McReynolds Takes Up Wanamaker Case

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Attorney General McReynolds nearly has finished investigating the John Wanamaker customs case and will decide in a few days if any evidence has been disclosed to present to a federal grand jury.

In the closing days of the Taft administration Mr. Wanamaker paid $100,000 to the treasury to settle civil liability for irregularities in assessing duties on imports over a period of about fifteen years. A minor employe in the Philadelphia customs house was permitted to resign, with the explanation that he had been careless.

Some treasury officials said Wanamaker had paid to the government more than it could have recovered by civil action. Secretary McAdoo when he took office asked the attorney general to find if there was any evidence of intent to defraud the government.

CINCINNATI WITHOUT CARS

Traction Traffic in Queen City is Practically Suspended.

STRIKERS ARE STANDING PAT

Three Heavily Guarded Cars Are Run Over Avondale Line, but They Do Not Carry Passengers.

CINCINNATI, O., May 14.—With only three cars operating, and these escorted by a heavy police guard over their entire route, the strike of the street car employees of the Cincinnati Traction Company today gave every evidence of settling into a long seige. No efforts were made by the strikers or their sympathizers this morning to interfere with the three Avondale line cars that left their barn at 9 o'clock morning in all sides by mounted policemen and preceded and followed by police automobiles filled with officers. The cars operated slowly and carried no passengers other than the men placed upon them by the company.

WOMEN SEND BOMB TO MAGISTRATE OF COURT IN LONDON

(Continued from Page One.) There was also a post card bearing the words: "We hope this is not a poor widow's house."

Case Loses Supporters

Striking evidence of the extensive operations of militant suffragettes and the bad effect on the women's cause of the outrages committed by them, was given today on the resumption of the hearing at the Bow street police court of the charges against suffragette leaders. They are charged with infringement on the malicious damage to property act.

Those who occupied the prisoners' enclosure were Miss Harriet Rebecca Kerr, Miss Agnes Lake, Miss Rachel Barrett, Miss Beatrice Saunders, Miss Annie Kenny, Miss Laura Lennox and the chemist, Clayton. The case against "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond was postponed until July owing to her illness.

Letter carriers and postoffice officials testified as to the great damage done the mails by chemicals and other fluids poured into the letter boxes.

The former business manager of the Suffragette testified regarding the responsibility of the various prisoners for the different departments of that newspaper. He said his services were dispensed with by the militant society because Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst thought it better that only women should conduct the paper.

Circulation Decreases

As to the loss of circulation by the Suffragette after the militant acts had been committed, the witness said that at first 30,000 copies were printed, but the sales were only 17,000. The circulation then dropped to 1,500, but 2,000 copies were circulated in other ways. Just before last Christmas he told Mrs. Pankhurst that this falling off was due to the letter box raids, but she shrugged her shoulders and said that that could not be possible because when the women were most militant they were most successful.

Cannot Trace Funds

Archibald Bodkin, counsel for the treasury, attempted to elicit from the accountant who audited the books of the Women's Social and Political Union, what became of the so-called secret service fund of £125,000 which the newspaper, the Suffragette, announced $500,000 had been raised. The accountant, however, was unable to throw any light on the subject. The prisoners smiled broadly at the attorney's futile efforts to get onto the track of their funds.

The Accountant Produced the Salary Book of the Union, from which it appeared that the salaries of the leaders of the militant movement were not princely.

Miss Annie Kenny received £21 weekly; "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Miss Harriet Rebecca Kerr, £17.50; Mrs. Beatrice Saunders and Miss Rachel Barrett, £15, and Miss Laura Lennox, £10. Miss Christabel Pankhurst, who is living in Paris, drew £25 in the last few months, according to the books.

Boys Make Bogus Bombs

Spring Time Is Blood Cleaning Time

Wonderful How Quickly Your Entire System Awakens When the Blood is Cleaned.

Let S. S. S. Aid You of All Blood Disorders.

If you are down with rheumatism; if you sneeze, feel chilled, are choked with catarrh, have a cough, or your skin is pimply and irritated with rash, eczema, or any other blood disorder, just remember that almost all the ills of life come from impure blood. And you can easily give your blood a good, thorough cleaning, a bath, by using S. S. S. There is no need for anyone to be despondent over the illness of blood impurities. No matter how badly they attack the system, or how unsightly becomes the skin, just remember there is one ingredient in S. S. S. that so stimulates the cellular tissues throughout the body that each part selects its own essential nutriment from the blood.

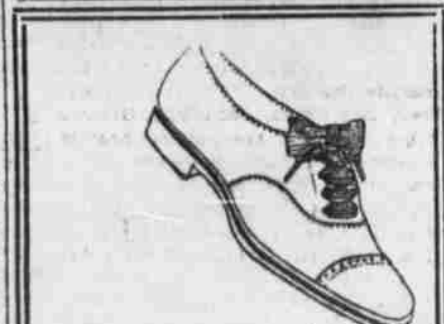

This means that all decay, all breaking down of the tissues, is checked and repair-work begins. S. S. S. has such a specific influence on all local cells as to preserve their mutual welfare and afford a proper relative assistance to each other. More attention is being given to constructive medicine than ever before and S. S. S. is the highest achievement in this line. For many years people relied upon mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic, "physics," cathartics and "dope" as remedies for blood sickness, but now the pure, vegetable S. S. S. is their safeguard. You can get S. S. S. in any drug store, but insist upon having it. And you should take no chance by permitting anyone to recommend a substitute. And if your blood condition is such that you would like to consult a specialist, freely and confidentially, address the Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Company, 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
