrolas," Victor Talking Machine Records, etc.

The number of "Victrolas" sold by the Mickel Brothers, Nebraska Cycle Co., locally, has grown to be almost unbelievably large; there isn't a street or block in Omaha, Council Bluffs, South Omaha or the suburbs, but that has one or more "Victrolas" purchased from this ever growing concern.

The Mickels also maintain a successful branch store in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and are interested in several other local establishments, at the same time enjoying a mail order business that should satisfy the most ambitious.

But this eagerness for expansion in the Mickels is praiseworthy in every way; each time they open a new establishment they furnish employment for just that many more people; they are ambitious business men but their ambition benefits the city at large.

Des Moines has already expressed itself as being deeply pleased over the Mickels' conquest of their city, and from an early outlook the Iowa establishment bids fair to be on a par with the Mickel Bros' Nebraska Cycle Co., in point of sales on Victrolas and Victor Records.

No matter what sort of a Victrola you wish to buy, buy it at The Nebraska Cycle Co.; remember that here is a firm of specialists willing and anxious to sell you a "Victrola" on any terms you desire; a firm that shows the entire line in all models at from $15 up to $500.

If you should live out of town—no matter at what distance—make use of The Nebraska Cycle Co.'s superb mail order facilities. You may buy a "Victrola" by mail, on easy payments, at a price as low as the lowest cash price quoted in America. And everybody in Omaha will attest to the rigid honesty instilled into the dealings of the Mickels.

Get in in touch with this firm of live wires; you'll like them and you will like their methods.
