

OUTDOOR CLUBS IN ACTION

Omaha Field Club Will Have Formal Opening Saturday.

MANY OMAHANS GO TO EUROPE

Several Engagements Announced During the Week—Mrs. Charles Kountze Will Attend Art Meeting in Washington.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Mrs. Samuel Rees' matinee party at the Orpheum...

The first of the golf clubs to hold a formal opening this season is the Omaha Field club. Cards announcing the annual opening of the club, May 17, have been issued by the board of directors.

As heretofore, dancing will be held Wednesday and Saturday nights. An innovation at the club will be open air concerts every Sunday evening, weather permitting, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

Much interest is being taken in the concert to be given by Max Landow at the Brandeis theater Monday evening, May 6, for the benefit of the Sacred Heart Academy.

More than a score of former pupils are assisting in selling the tickets, and those in charge include Miss Stella Hammett, Mrs. W. G. Colling and Mrs. MacMillan Harding.

This is the first benefit given for the convent and Mr. Landow will give his services, so the committee expect to realize a large sum, besides giving an entertainment of unusual merit.

Engagements of the Week.

Several interesting engagements have been announced this week. The culmination of a high school romance is the engagement of Miss Beulah Beasire, daughter of Mrs. Georgia Pryne Beasire, to Mr. Lin Perry Campbell.

Mrs. Beasire and her daughter resided in Omaha before moving to Chicago. The many friends of Miss Beasire are pleased that her marriage will bring her back here to reside. Mr. Campbell is prominent in business and social circles and is associated with the Bryn Mawr company. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Among the other engagements announced last week was that of Miss Gladys Lobeck, daughter of Congressman Lobeck and Mrs. Charles Otto Lobeck, to Mr. Raymond Gerald Young. The wedding will take place the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Haller announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Haller, to Elliot B. Drake of Norfolk, Neb. The wedding will take place in June. Both of these young people are well known in Omaha and both are graduates of the University of Nebraska.

Travel abroad is heavier this year than ever before, say the steamship companies, and travelers are having difficulty in getting reservations for the month of June.

An unusually large number of Omahans will spend the summer in Europe. Mr. and Mrs. David Cole will next month for Ireland and will pass the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton and family will leave the latter part of June to spend the summer traveling in Norway and Sweden. Miss Carmelita Chase leaves Monday for Chicago and Providence, R. I., to visit before going to the commencement at Bryn Mawr, after which she will visit friends in the east prior to her departure in July for three months abroad as the guest of a college friend, Miss Dorothy Wolff of New York, and her mother. A third Bryn Mawr girl will complete the party of four, which sails July 22 to travel in England, France and Switzerland.

Mr. Frank Hamilton, Mr. Charles Kountze and Mr. Ward Burgess, who will join their wives in Europe this summer, have arranged passage for August 2. Mr. Robert Losler of New York is also planning to go abroad at the same time.

Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Davis will make a short trip to England, sailing June 21 on the Laconia, only remaining long enough to take a motor trip through the English lake country. Mrs. Herman Kountze, who is now visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jerome Magee, expects to join Miss Hanson and Miss France in New York the latter part of this month, to sail with them on the Germania for Europe. Later in the summer Mrs. C. J. Greene plans to join them.

Miss Helen Hansen, a senior at the University of Omaha, left Omaha Thursday evening to tour Europe. Miss Hansen will visit Chicago, Washington, Cleveland and New York before sailing. She will first visit Norway, Sweden and Denmark, where she has relatives. Leaving here she will travel with a party of tourists through England, Germany, Switzerland, France and Austria, returning to America the last of August and reaching Omaha September 4.

Visiting in Omaha. Miss Bradard of New York has arrived to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Lord.

Mrs. W. R. Bennett and Miss Louise Bennett of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, are at the Loyal.

Miss Ballingreen is the guest of Miss Esther Byrne for a few days en route to her home in Seattle, after an eastern visit.

Miss Violet Larratt-Smith of Toronto has arrived to be the guest of her brother, Mr. George C. Smith, and Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Edward C. Smith of Kansas City was one of the popular guests in Omaha during the week. Mrs. Smith was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Tate, at Hillside, and was honor
